Hi Cathy,
Well Science Seminar
has been fun, even though I haven't seen you much ~~now~~ during our four years. ~~but~~ we have to make the best of our last year we only get one ya know. We be good and keep out of trouble!!!!!! Best of luck always.
Love,
Lan.

Hi Cathy,
I am really glad you got to be friends with this year. We've suffered through PE & English your way. Stay Love ya,
Becky

Cathy, you've had I hope you're had fun writing up your experiments in Bill.

Cathy,
I haven't seen you in a long time. I would love to see you & hear how you are. Don't look in the future can't say Physics is the worst hour of the day, but talking with you & your help is a lot!
Love
Sandy

Cathy,
you helped me out in Trig
a lot even though I didn't do much better
thanks anyway though!
It's too bad we don't have another math class
again. Oh well, psychology is fun. Good luck always and keep out of trouble.
Love xxx
Sandy.

Cathy, you're a great person to know and talk to it's fun after classes sitting back and talking I'm really glad I got to meet you. I really hope things go well for you in every way. Love
Becky

Cathy,
to a good singer in chorus,
it's been really fun knowing you. I'm glad that we are friends! Good luck in the years to come.

Hi Cathy,
I hope you're having a great time in Trig. I hope you're doing well. Love
Sandy

To Cathy,

to whom I never would have gotten through my Junior Year without!
You helped or did my work for dumb me in every subject. I don't think I'll survive my Senior Year without you in any of my classes. Good luck always!

Judy

Cathy,
It's been three long years and we've been in several classes together.
Last year with Fielding was terrible. Why you'd pick the biggest novel on the rack? I'll never know!

Myron Orbach

Cathy,
you're one of the sweetest
people I know.
Chemistry was a "blast" (or maybe I should say "blow-up") with you. Good luck
in everything you do!

your good friend,
Dianna

Cathy,
I'm really happy
that I got to know
such a sweet kid and that I always have you in my classes. Good luck always!

Cathy,
I'm really happy
that I got to know

Cathy,
Good luck on your future, especially college.
I am sure you will do very well because you are a good student.
Best wishes for you.

August & September started off the year by beginning seasonal activities, and a tremendous change in our administration. Many students came back to school with the idea of a successful year.

Coming back meant books to read, study, The food in the lounge (bla!).

More studies and experiments from the University. Tardy slips, drop slips. The warm weather made us anxious to be outside, but we were stuck inside. But many will agree that Aug./Sept. were two months that started the year off right.

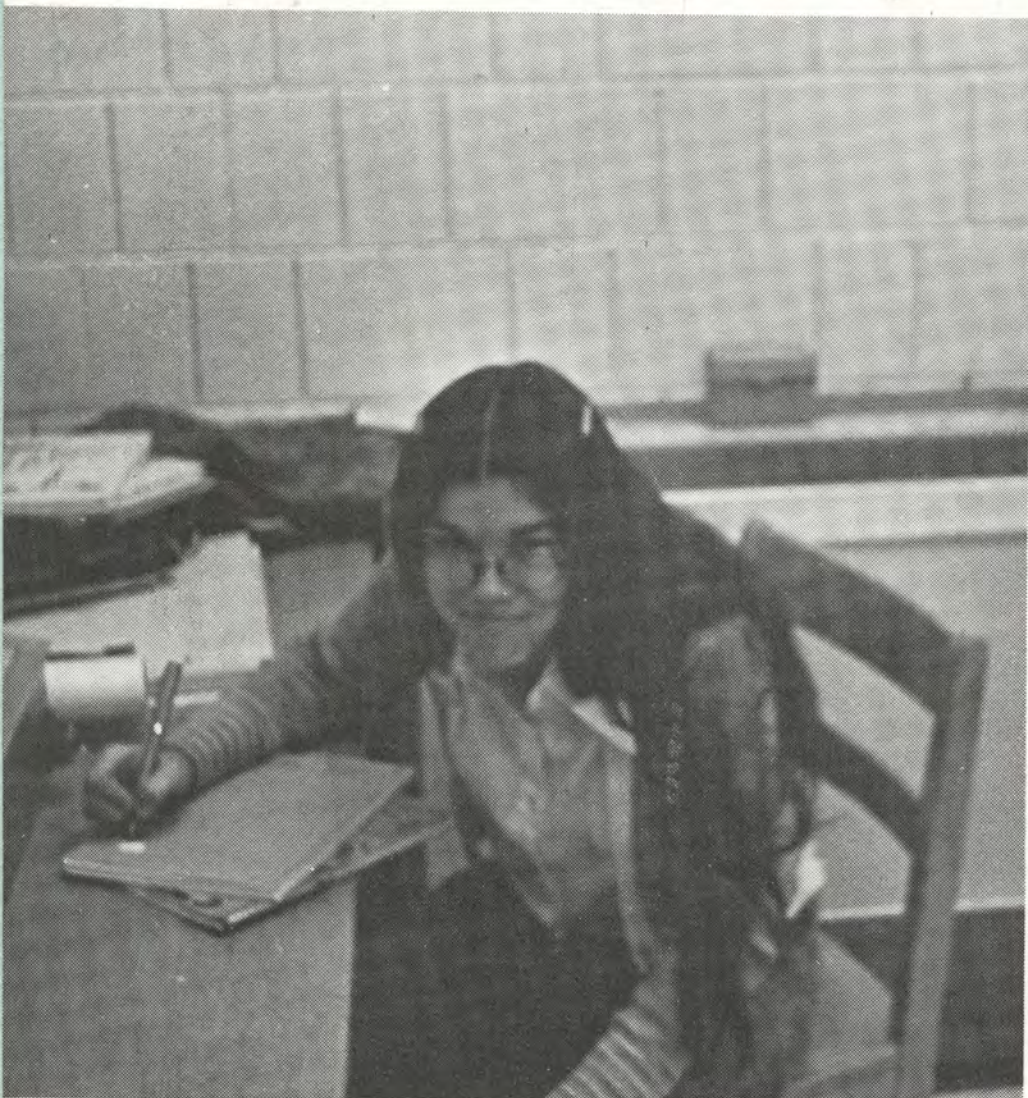

We Knew Summer Was Over

Registration started the school year with long lines, lots of papers, seeing new faces, old faces, friends, and enemies. Registration meant that vacation was over and back to nine months of school. For some, U-High was an old building and for others a new one.

There were, of course, students stuck in the wrong class, classes dropped. Kids who signed up for a class to find out it wasn't what they expected; and for some Sept. 19 meant the inevitable D-F slips.

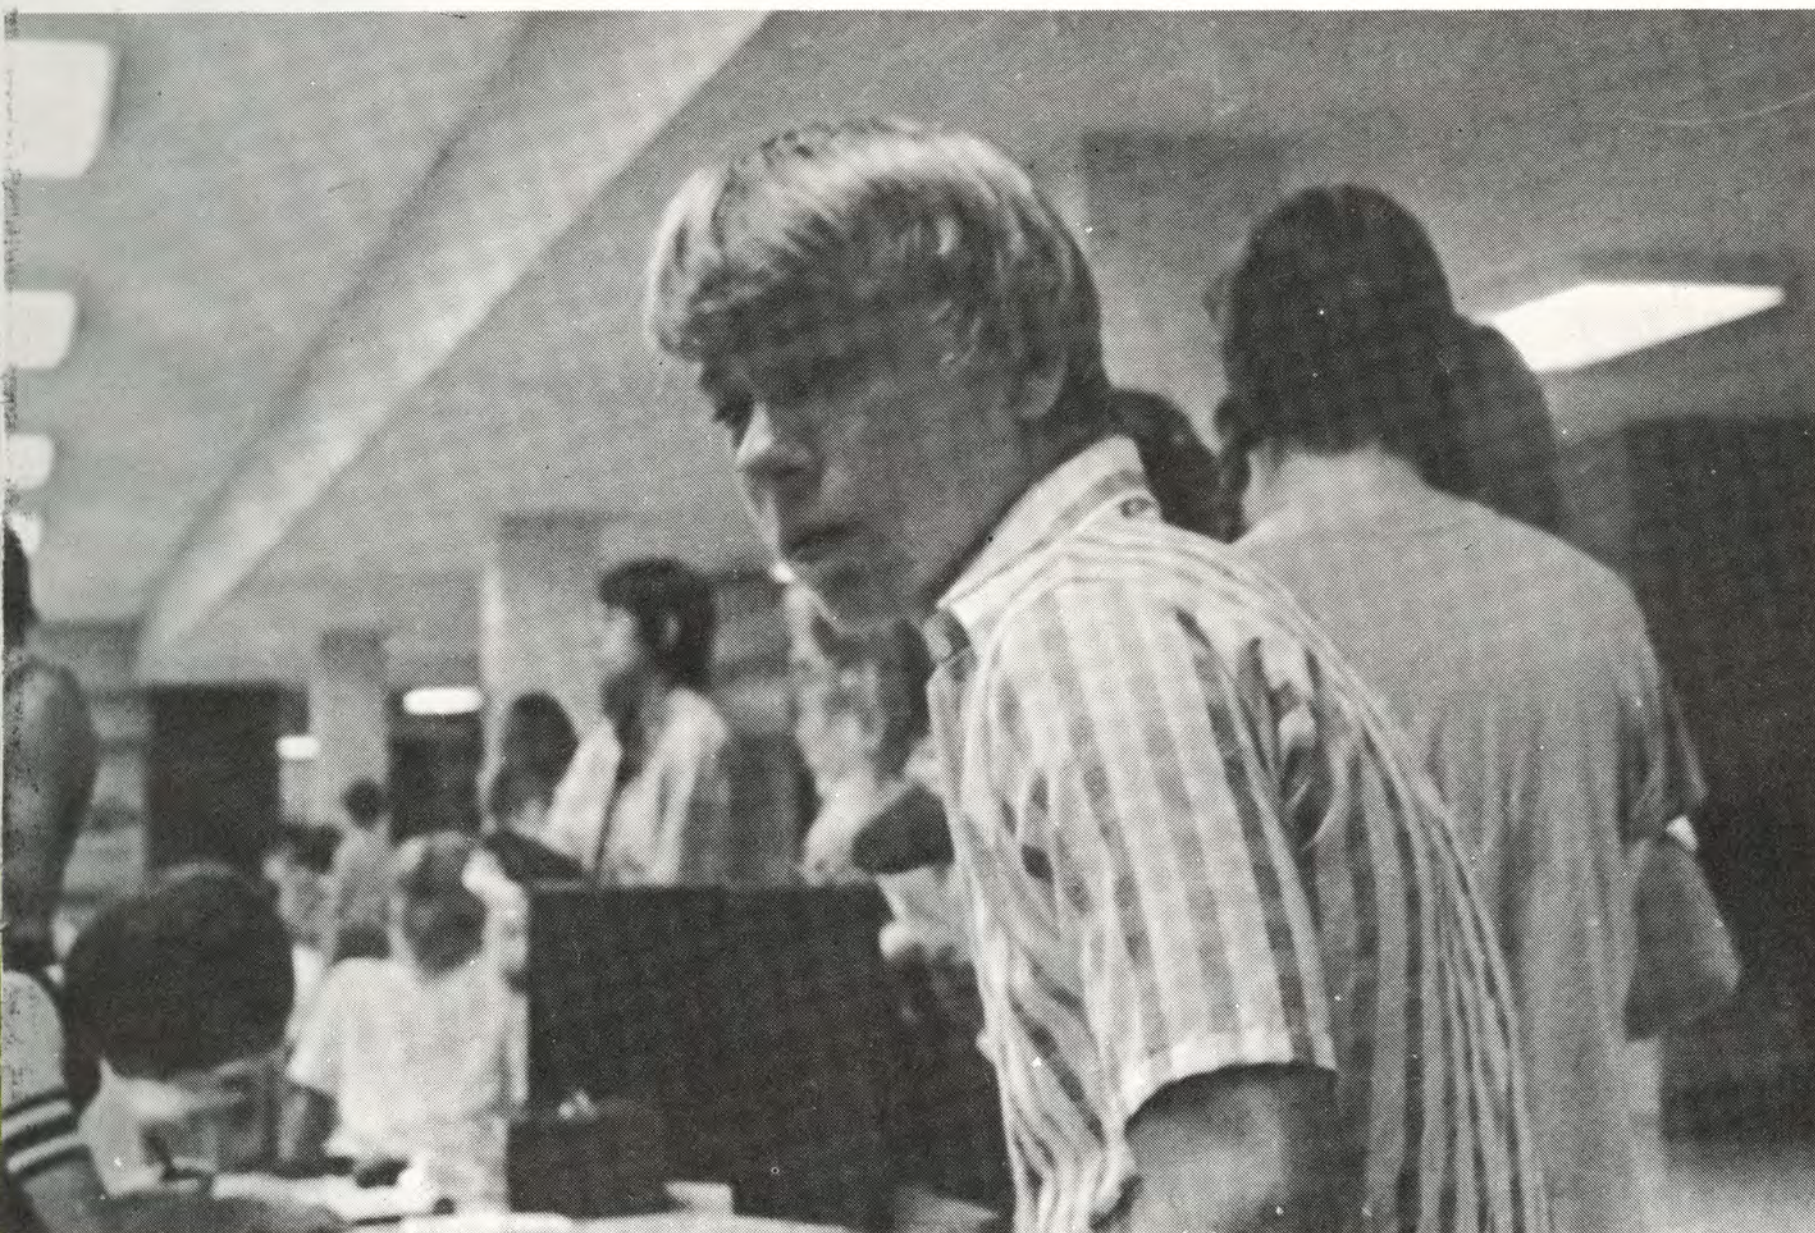

On Sept. 17, from 3:00-4:00 the annual Extra Curricular Club Roundup was held. The Roundup gave clubs a chance to show students what they're about and attract new members. The foreign language clubs focused on cultures; and AFS centered around the idea of international friendship. The Clarion and Clarionette displayed their work in the form of old papers and yearbooks. After it was all over they hoped that their work was successful, encouraged new membership, and improved their image.

Clockwise starting left: Jay Allen and Sherry Dunn takes a break from play practice. Ray Roderick finds there's one more piece of information to pick up at Registration. Clint Ayers works on the set of COME BLOW YOUR HORN.

"When it rains it pours." Belting out another tune is Dave "Ivory Keys" Adams. Becky Pruyne says "Ola! Que Fal?" at the Spanish Club's booth during Club Roundup. Claire Hicklin guards the J room.

August and September

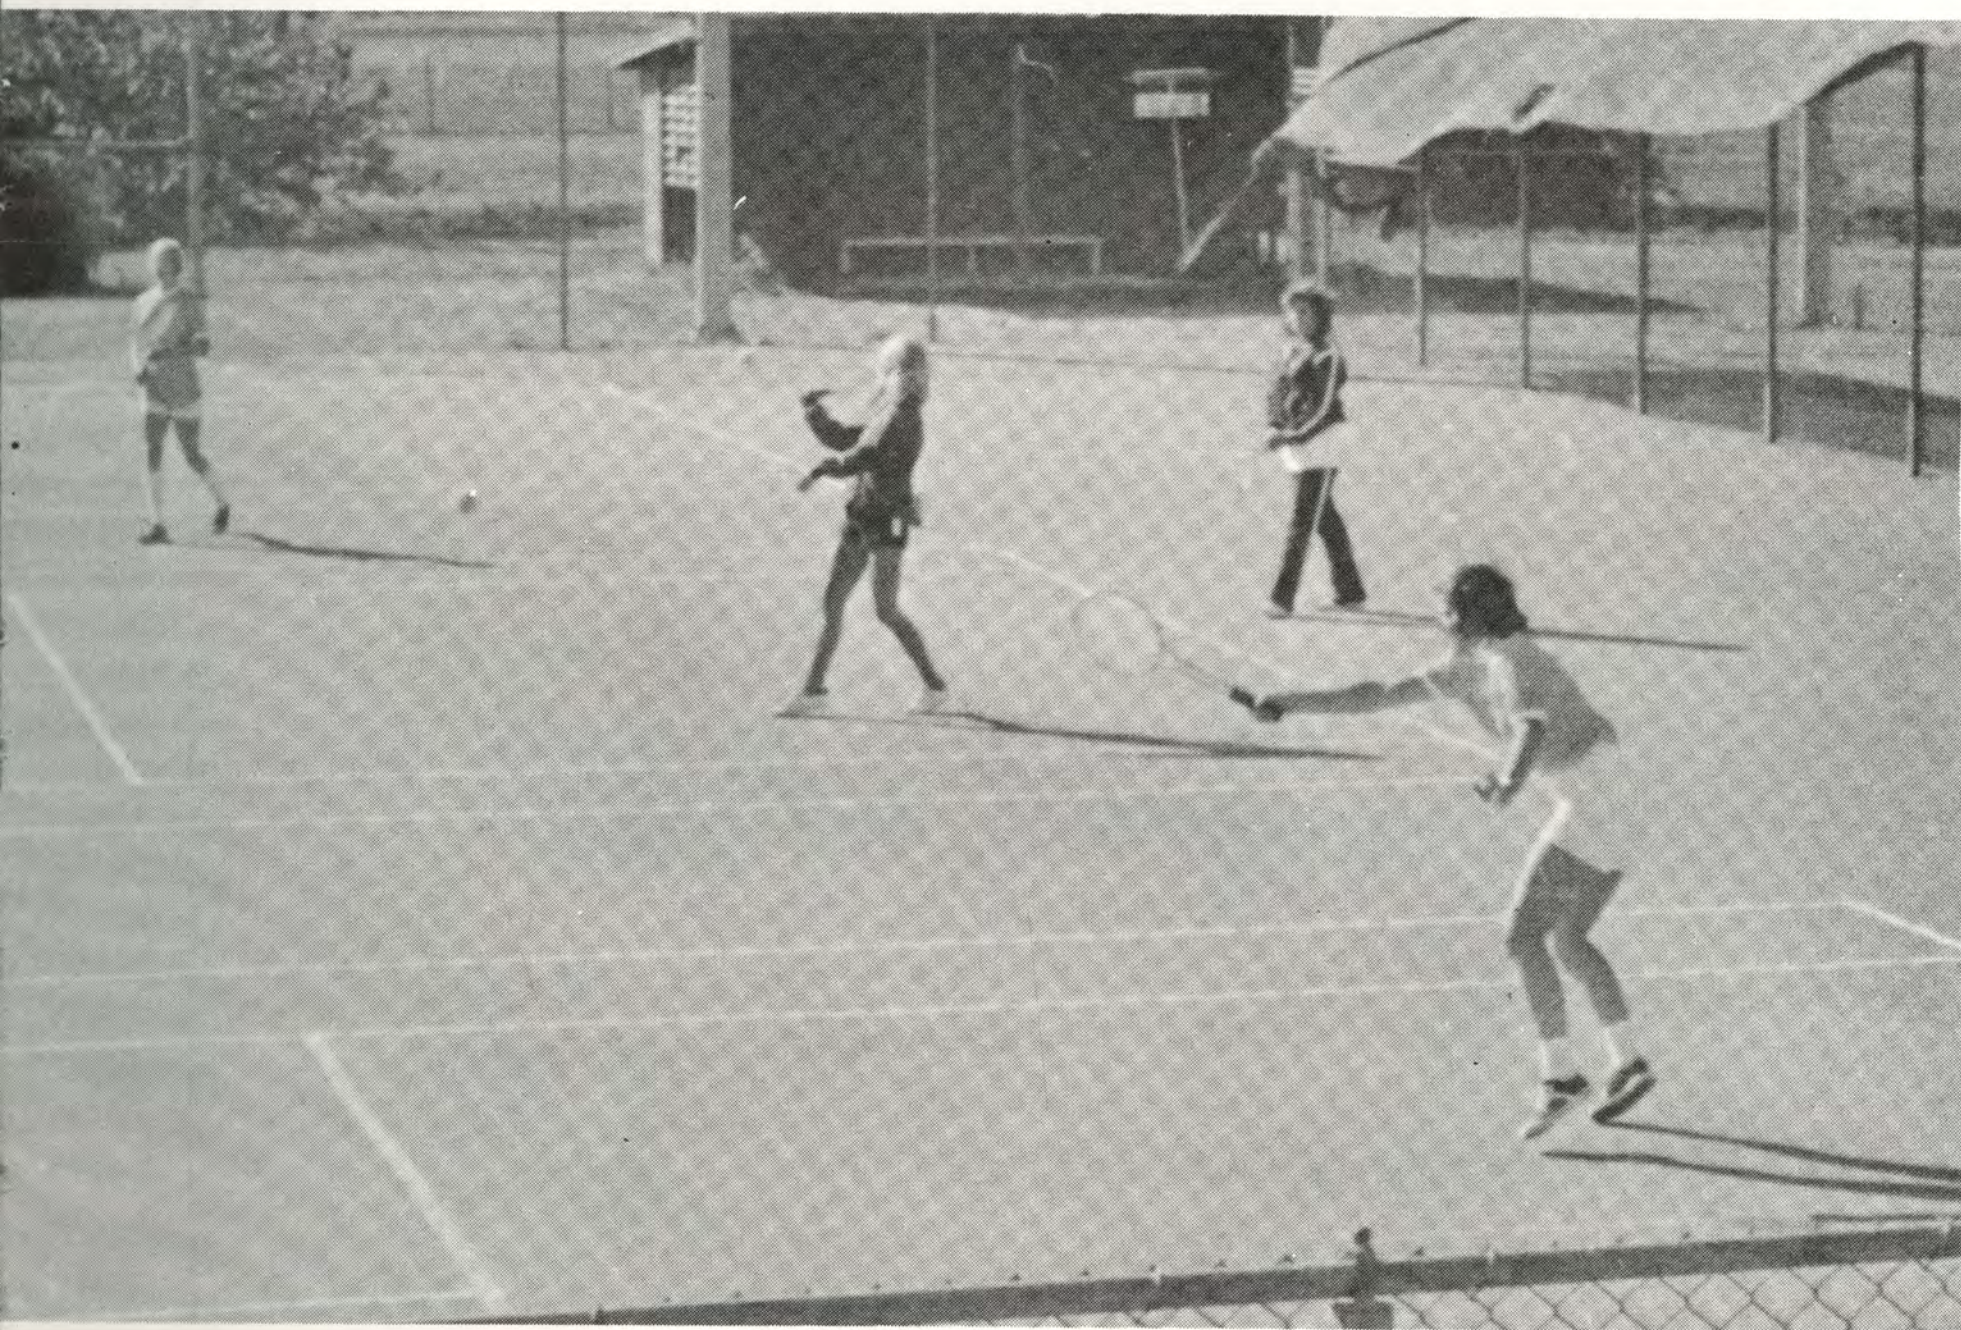

Athletics Dominate

Right: To Dennis Gibson and Neal Patterson, Cross Country means practice and lots of it.

In the heat of August Cross Country runners start their practicing on the I.S.U. golf course where they get in shape for the meets ahead. At meets, the seven best runners compete against other schools on a course that is usually three miles long. The Harriers in their first meet lost to Washington, but won over Eureka. During Sept. they improved and on the 28th placed 7th, out of 34, in the St. Joe/Ogden relays.

This was the first year U-High has had a girls' tennis team. Tryouts were held in August and eleven girls were chosen, including a substantial number of freshmen. Practice came at 7:00 a.m. on Tues. and Thurs. In their first month of meets they lost all three to Central Catholic, N.C.H.S., and Peoria Richwoods. Even though off to a poor start, they hoped that the experience gained will help them in October.

The U-High Frosh-Soph Football team started the year off right with a win over Central Catholic 19-6. The next game, against N.C.H.S. chalked up the first loss. At Pontiac the Sophs went on to shut them out 12-0. The Pioneers showed exceptional defense, and running back John Roberts scored both touchdowns. They tied with Clinton at the end of the month to have a 2-1-1 record for September.

Frosh Gridders Meet Turf

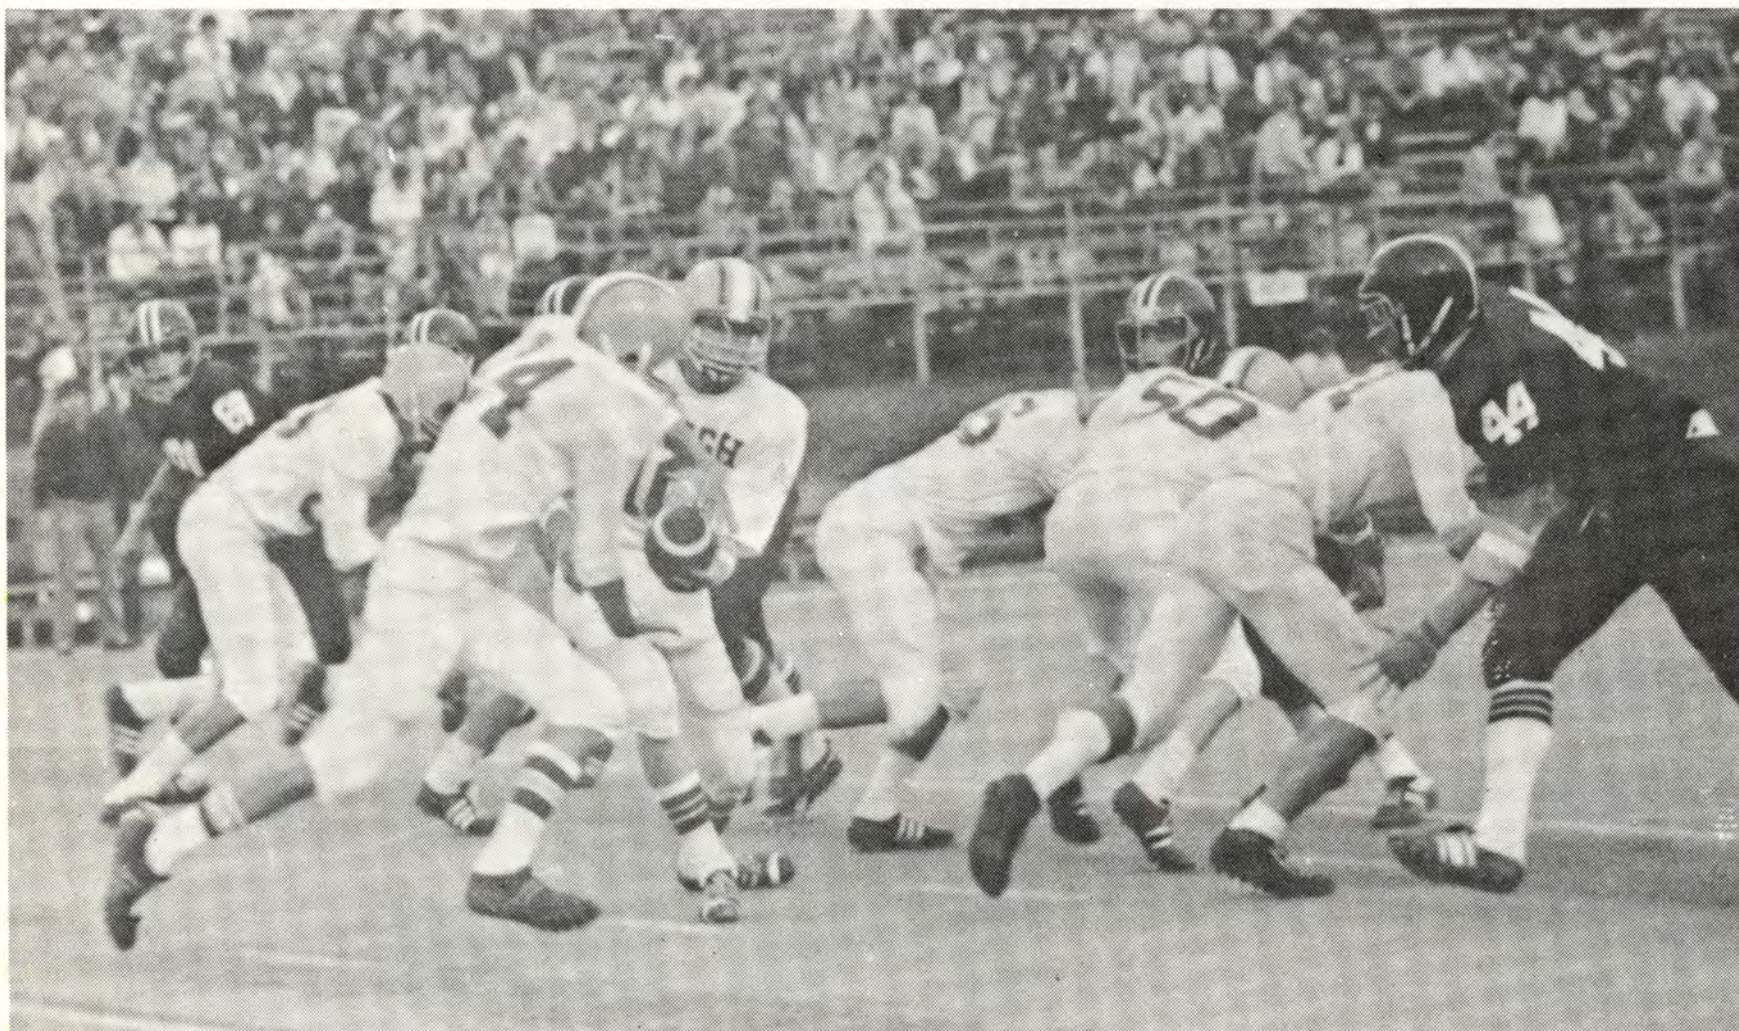

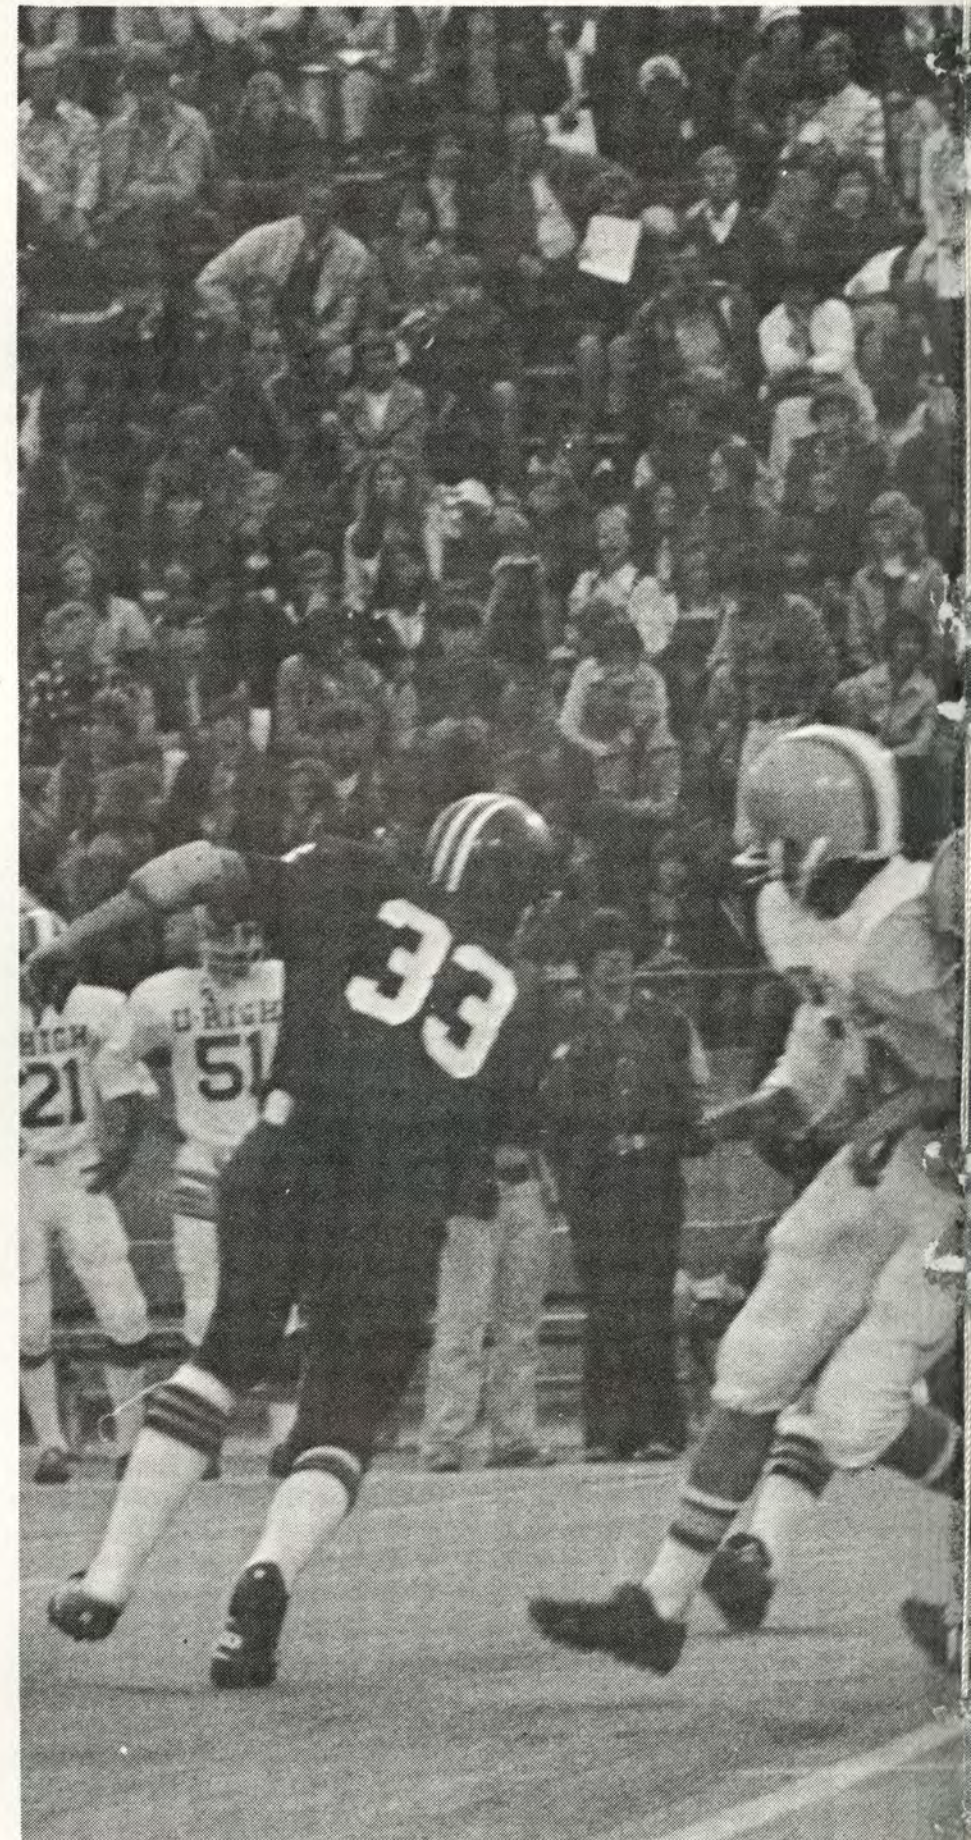

This year's Freshmen started with 25 young Pioneers. With football being their first sport in high school, they encountered the constant practicing after school and on Saturdays. Their first high school game came on Sept. 9th. They lost as Central Catholic scored on a single touchdown at the end of the 4th quarter. Let down, the team was determined to do better. They won the next games against Pontiac 24-8 and then Clinton 20-8. In these two games they played especially well, and they looked forward to victories in October.

Left: Gary Dirks, one of the best players on the team, runs for extra yardage as he's tailed by two opponents. Above: The first year Pioneers encountered lots of practice.

Varsity Gridders Kick Off Season

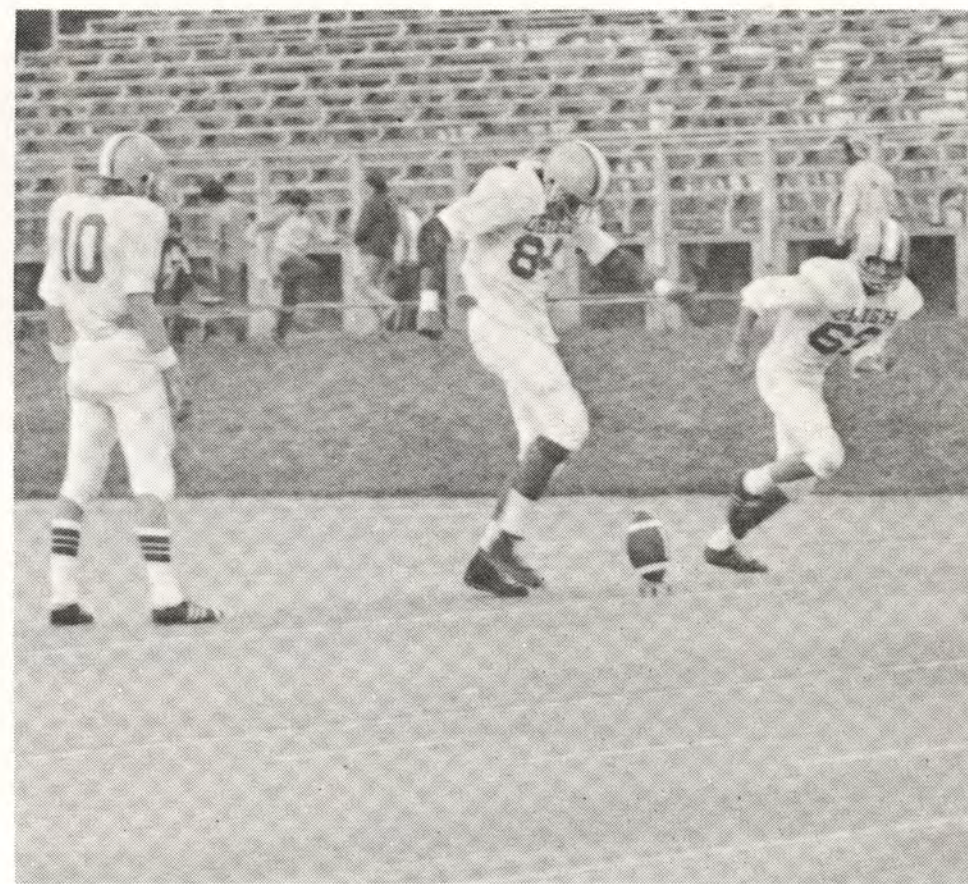

Season With Intercity Tourney

On August 18, the Pioneer varsity football team started practicing to improve its past season's record. They started the year with seven lettermen: Roger Scott, Ric Cordero, Dave Schramm, Doug Rupp, Casey Lartz, Steve Doran, and Paul Richardson. The team started the year off right by defeating Central Catholic 24-6, in the Intercity Doubleheader. Bill Eddy led the Pioneers in rushing with 89 yards while Tim Hutson scored two touchdowns and rushed for 67 yards. The next week the Pioneers were slaughtered by Bloomington 35-6. They tied with Pontiac 7-7 in a game where missed blocking assignments and dropped passes hurt badly. The last game of Sept., against Clinton, U-High creamed them 25-7. At the end of Sept. the gridders had a 2-1-1 record, and a 2-0-1 in the conference.

Clockwise starting below. "The Kick off." In hopes of another touchdown, Steve Doran passes. Steve Doran (10) hands off to Tim Hutson (24) as Mike Donovan (50) and three other Pioneers block. This play didn't gain much yardage as an unidentified U-High player is brought down. Bad weather didn't dampen the spirits of varsity practice. After evading one tackler, Tim Hutson takes on two more Central Catholic defenders.

Golfers Eye State

The U-High golf team competed this fall for the first time ever. Previously, golf was played in the spring; however, part of the season was switched to fall, in hopes of better weather. In September, the golfers played several dual meets against intercity and Heart of Illinois rivals which resulted in a 7-4 record.

Right: Dan Townley works on improving his putting. Below right: Dave McLaren practices his putting after getting some advice from Pat Venker. Below: Rusty Macy, in a dual meet, leads off.

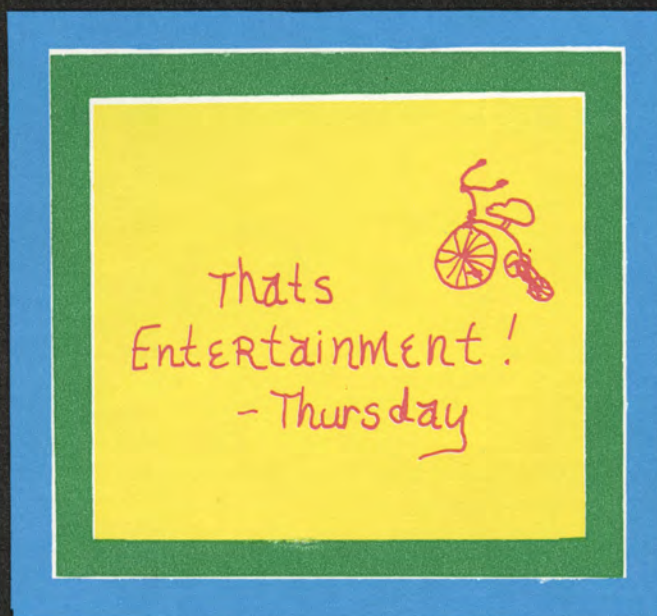

On October 2,3, and 4 the U-High Student Senate presented to the student body, Homecoming '74. Senate wanted a theme they could decorate and apply easily: they chose "That's Entertainment."

October Premieres With Homecoming

Clockwise starting right: Senior strength goes beyond the margins of spirit alone as they win the tug-a-war. Thursday's bonfire set the mood for Homecoming '74 as it entranced as well as warmed U-High students. Sophomores Jim Eaton and John Funk are movin on in Thursday evening's races.

Thursday night kicked off Homecoming with the traditional bonfire, fire crackers, and races. Seniors won the tug-a-war, and Bill Bishop won the tricycle race for the Sophomores. A Marx Brothers movie followed and in a sense reflected the mood of the student body, happy and spirited!

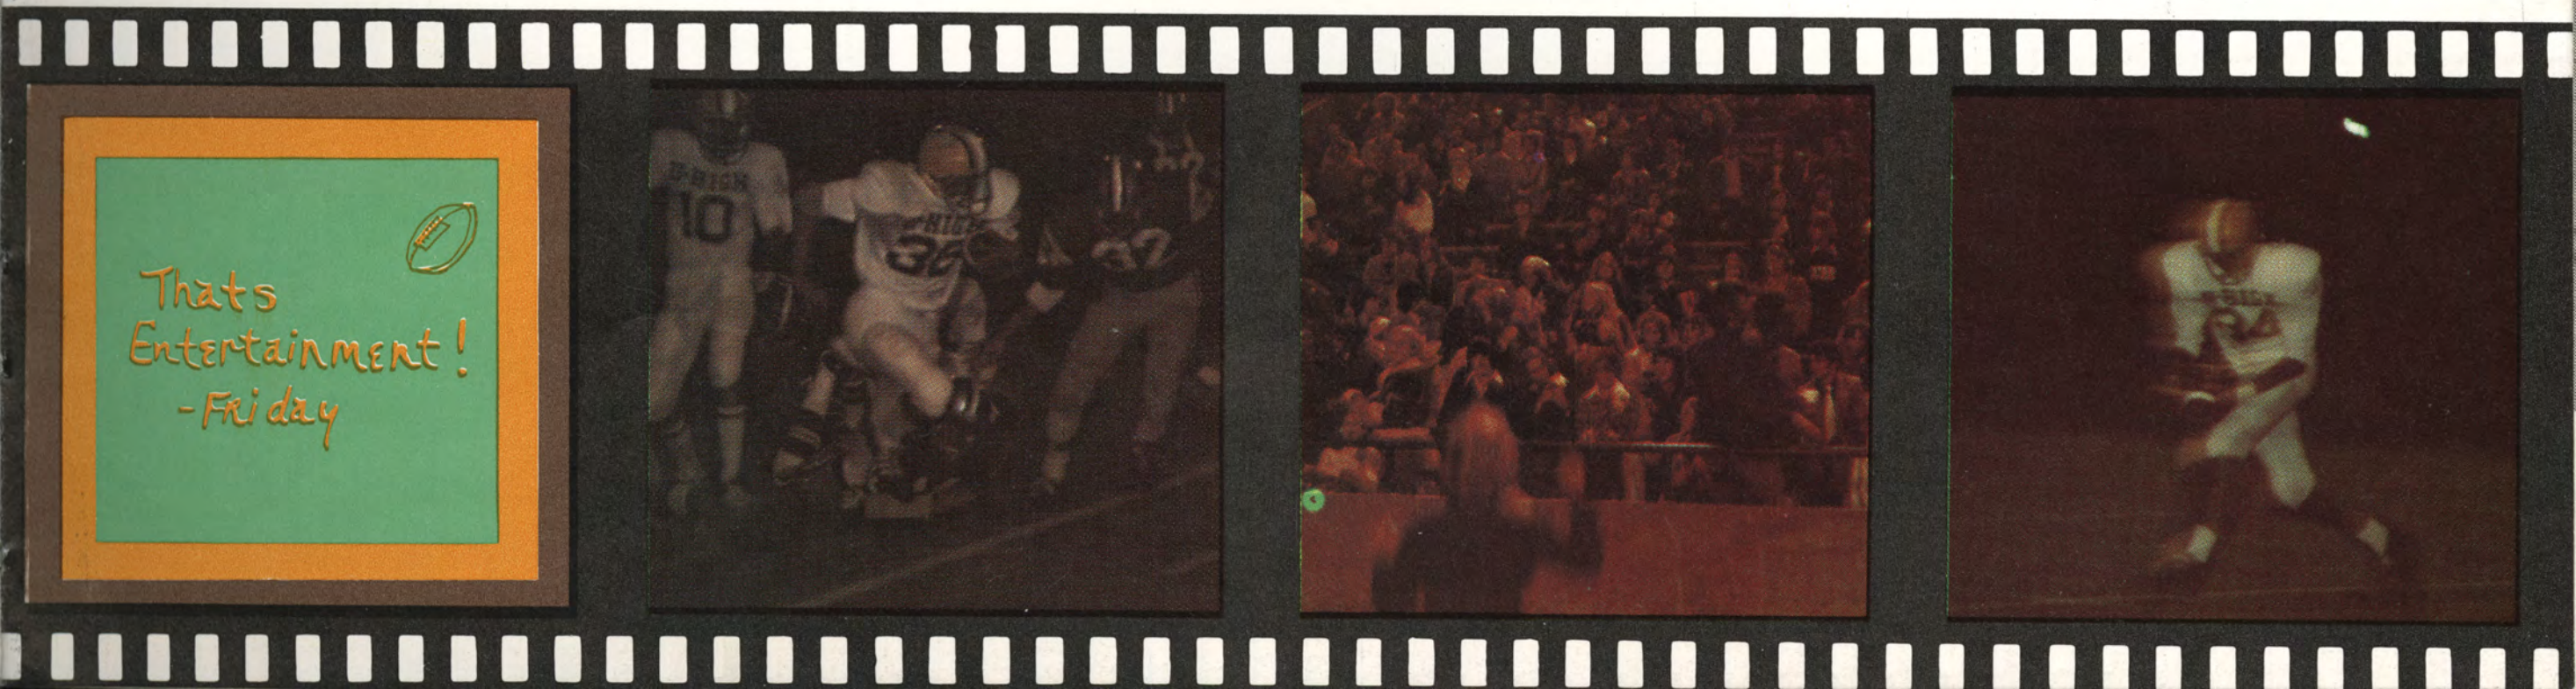

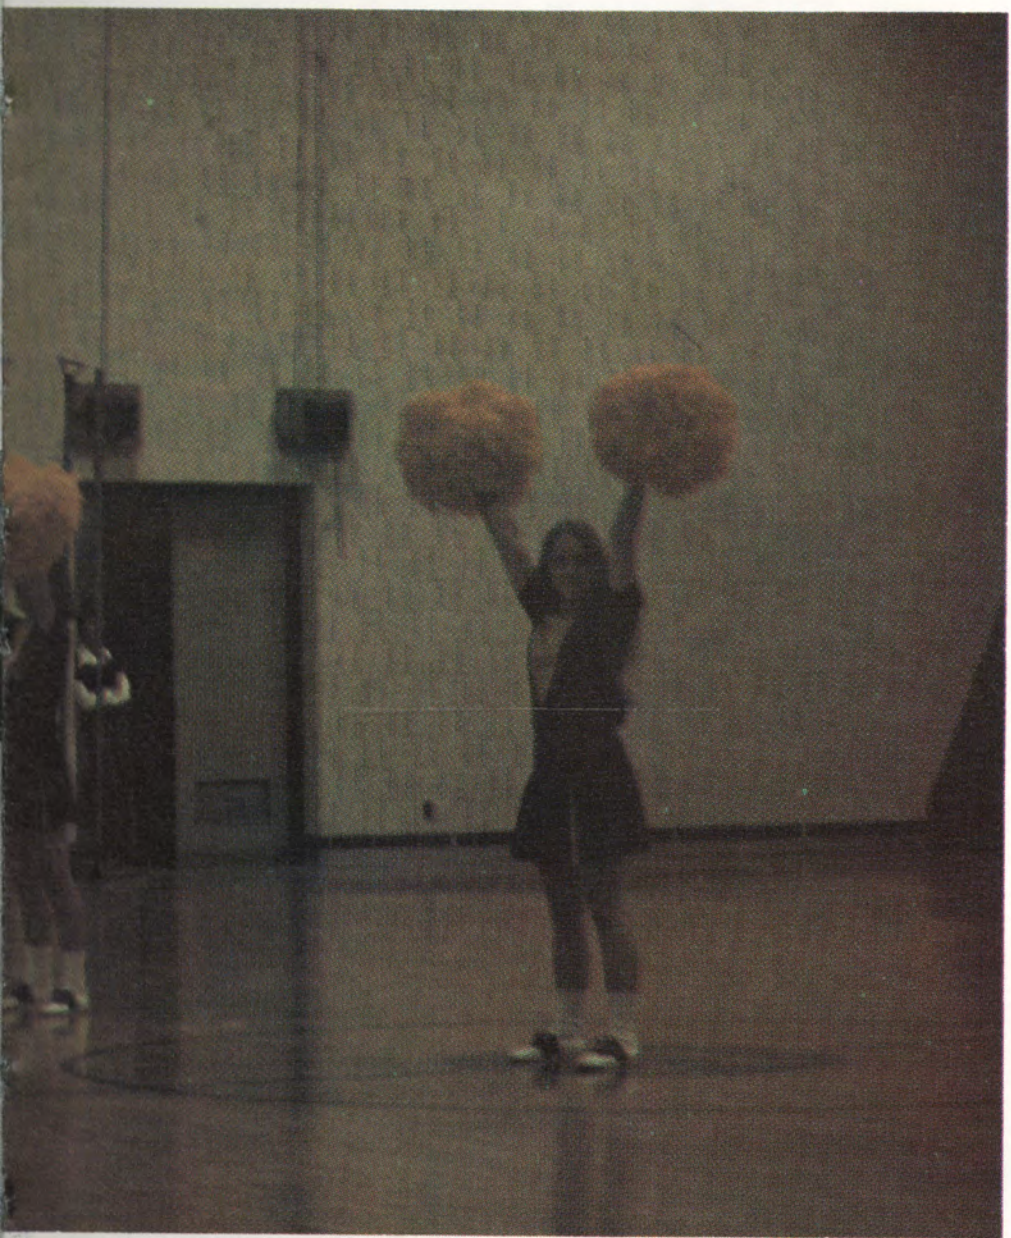

The pep assembly started Friday with cheers, Pep Club skit, and school song. Following the assembly was a mad rush for the cars. The caravan of 22 cars traveled around in Normal for about thirty minutes. As the cars came back to U.H.S., confusion developed and the car caravan split up to the surprise of the Administration. On a chilly Friday night, U-High ran out I.V.C. The announcement of King and Queen at halftime climaxed a week of anticipation of who would win! After which most people went out and partied.

Clockwise starting left: Pioneers give varsity cheerleaders Tami Scott and Cindy Lartz something to cheer about as they move the score to 14-0 in the third quarter. Ric Cordero's reception earns a little extra yardage at the expense of a "facemask" penalty. Prairie Belles generate a little spirit at the pep assembly in preparation for the Grey Ghosts. Spirit abounded and almost overflowed in the car caravan. Meg Thetard draws congratulations after being crowned queen at Friday's game against I.V.C.

Clockwise starting below: '74 Homecoming Court: King Ric Cordero, Queen Meg Thetard. Crownbearers, Tammy Pyne and Chris Karraker. Second Row: '73 Queen Jayne Bolen, Laurel Foreman, Chris Girardi, '73 King Mike Nott. Third Row: Casey Lartz, Tom Jump. Fourth Row: Jane Newbold, Cathy Carlyon, Joy Wainscott. Fifth Row: Tom Brown, Mark Chiodo, Steve Doran. U-High students and alumni alike enjoy the music of Justice. "That's Entertainment" seemed to be an entertaining evening for all. Homecoming '74 drew good student support as shown by the crowded dance floor. Homecoming Royalty, Ric Cordero & Meg Thetard, lead the traditional court dance.

Saturday climaxed Homecoming with a dance in what was a truly well decorated lounge. The decorations committee, headed by Martha Shelley, spent from 8:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. Sat. decorating. Justice provided the music and Booster Club provided the refreshments. The crowning of King Ric Cordero and Queen Meg Thetard topped off Homecoming '74.

They Blew Their Horns

On Oct. 17, 18, and 19 the U-High Drama Dept. put on its fall play: COME BLOW YOUR HORN.

It is all about the escapades of a 33 year-old bachelor named Alan, played by Jay Allen, who works two days a week and spends the rest of his time as playboy. Buddy, Alan's younger brother, played by Clint Ayers, leaves home, and under Alan's influence changes from a straight kid to swinger like Alan.

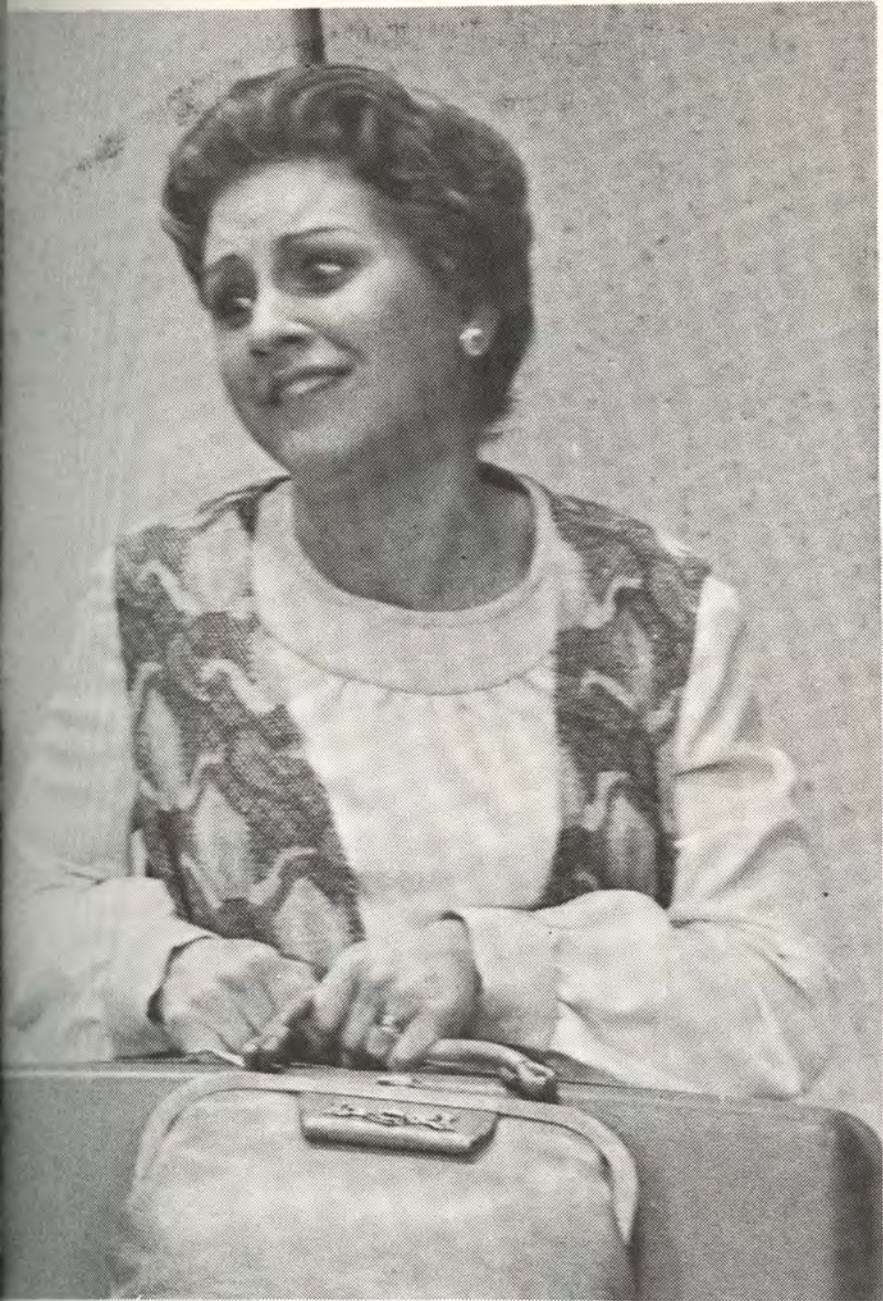

As Buddy becomes more carefree, Alan becomes more responsible and eventually settles down. Other cast members are Sue Ericksen, as Peggy the girl upstairs who wants to be an actress and will believe anything, Mike Beer as the father, Sherry Dunn as Alan's girlfriend, Connie who is "different from all the rest," Julia Reitan as the mother, and Beth Escott as Aunt Gussie.

Tickets were printed at U-High by Dave Adams, with the aid of Mr. Young. Posters were distributed to area businesses. In charge of costumes were Julia Reitan and Sherry Dunn, Props:

Judy Paxton, Publicity: Kathy Boon, State Mgr.: Dave Adams, and House Mgr.: Claire Hicklin. In addition to these people, behind the scenes were 40 crew members whose hard work and tireless effort made the show a complete success.

Clockwise starting left. "You wouldn't hear me, I'd be like a dead person." Connie: "Maybe just a cup of coffee." "She's coming home with me!" "Are you sure you don't have a reservation for me? Manheim? I'm with MGM." "Bum." Alan: "Well, Peggy, I'm not working any more. I don't have much time for skiing."

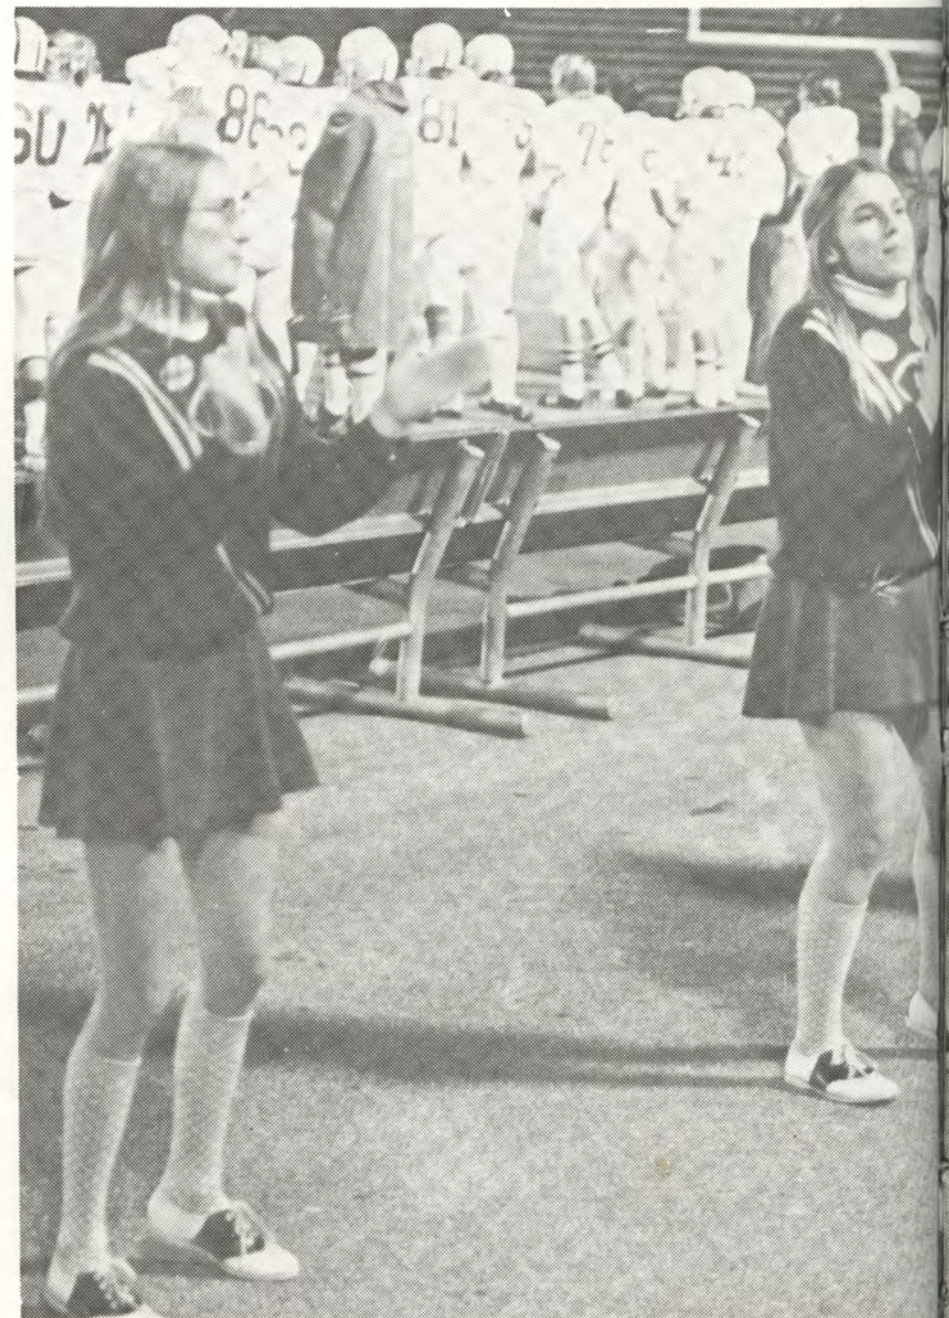

Girl Netters Gain Experience

The Girls' Tennis Team ended their first year of competition with a 0-10 record. Even though they didn't do very well, the girls gained experience and skills which they intend to use next year.

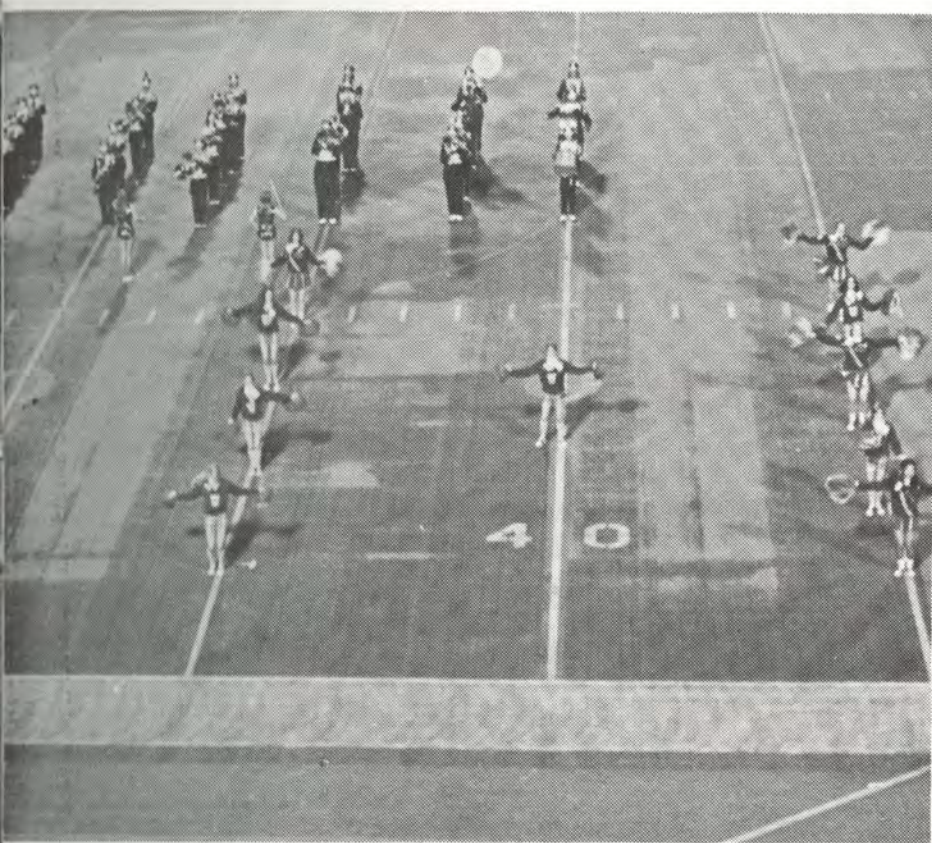

Left: Judy Miller puts another serve across the net in early morning practice. Right: Prairie Bells, Cheerleaders get help from the Band in keeping time to the School Song. Bottom Right: Varsity Cheerleaders show spirit to the crowd. Bottom Left: Raandi Johnson worries about returning the ball during practice.

Prairie Belles, Cheerleaders Promote School Spirit

The U-High Cheerleaders all had the same task: to try to raise some spirit at home and away games, which can sometimes be tough. The Prairie Belles performed routines during half-time home games. They gave a break from the tension of the game. Though the two groups have different tasks they would get together for the U-High school spirit song. All the girls, except freshmen, were chosen the spring before in tryouts. After school they would practice, each taking a part of the lounge. The Prairie Belles, with a scratchy tape recorder, would work on a new routine while parading around. The Cheerleaders, in shorts, would work on a new cheer and the movements that went with it. Their hard work proved that there was still hope for U-High's spirit.

The '75 Pioneer Harriers seemed almost ready to get into a very competitive year, but it seems the team just missed in everything it did. Lead by Capt. Tim Bushnell and German Braillard with good support from Dan Elmore and Bob Bell, they took 4th in conference, 6th in their own invitational and 6th in District. Most valuable was Tim Bushnell. '76 captain is Marty Kieswetter.

Activities Highlight October

Clockwise Left: The Jr. Class Executive Board makes themselves available, while displaying their wares. Cathy Carlyon and Alumni Bill Dunbar stop from signing books for a picture. Sue Ziegler, U-High's drum majorette waits for her baton to come falling down.

Laura Clark breaths hot, heavy flames at the yearbook signing party. Nyssa Jacobs and Cathy Crumley give up their lunch hour to help sell French Club's goodies. Ray Roderick adjourns Spanish Club, and gets ready to eat the refreshments.

October was a month of many events and activities.

The foreign language clubs got organized and elected officers. French Club built up its treasury through a bake sale and a garage sale.

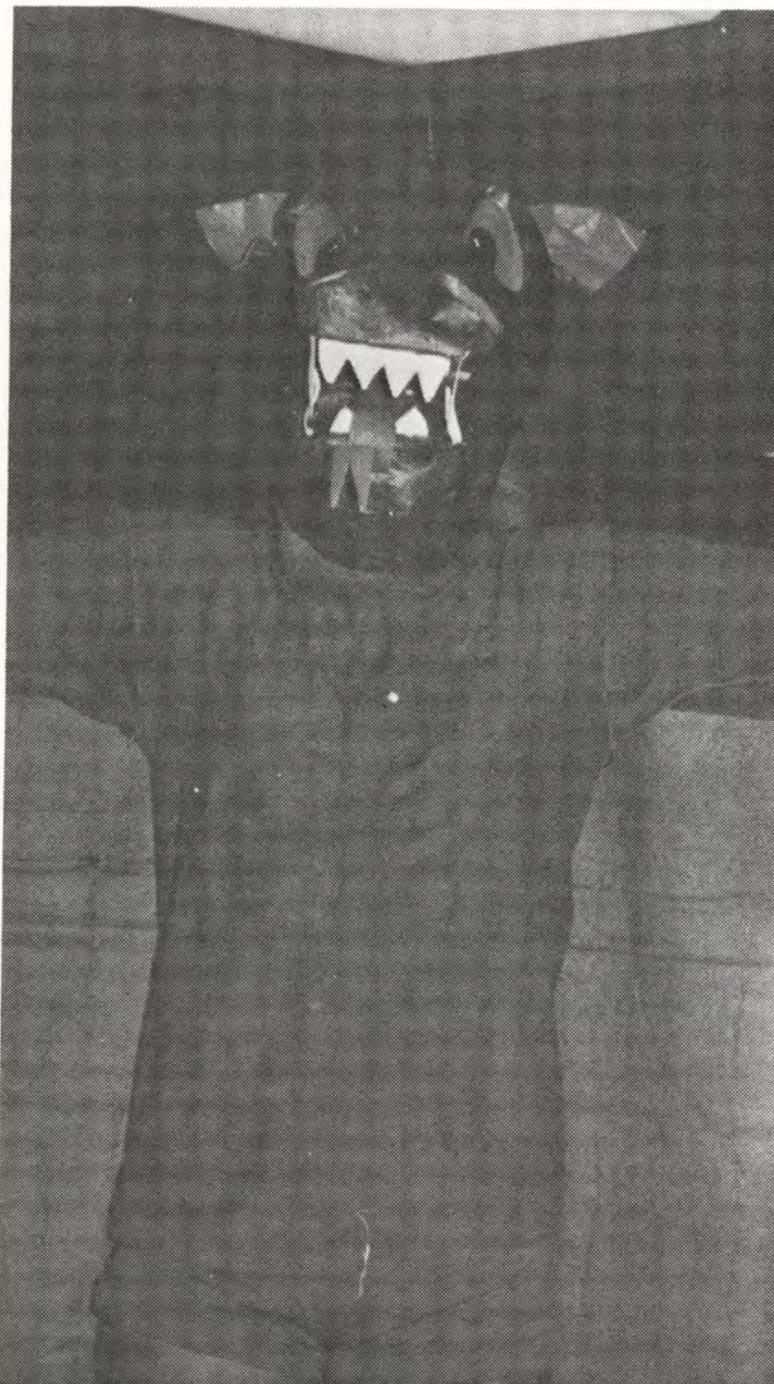

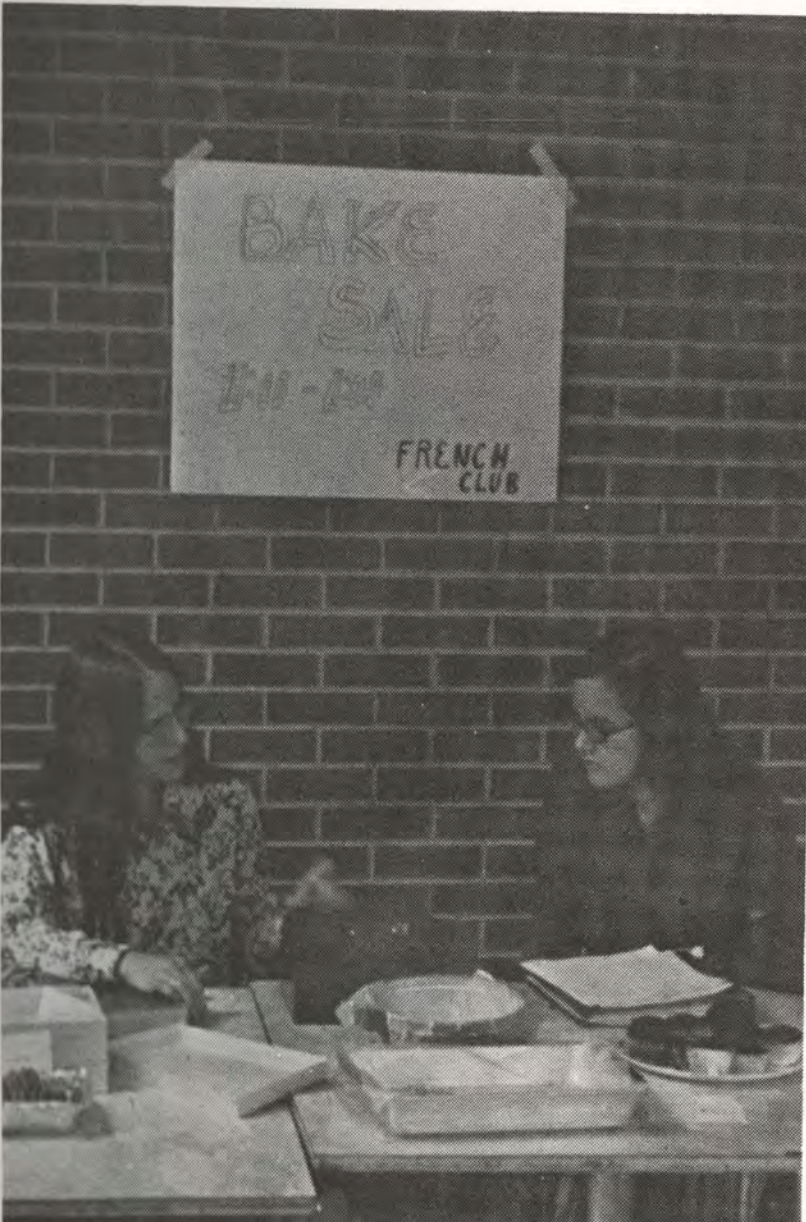

Band practiced and performed for half-time. They entertained the crowd, played for the cheerleaders and Prairie Belles. Jazz Band, with only 6 returning members, got ready for up coming events.

A.F.S. raised money by holding a film festival, and cleaning up the school for Open House, German and Dan Townley spoke about life in Argentina.

The Clarionette kept producing papers, and working late into the night to meet the challenge of dummy layout.

The Clarion started gathering ads, working on class layouts, and exchanged ideas on what the book should look like.

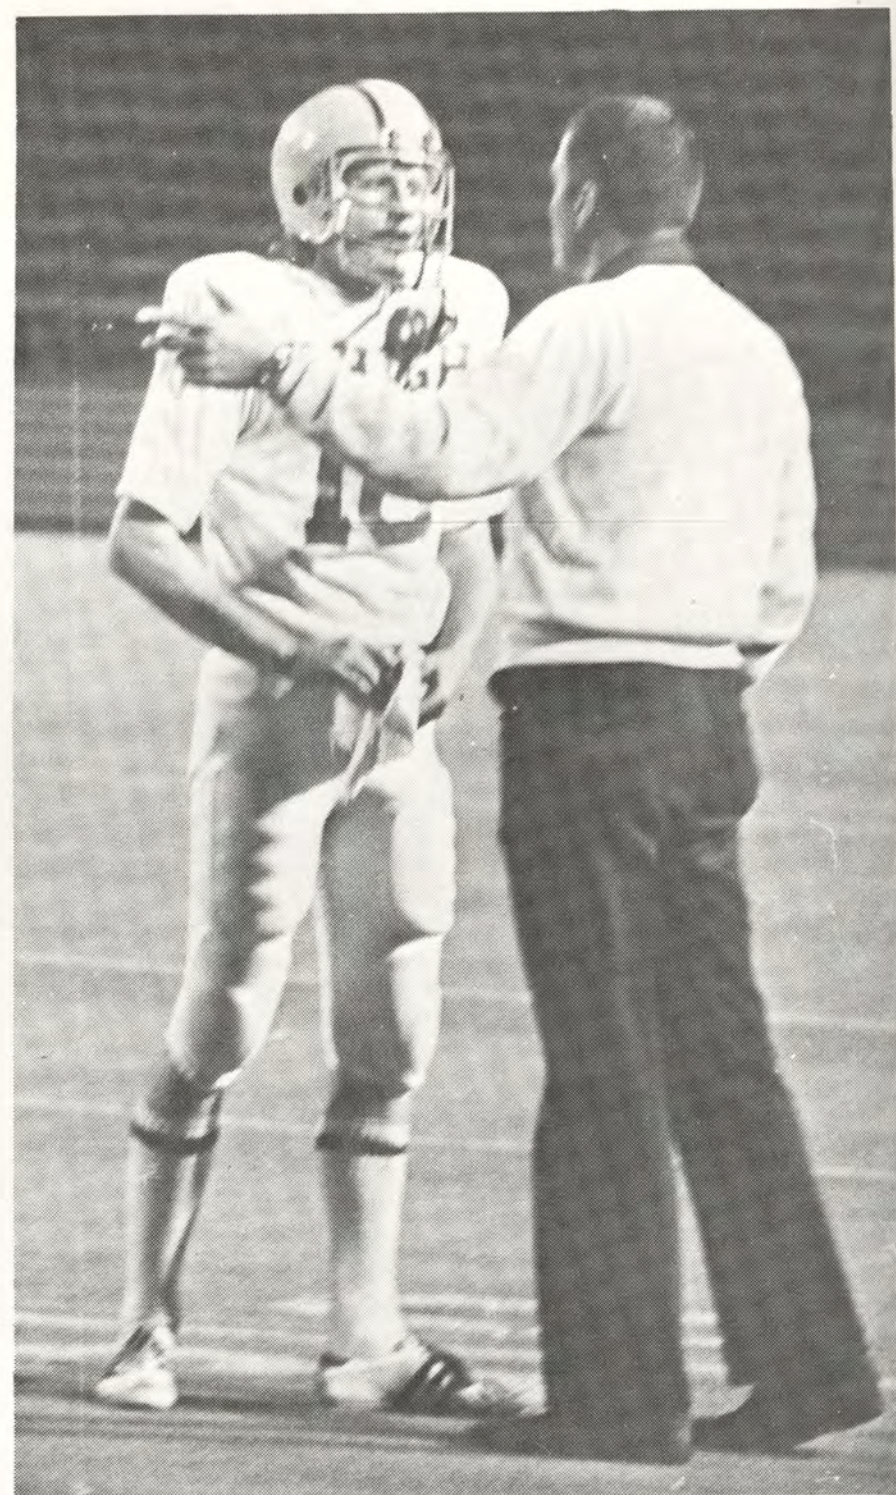

On Oct. 30, the Clarion staff released the 73-74 yearbooks. Before it Pep Club held the movie: "The Great Race"; during the movie Zorro, Chicken Man and others paraded around the auditorium and lounge.

Chiodo Wins 100th

Varsity Football started off October right with a 14-0 win over IVC at Homecoming. The victory was Coach Chiodo's 100th victory, 57 of them at U-High. Bill Eddy led with 125 yards on 30 carries. Jim Eaton scored his first touchdown, and Ric Cordero his fourth. The next two games were losses to Canton, and Washington. At the last conference game U-High overpowered Olympia 19-6. The victory gave the Pioneers a 4-2-1 conference record, the best in the Eastern division.

Clockwise starting below: Coach Chiodo gives Capt. Steve Doran some last minute instructions. An extra effort puts Bill Eddy into open field. As usual, there was a huge turnout for the game. Jim Eaton (#44) clears a path for Bill Eddy (#36).

Sophs Finish Season

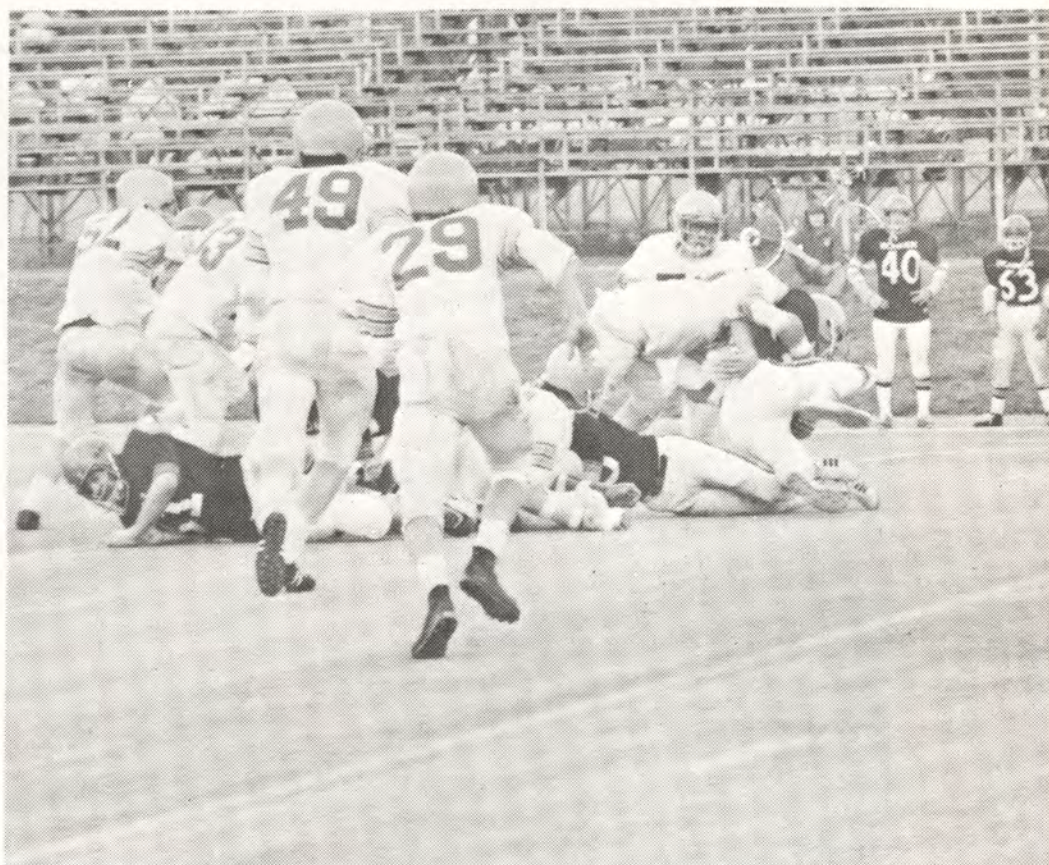

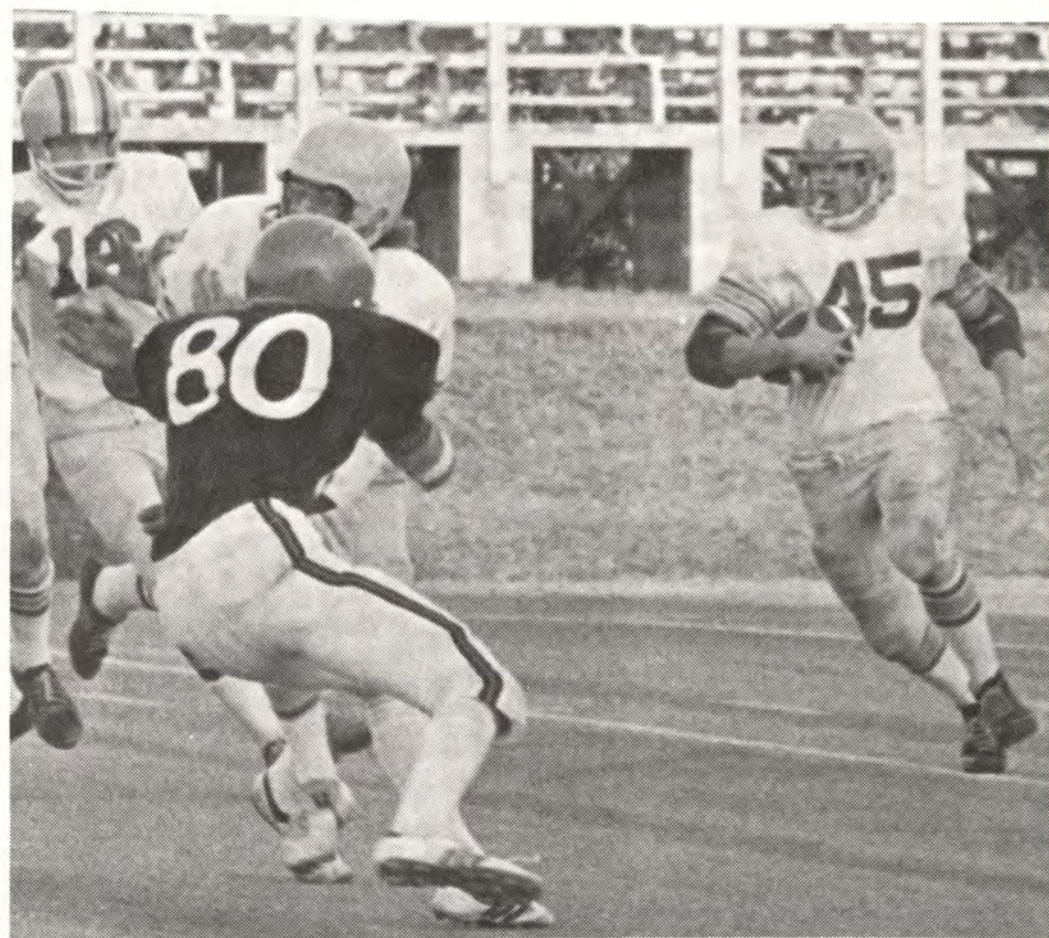

The Sophomore Football team was upended by Metamora 38-18, on October 14th, U-High scored only in the 4th quarter; a pass to Mike Ryan, a one-yard run by Kevin Hammer, and a 40 yard run by Tony Nevius. U-High suffered two more losses during the last games of the season, giving them a 2-4-1 record.

Clockwise starting below: Mike Gould (45), with a pitch out from quarterback Mike Talkington (16) picks up some extra yardage. Soph. gridgers join in the pile on. Coach Scott describes his four ways to win a game. Duh! What now coach? Mike Talkington coordinates his actions with the ball's for a punt.

Golfers Putt Around--Drive to State

October marked the start of tournament play for the Pioneers. On Oct. 5th, the golfers placed 9th out of 36 teams in the St. Bede invitational tournament. Then, in the state tournament, U-High finished second in the regional and sectional with Pat Venker and Duane Miller leading the way. In the state finals Dave McLaren scored an ace, while the team finished in 17th place.

November has to be the grayest month of the year; absolutely nothing happens. No more football games on Friday nights, nothing to celebrate on Saturday, no vacation. All we got were tests, practice, and term papers. It seemed the month would never end.

Then, with an unexpected respite, came the first snow of the season and we were saved from dying of boredom. Although the snow melted over the week-end, the renewed spirit didn't. Thanksgiving arrived and we got our long awaited, and much deserved, vacation.

Vacation Highlights November

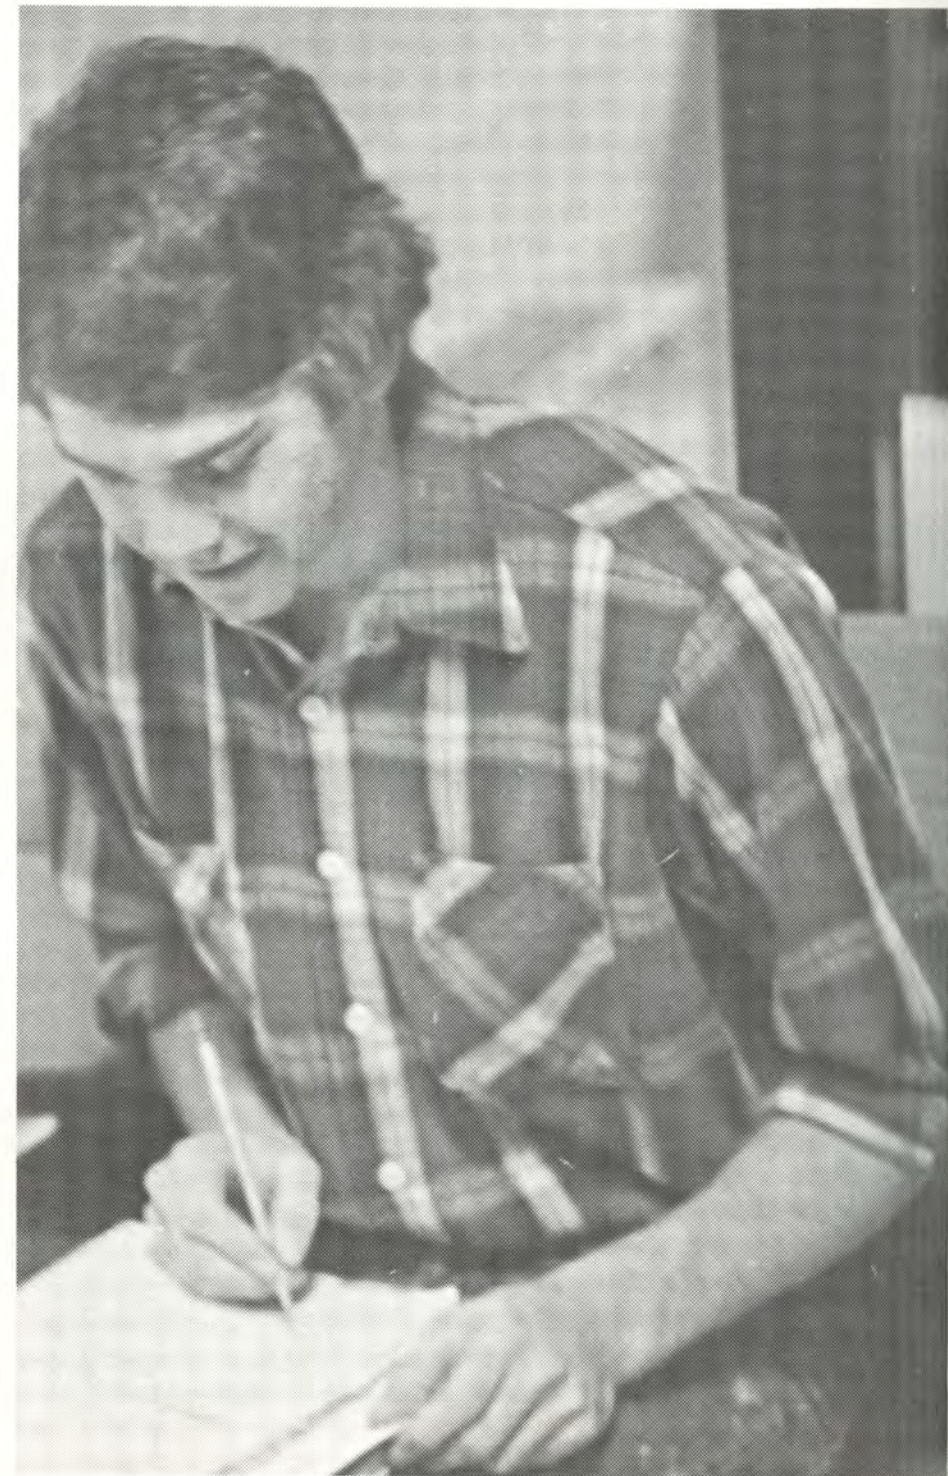

Mrs. Martin's Food I class held a Thanksgiving dinner on the day vacation began. The class chose to prepare the traditional Thanksgiving Day fare. They each invited a guest to dine along with them. After they were all full, they agreed the dinner was a complete success.

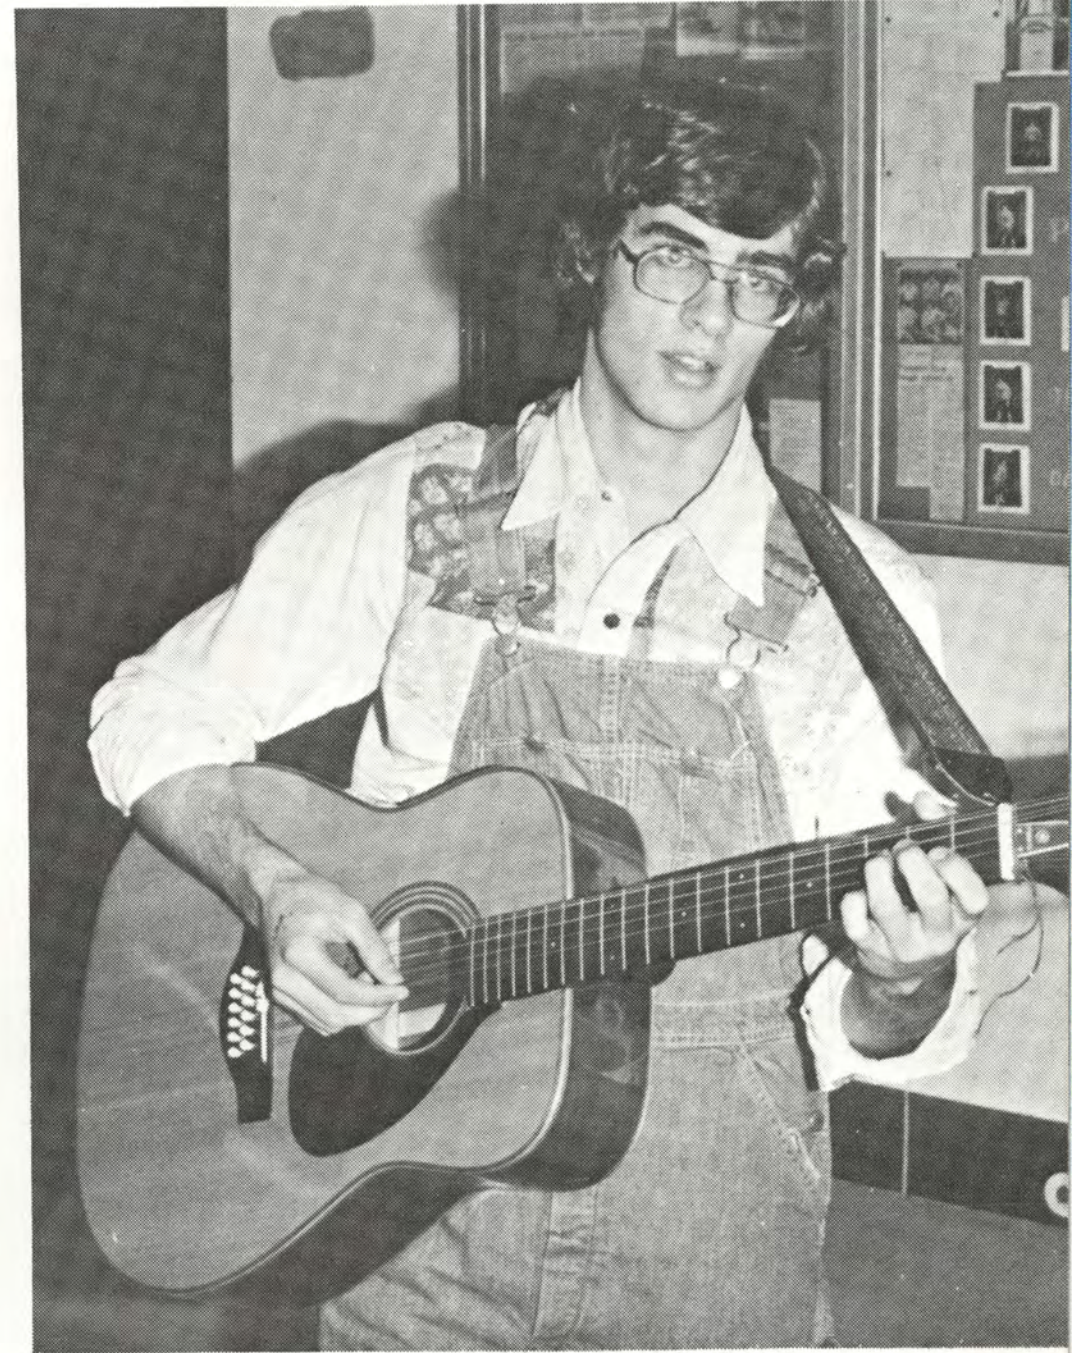

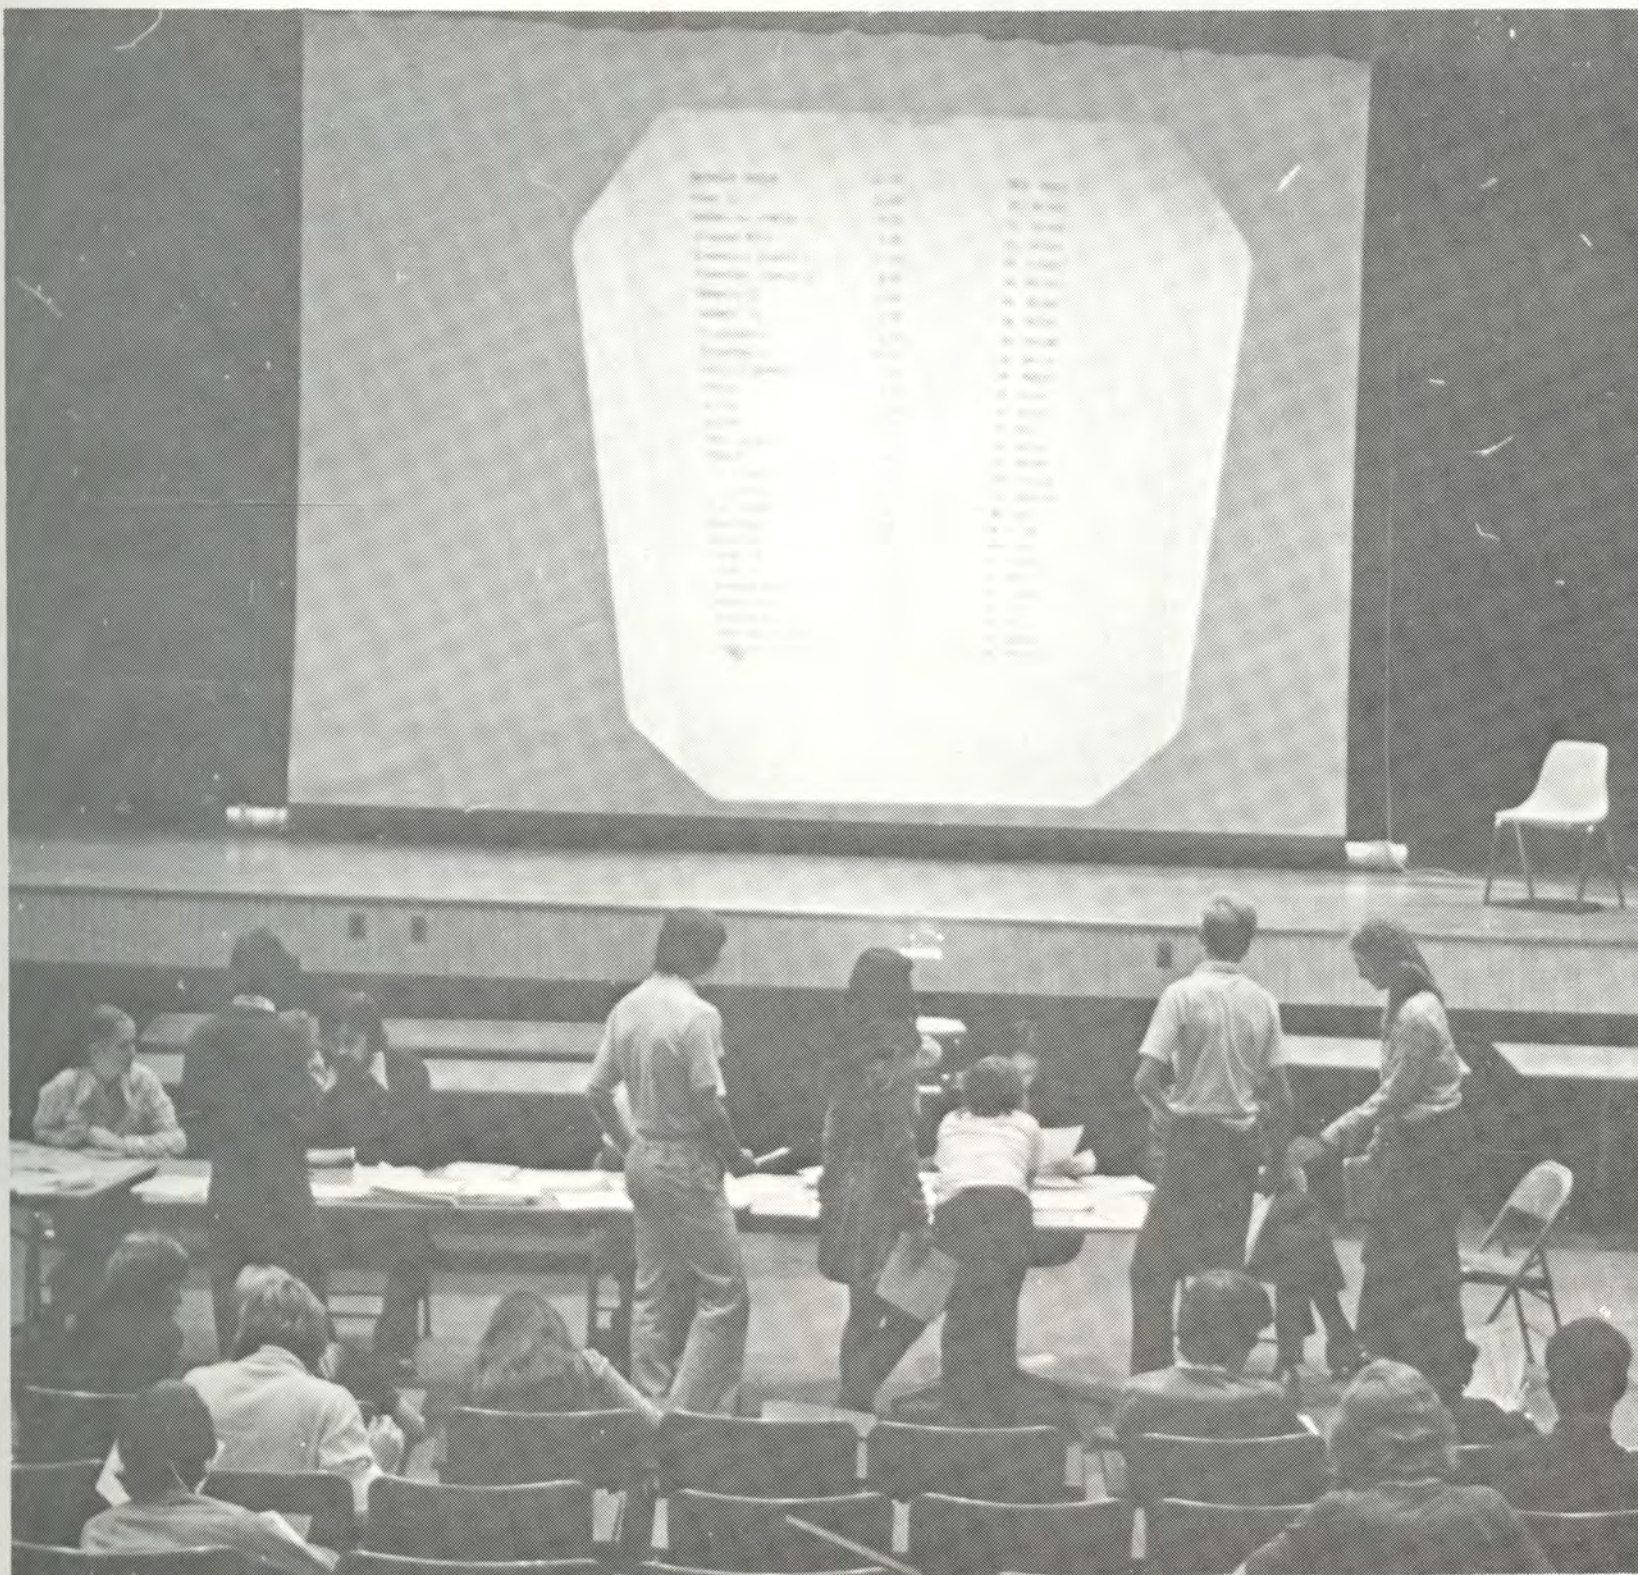

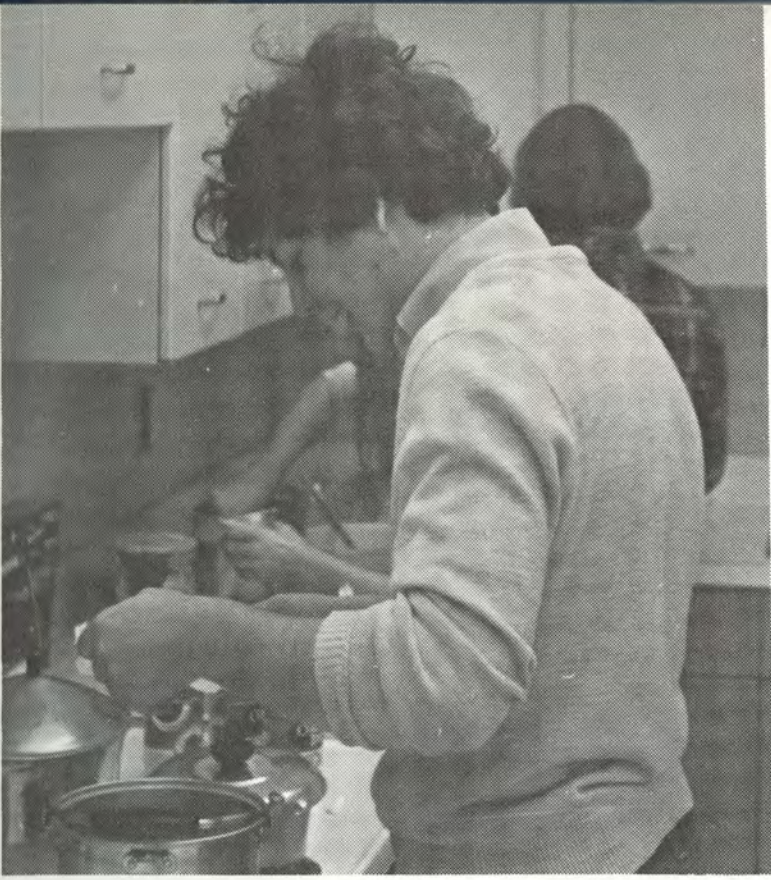

Cardiopulmonary Resuscitation better known around U-High as C.P.R. (for obvious reasons) was introduced to us in our P.E. classes by the Illinois Heart Association. C.P.R. is the method employed to save someone who has stopped breathing. Slides were first shown to introduce us to C.P.R. This was followed by use of a specially designed maniquin. These maniquins simulated human breathing patterns when the correct procedure was used. Upon success of the course, students received a C.P.R. card of certification.

Bordering between a form of torture and a complete waste of time, 2nd semester registration really drew in the crowds because it was an easy way to get out of class. Designed for students who wished to alter their schedules for 2nd semester, it was just one more device used for frustrating students. Imagine a student's delight upon finding all their desired classes closed. Despite the negative aspects, 2nd semester registration managed to get classes rolling.

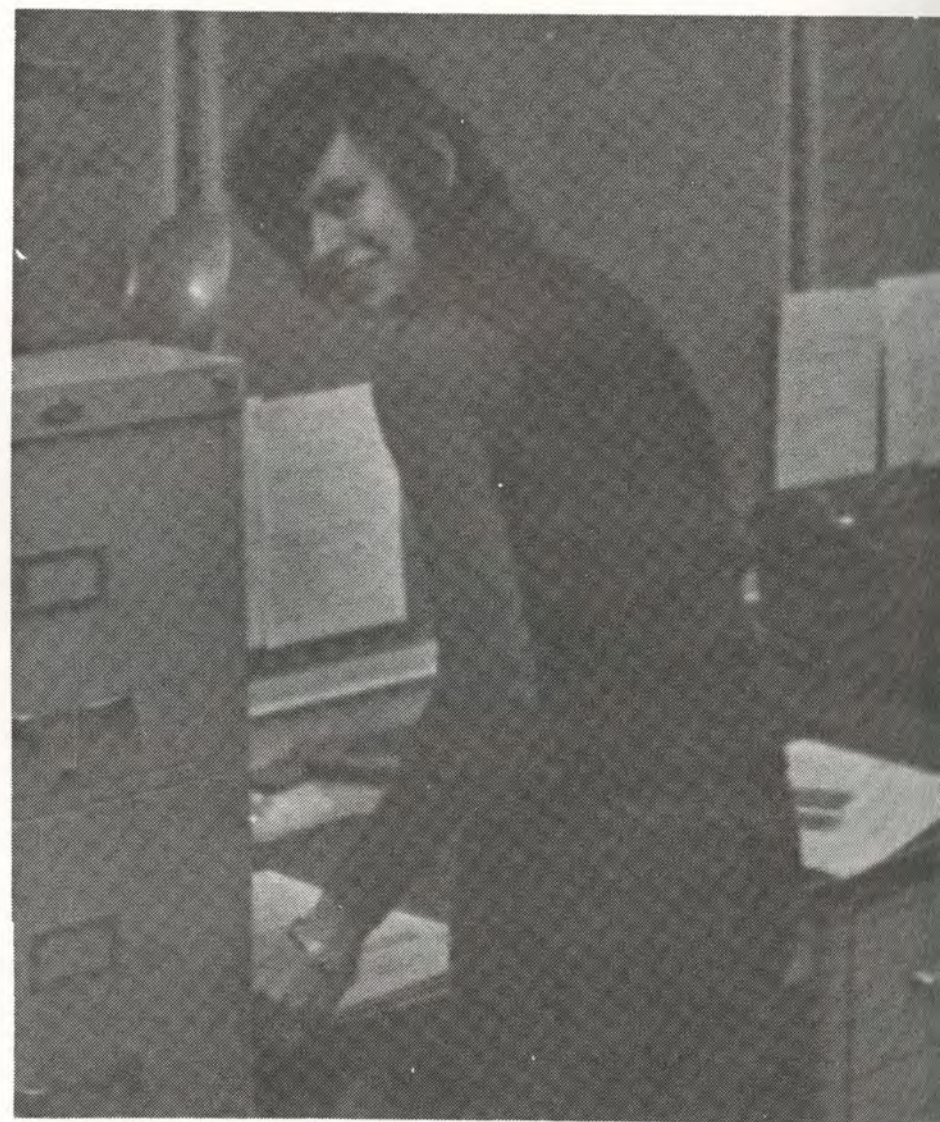

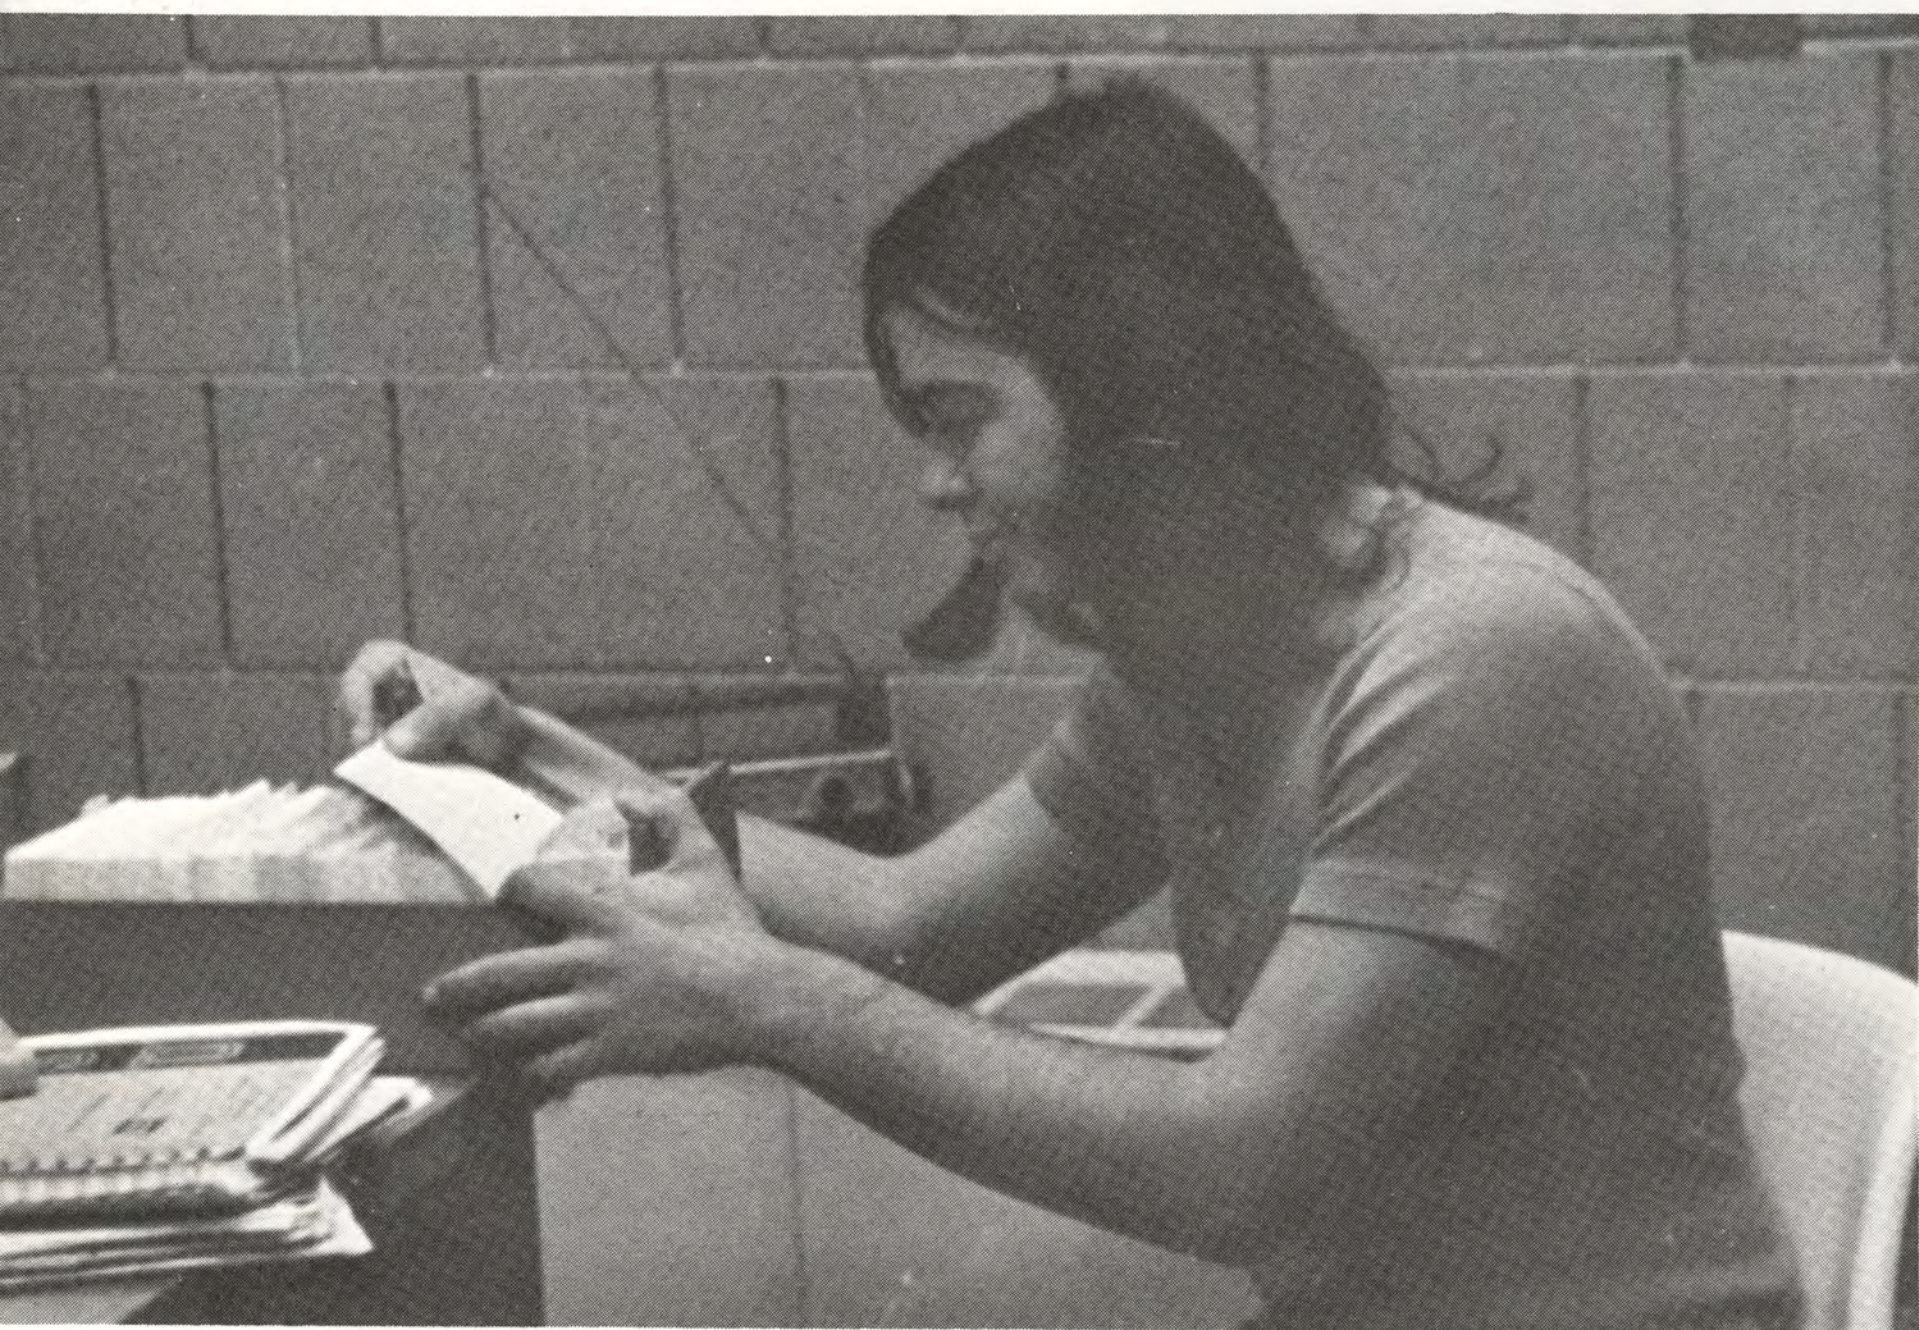

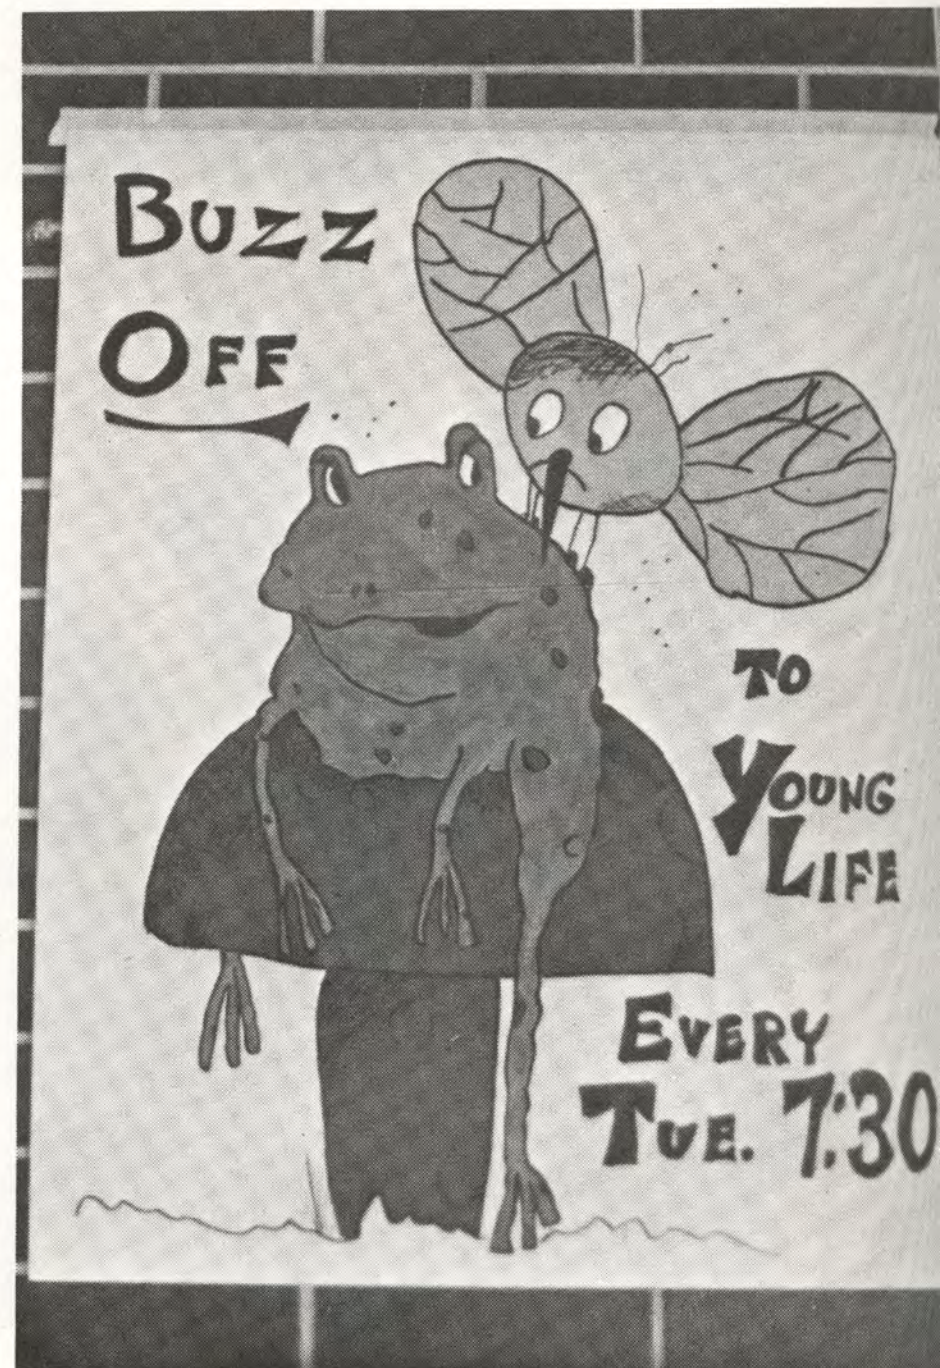

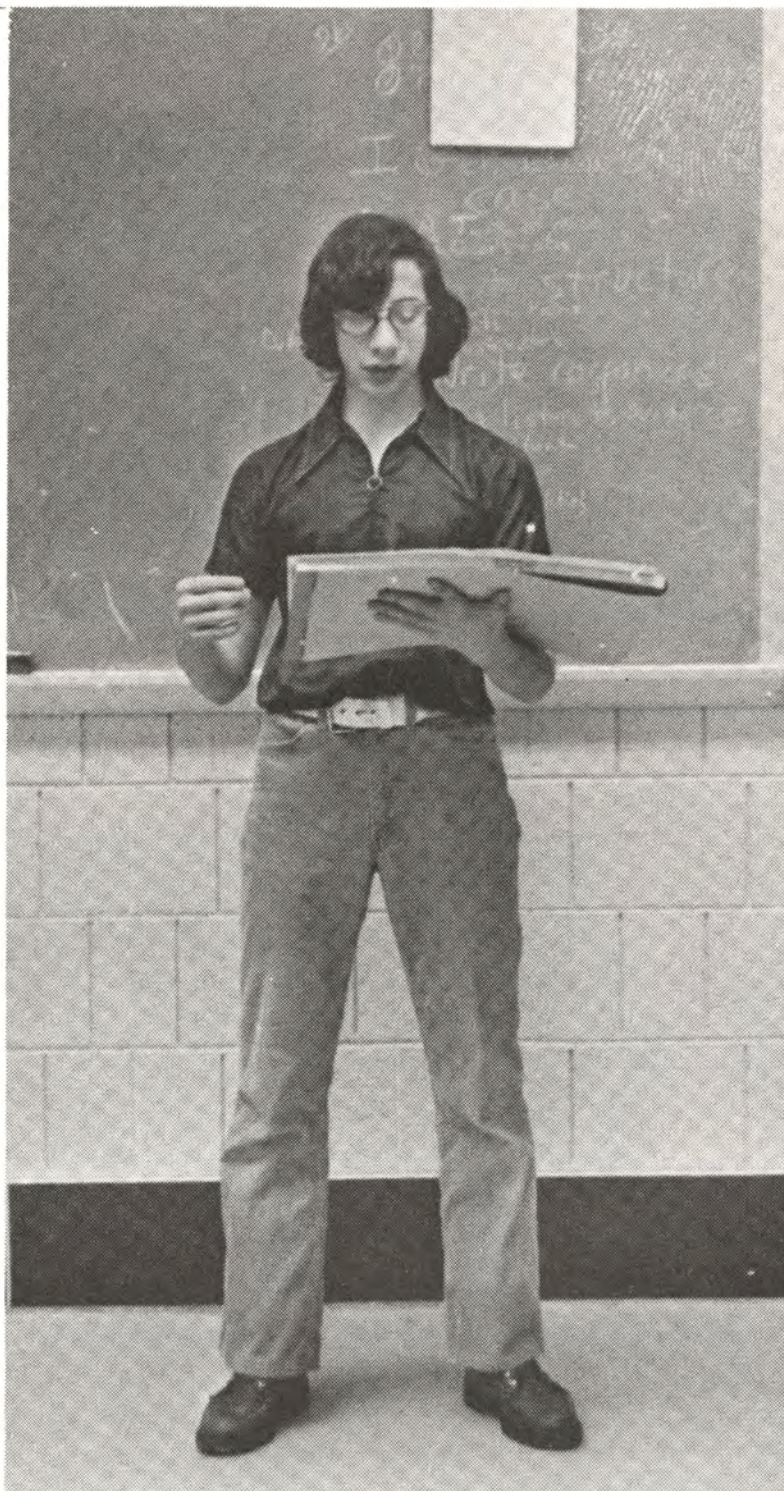

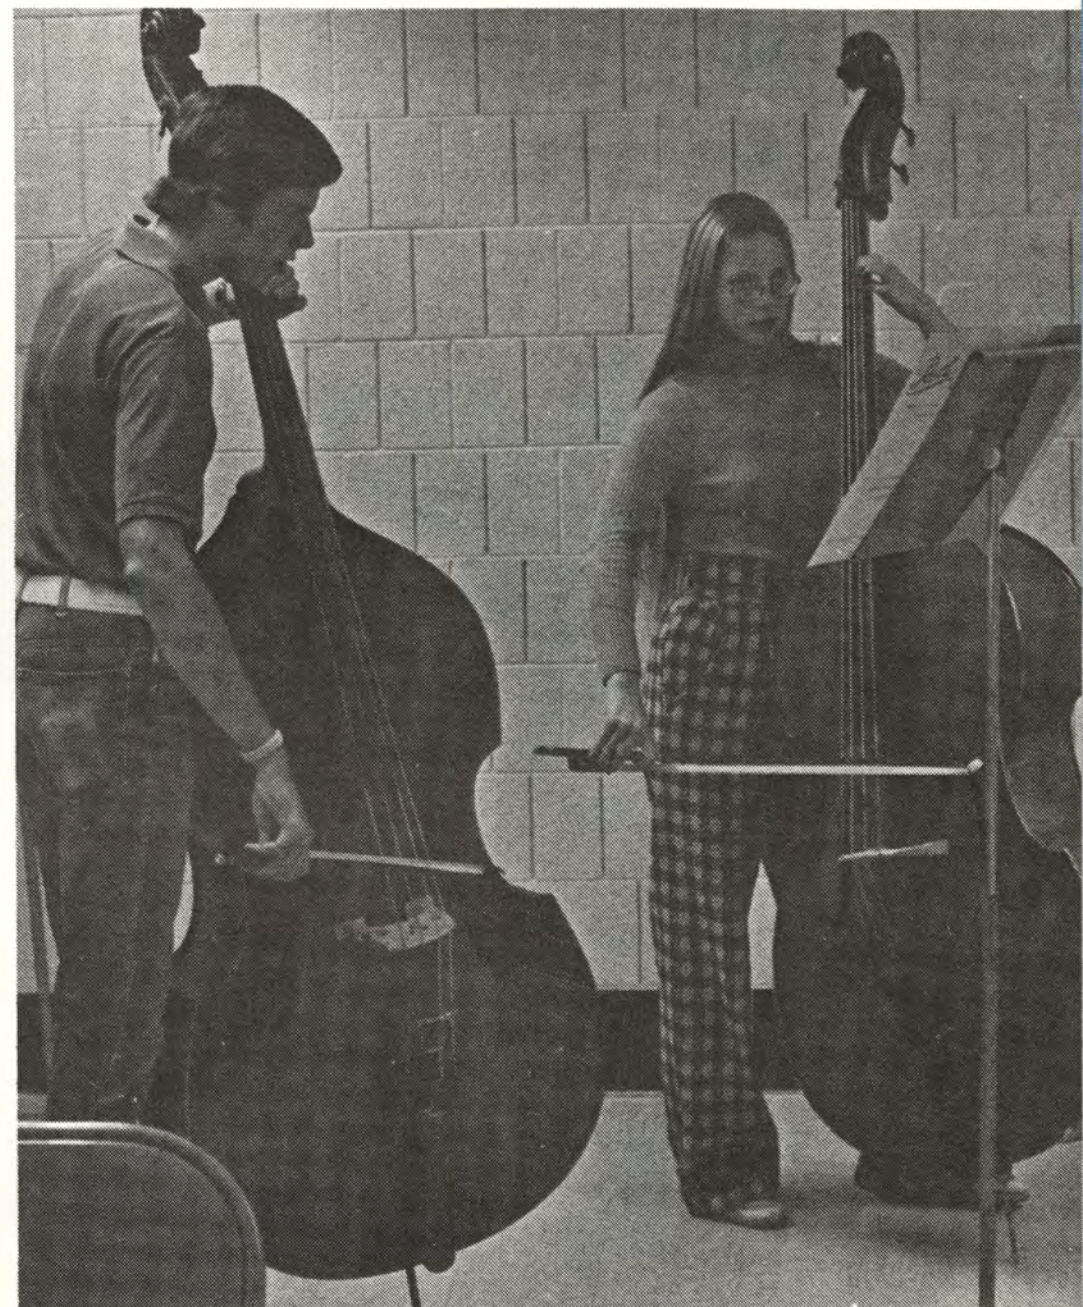

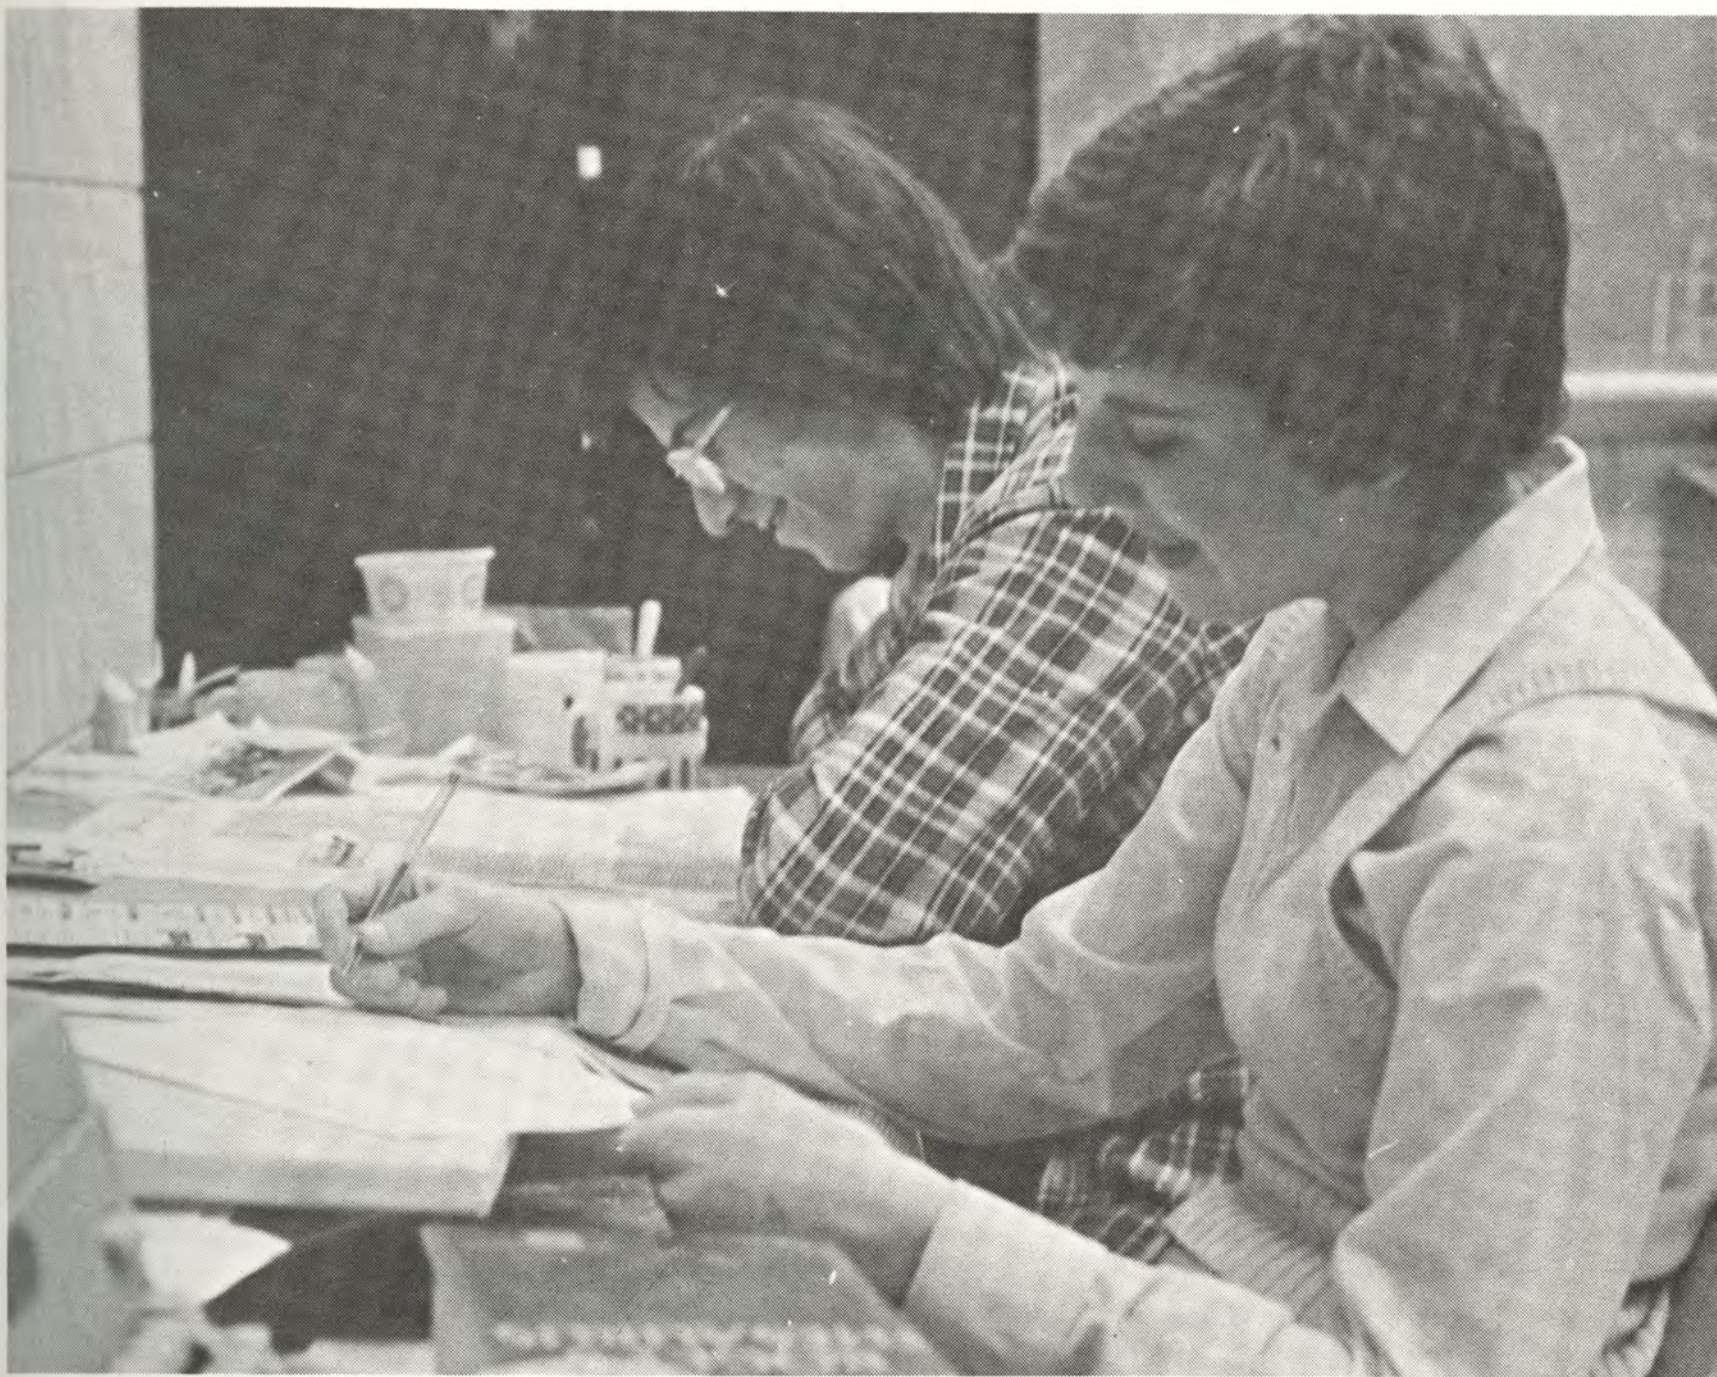

Clockwise starting left: Frosh engage in registration, one of U-High's many pleasures. Kevin Carroll does some last minute cramming for a test. Dave Adams reads his version of the announcements. Ron Hibbens takes a whiff of the brew. Thanksgiving dinner killed the turkey, but not Food I and their guests. Fun-strumming Bob Bell seranades the guitar for any Freshman girl who might pass by.

3 p.m. & After...

Clockwise from right: Rick Slan prepares a case for an upcoming debate tournament. Young Life, a non-school function, did involve many U-High students. The CLARION demands many hours of staff members like Cinda Forbes. Marc Feaster checks the debate files for extra information to confirm his arguments.

Practice Makes Perfect

The 74-75 season marked the second year for the Girl's Volleyball team. Consisting of mostly Freshmen and Sophomores, the girls were coached by Miss Wilson. The A team finished the year with a 2-5 record while the B team finished with a 3-3 record. Everyone agreed that the high point of the year came when they defeated N.C.H.S.

The Freshmen football team showed promise, ending their season with a 4-8 record.

The season opened on a bad note, with the team losing to Central 8-0 in a tough defensive game. The season closed with a loss to Chiddix for the Freshmen gridders. Halfback Mike Ritt's touchdown run was the only points U-High could put on the board.

With good size and speed the Freshmen should be assured of a good Sophomore team next year.

Clockwise starting below: The Volleyball team gets a few last minute instructions from Miss Wilson in the huddle. Gary Dirks' attempts to pick up yardage is cut short by a firm tackle. Coach Jerry Horn surveys the situation. U-High defense stands ready for the volley. Becky Gannaway and Jane Newbold get ready to set it up for the front row players. Katie Eversizer prepares to serve and chalk up another U-High point. Ros Hill's punt is good for a Chiddix setback.

Senior Gridders Stand Out

It was a season of milestones and frustrations as U-High finished high in the now unified Heart of Illinois Conference, and first among teams in the old east division. But we lost tough games to state runner-up Normal, and highly rated Bloomington.

The Homecoming triumph over IVC was an appropriate setting for head coach Frank Chiodo's 100th victory. This record includes 57 wins in 10 years at U-High.

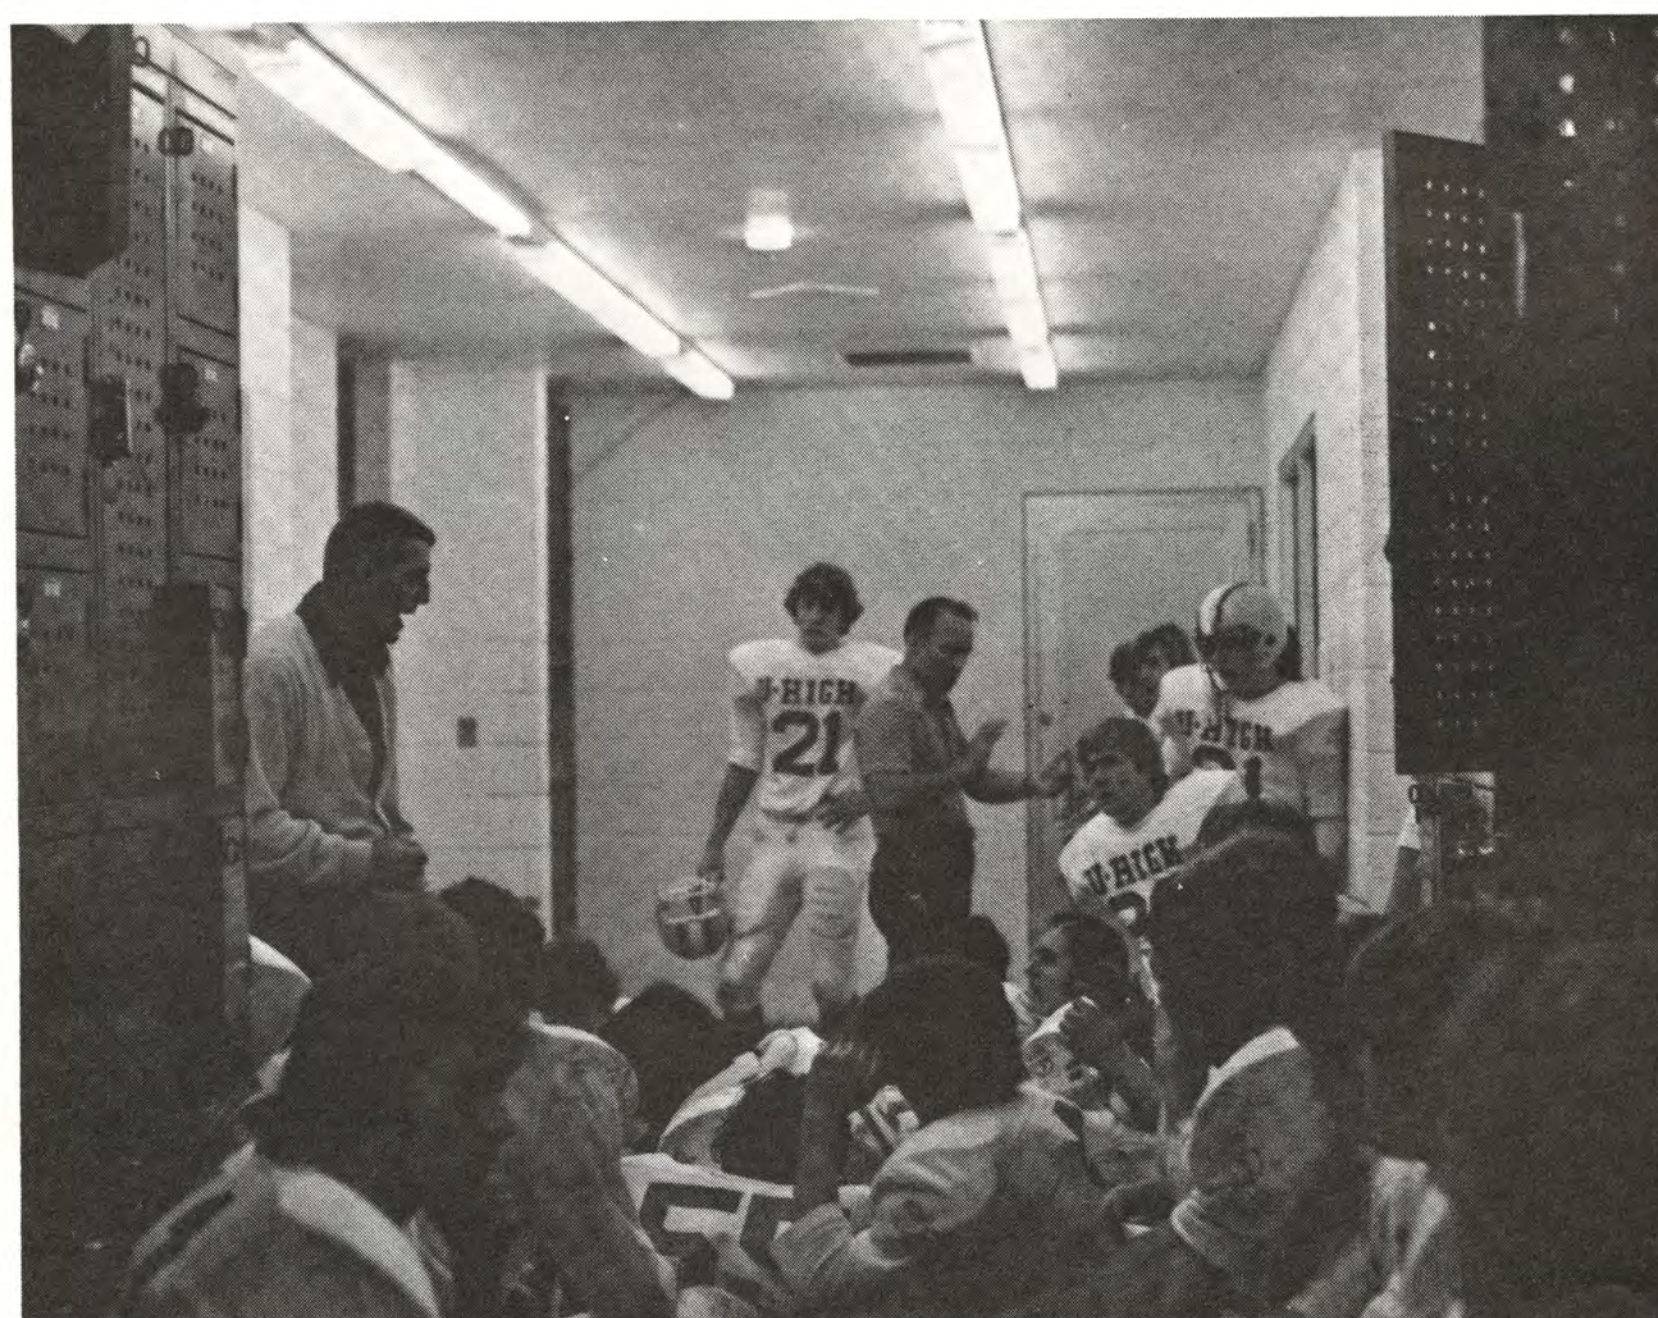

Once again Seniors paced the Pioneer attack as Bill Eddy broke the 1,000 yards rushing mark for the season. His season was highlighted by a 230 yard outburst against Olympia. He also scored six touchdowns on the ground.

Ric Cordero tied this touchdown total, but he also used his talents as a kicker, adding 18 points to his team leading total of 54.

But the passing game was not to be denied. Sparked by quarterback Steve Doran who threw for 4 touchdowns and 34.9 completion percentage. His passes netted an average of 17.8 yards per catch.

Overall, Coach Chiodo credits this team as the hardest hitting team he's ever had here at U-High.

Even if December is one of the shortest months of the year because of Christmas break, it's one of the busiest. Semesters capped off two weeks of Christmas parties, girls' volleyball, and the Intercity Basketball Tourney. Everyone hoped for last year's luck of having finals "snowed out", but the weather held and so were finals. At least they were optional this year, due to Senate and faculty action giving teachers the choice to test or not to test.

Forensics Open Season

Clockwise starting top: Dana Davidson practices her presentation for upcoming speech meets. Lynda Brill really gets into character as she gives her reading to selected classes. Dave Slan works on his case presentation for debate. Wade Jacobs looks over ideas for this year's debate topic. Debate is as much preparation as presentation according to team members Keith Jacobs (Captain), Kim Balls, Wade Jacobs, and Dave Slan. Speech coach David Pearce preps Judy Paxton for her role in a dramatic duet team.

Tryouts, practice, coaching sessions - another year of long hours, bus rides, and climbing out of bed early on Saturday morning. Speech and debate must offer some real benefits to achieve these sacrifices of U-High students.

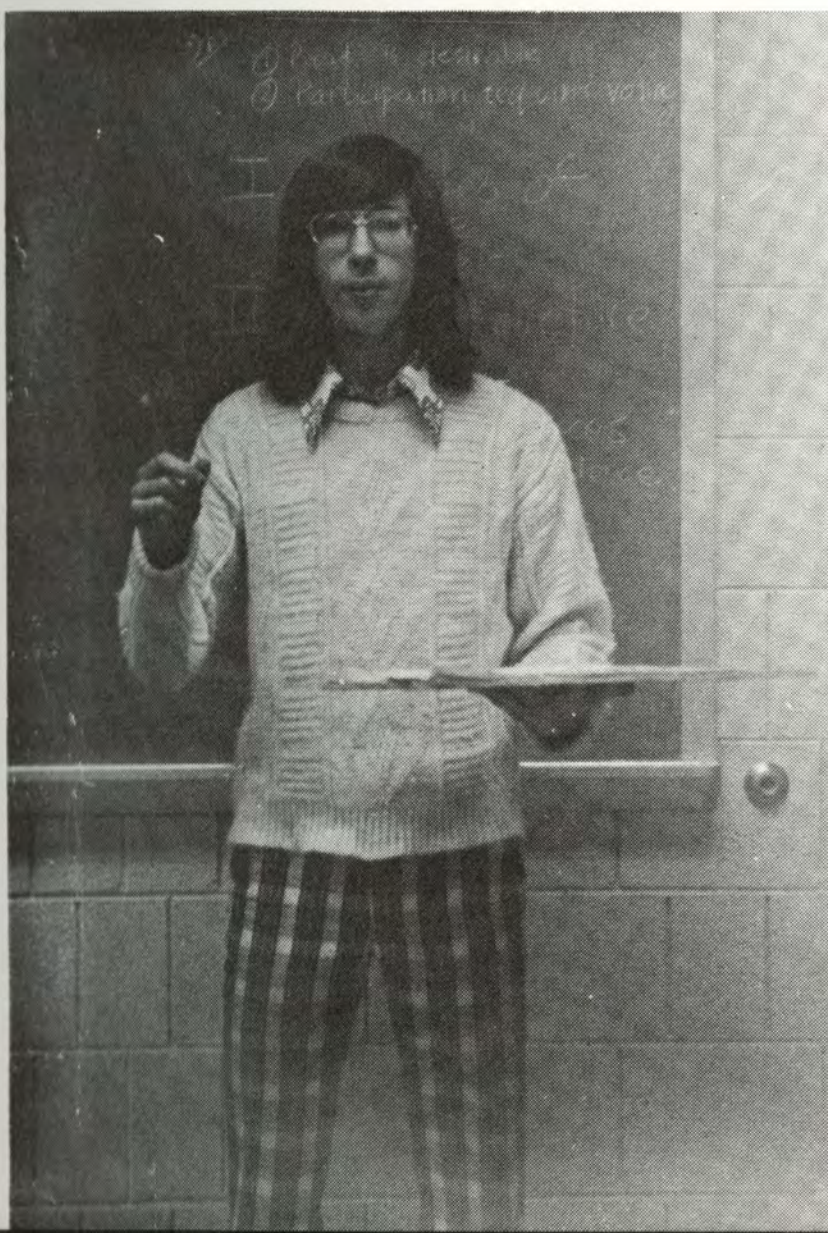

U-High's 74-75 speech season started by placing second at a nearby tournament in Bloomington and then spending a long weekend in the Chicago suburbs, winning sixth at Lake Park High School.

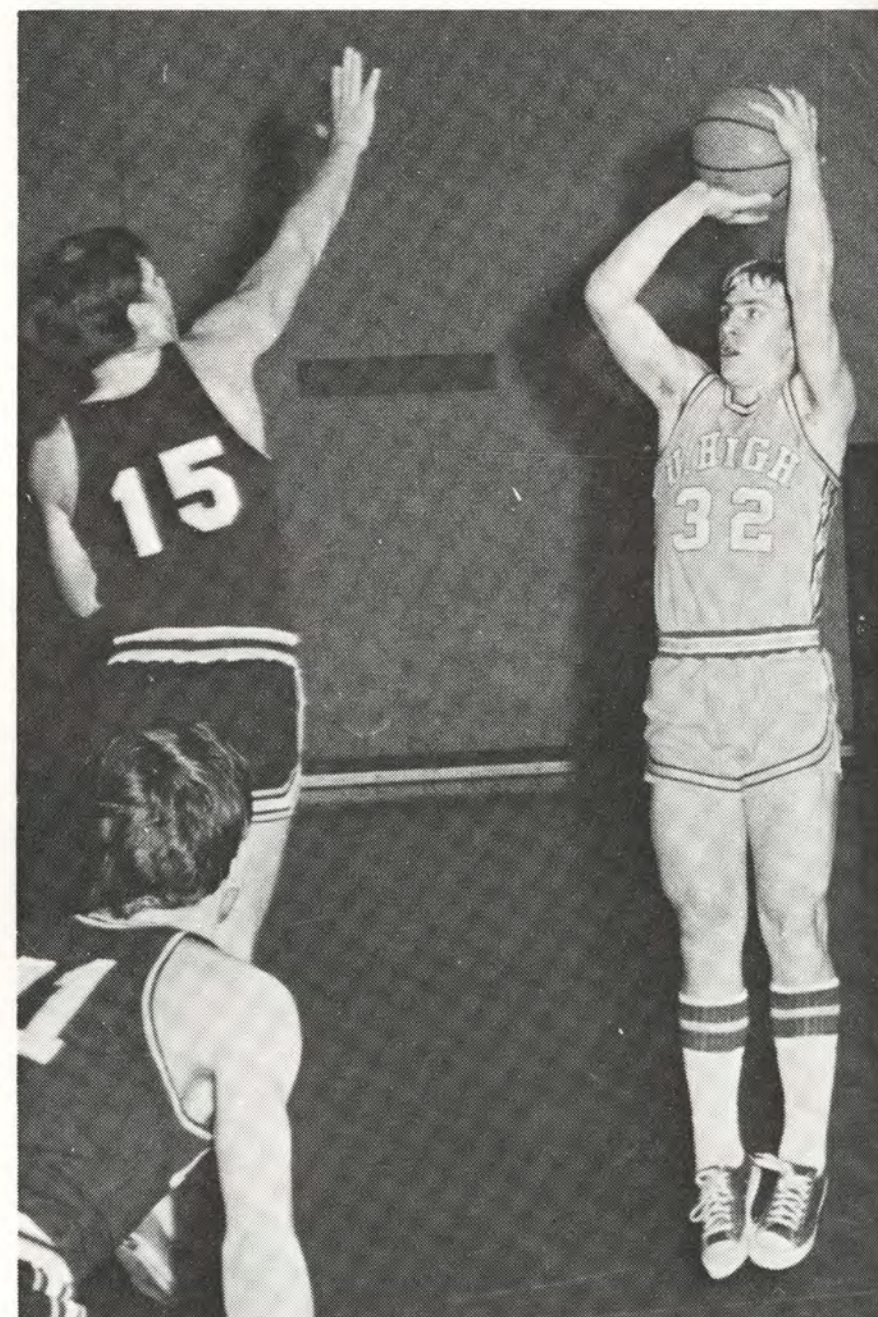

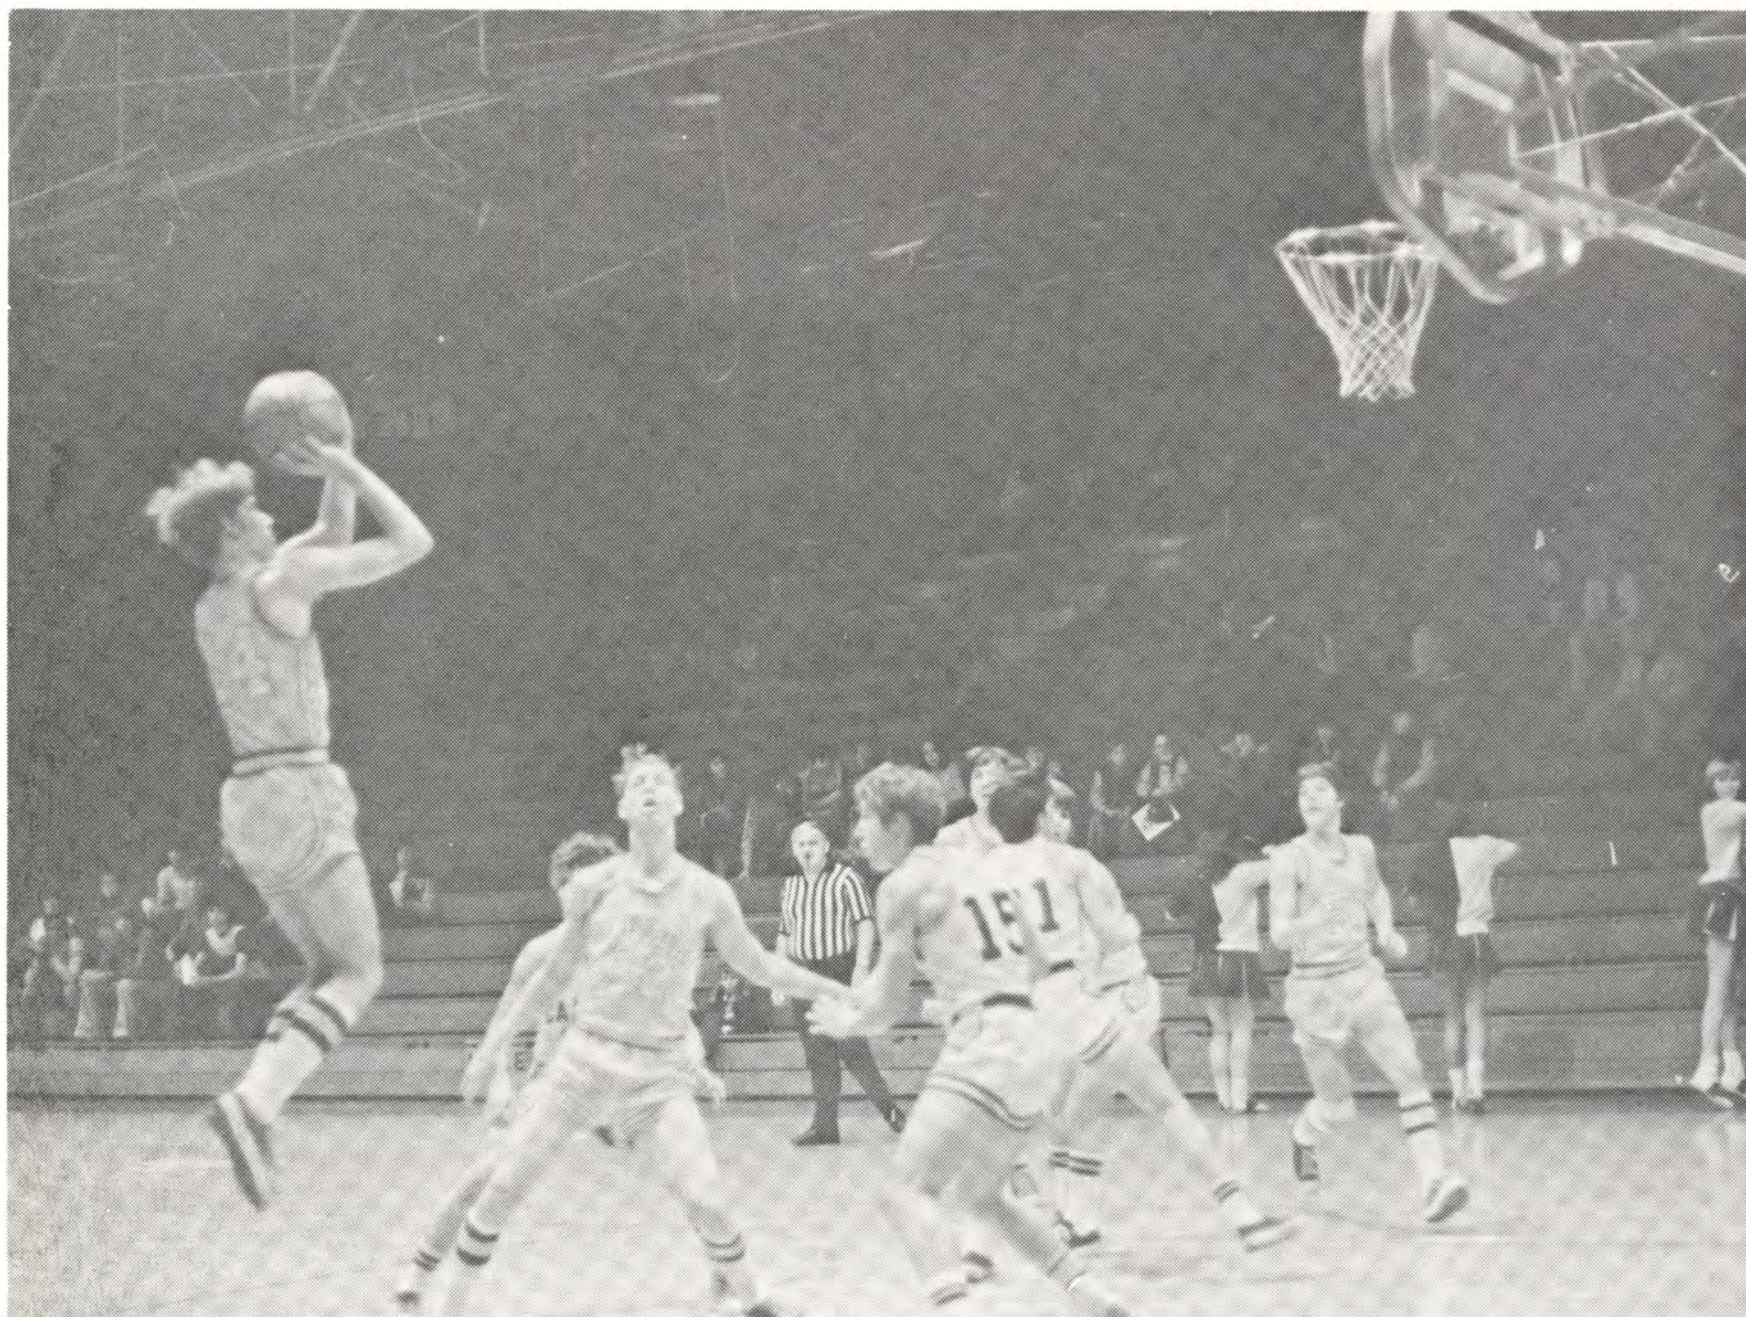

Flexibility was one goal announced by coaches David Pearce and Evelyn Young. They hoped that team members could be shifted as needed to strengthen different areas as needed.

Losing some valuable veterans at graduation, the first meets were in part trial and error in events and techniques and were used to "sand paper" some rough edges.

Debate built its hopes around Coach Mike Cuffee, former Nationals Champion, and veteran team members Keith & Wade Jacobs, Kim Balls, and Dave Slan. They started the season 3-3 at I.S.U. and 3-1 in Bloomington's tournament.

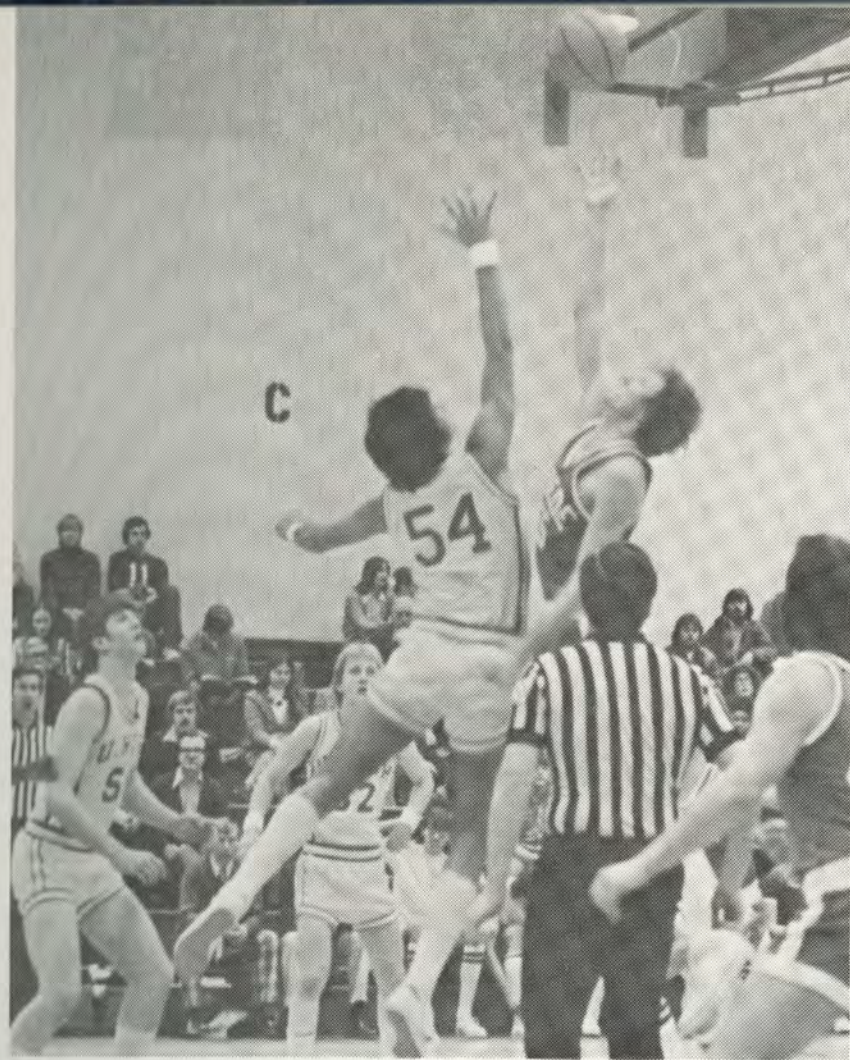

Sophs Impressive

The Sophomore Basketball team jumped out to a 5-0 record this month. The Sophs had two close games with a come from behind victory against Pontiac, 54-51, and against Washington, 65-51. In addition, the team defeated Clinton, Rantoul, and Paxton with relative ease.

Mike Ryan, Mike Talkington, and Eric Albert were the scoring leaders for this Sophomore team which looked impressive.

Slow Start Plagues Varsity

December marked the beginning of basketball with the Intercity Basketball Tournament. The Varsity Pioneers got off to a slow start by losing to Bloomington and Normal by wide margins.

After defeating Central Catholic, 46-42, to take third place in the tourney, U-High went on to defeat Clinton and Paxton, while falling to Pontiac, Rantoul and Washington.

Then came two tough losses in the Kankakee Holiday Tournament. The Pioneers were first defeated by McHenry in overtime, 61-67. The team then lost to Holy Cross in a tight one point game, 58-59. This left the Varsity with a dismal 3-7 record and hopes for a comeback.

Tankers Plunge In Wrestlers Looking Up

U-High's swimmers have performed respectably this season with victories over Normal, 46-37, and Urbana, 54-29, against two losses to Bloomington, 35-48, and Thornton Fractional South, 37-46.

In other action, the Pioneers swam in the Centennial Invitational finishing fifth of 14 schools. Tim Eaton won the 100-yard backstroke.

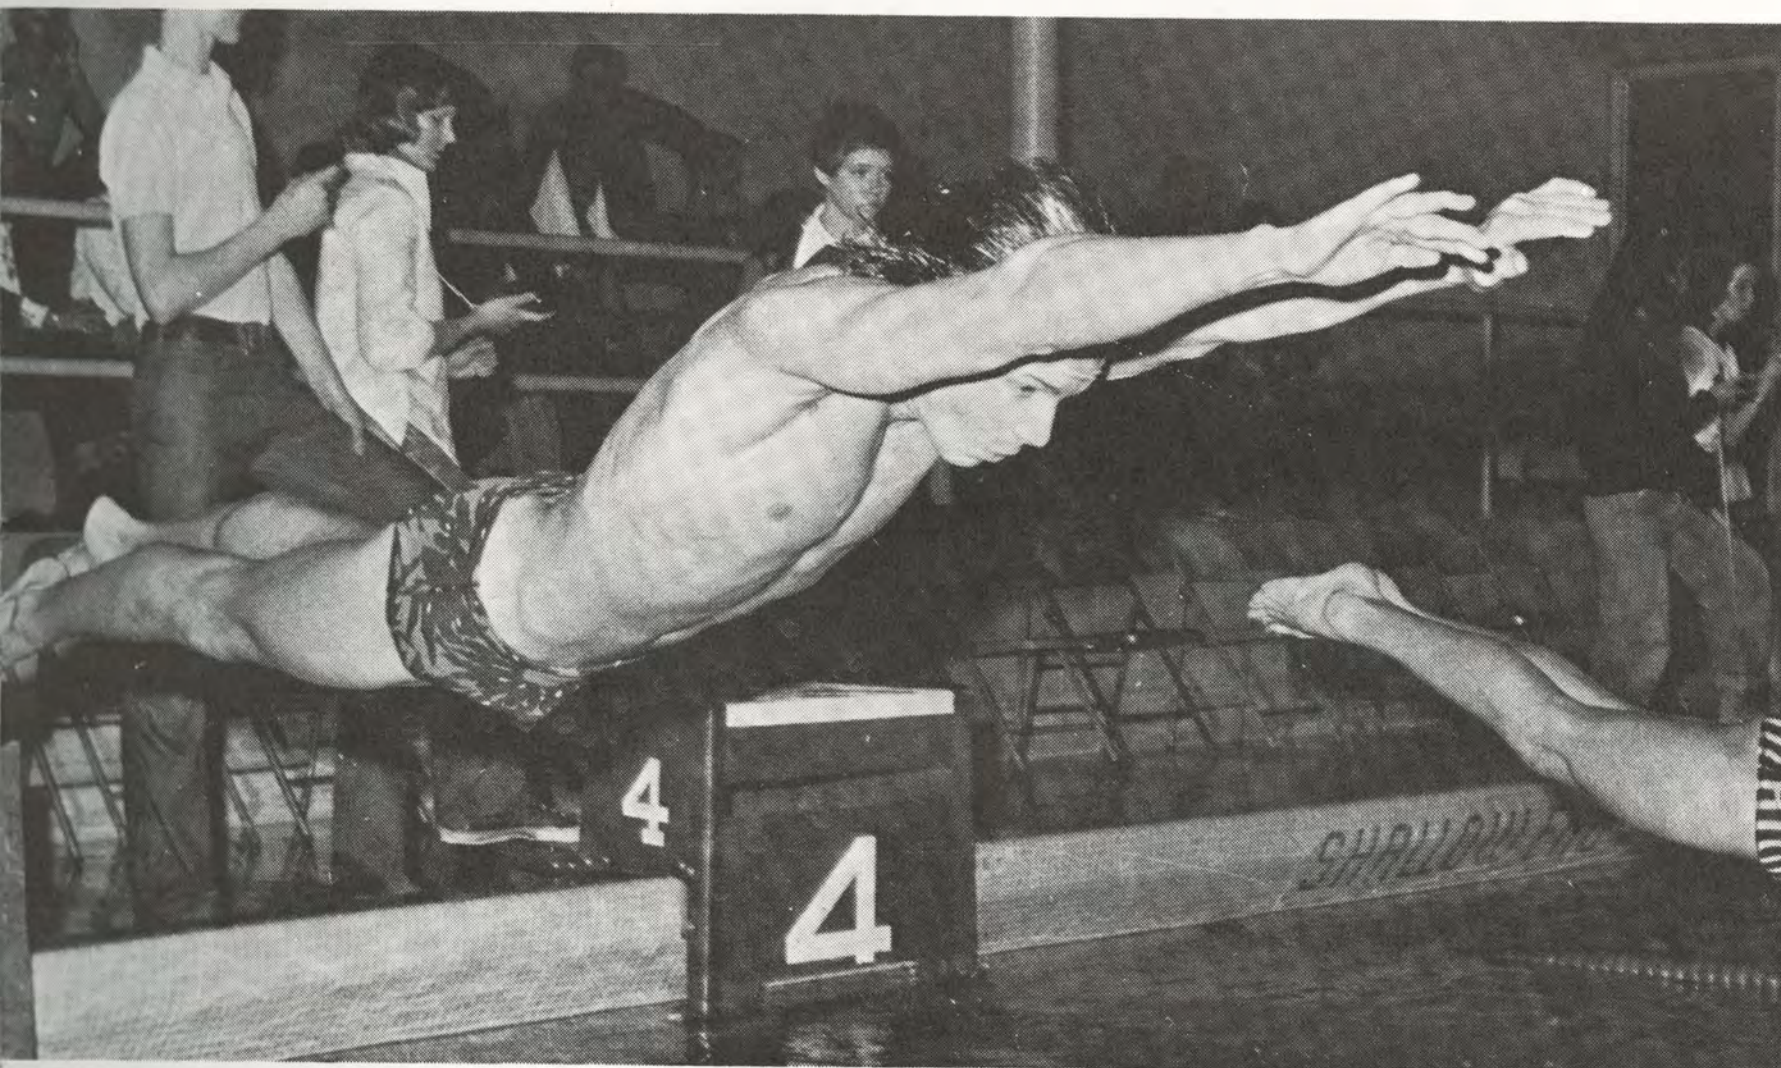

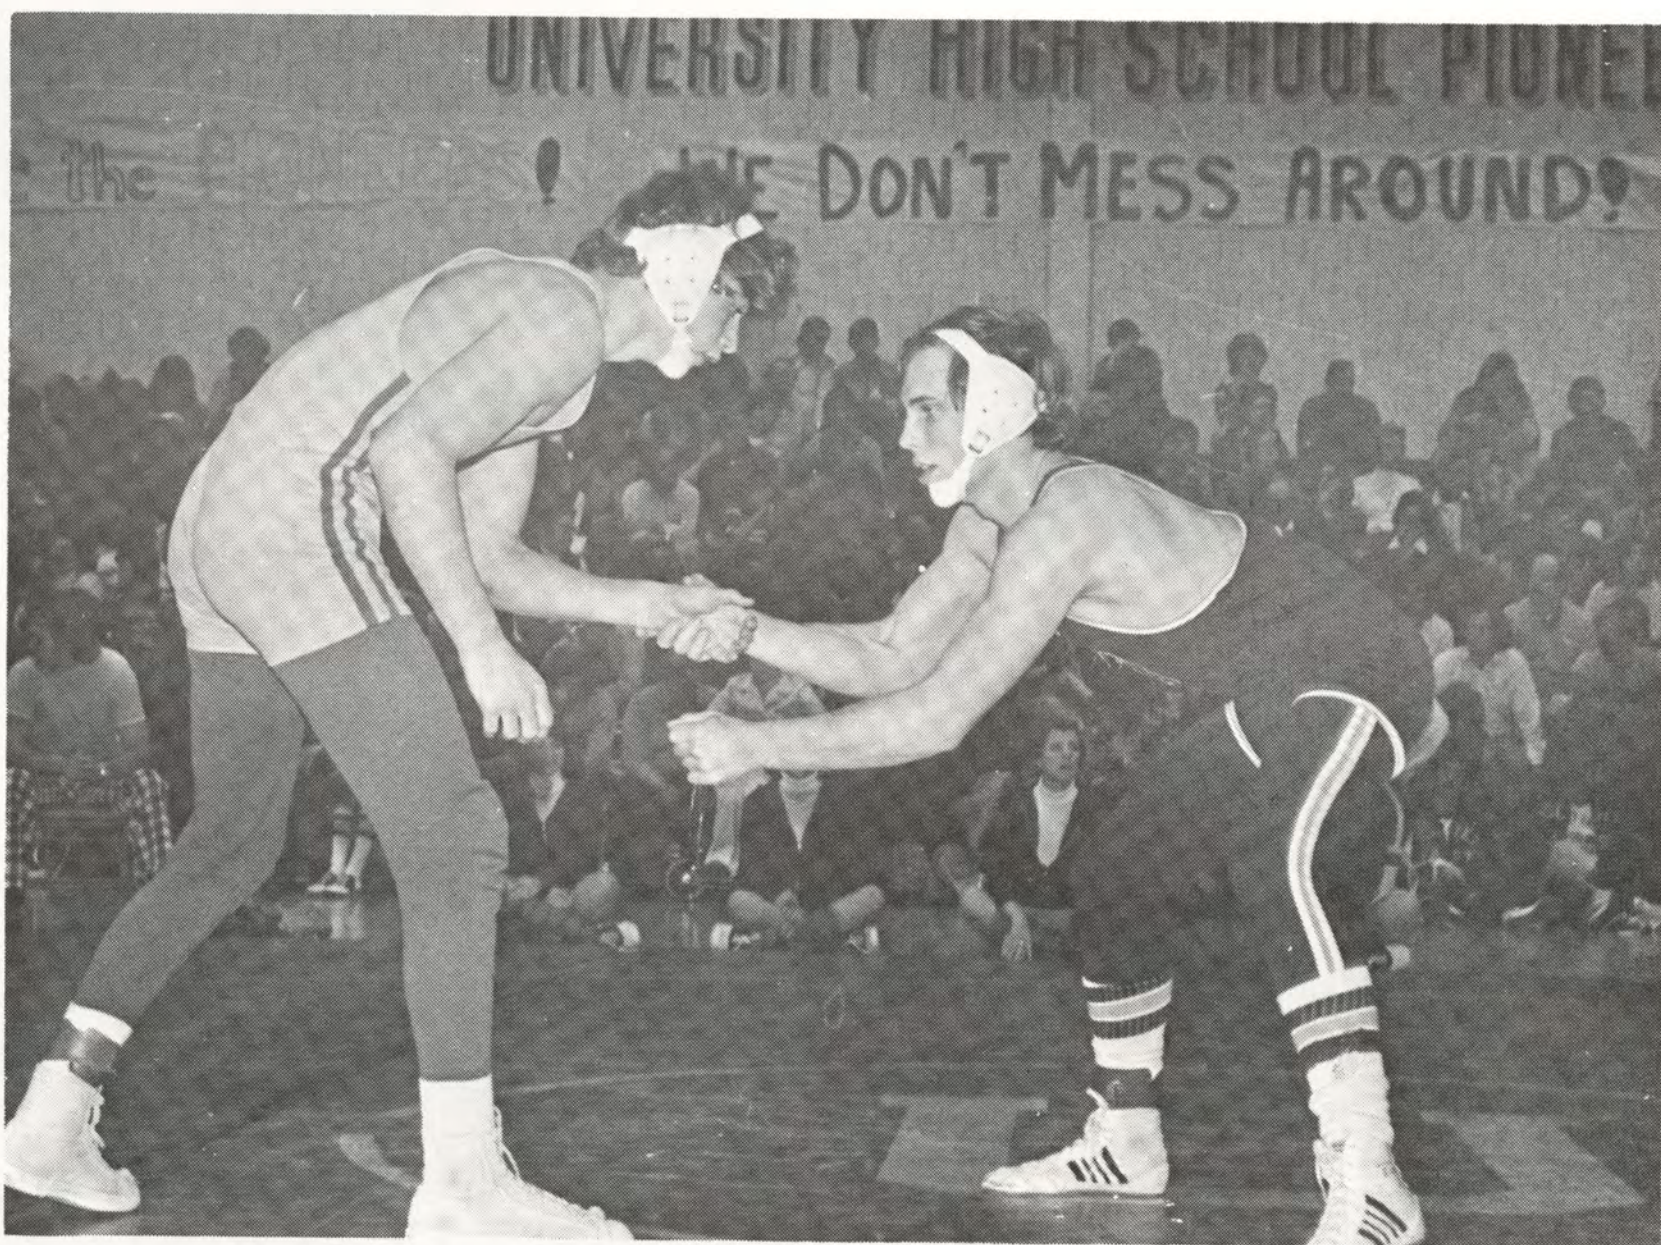

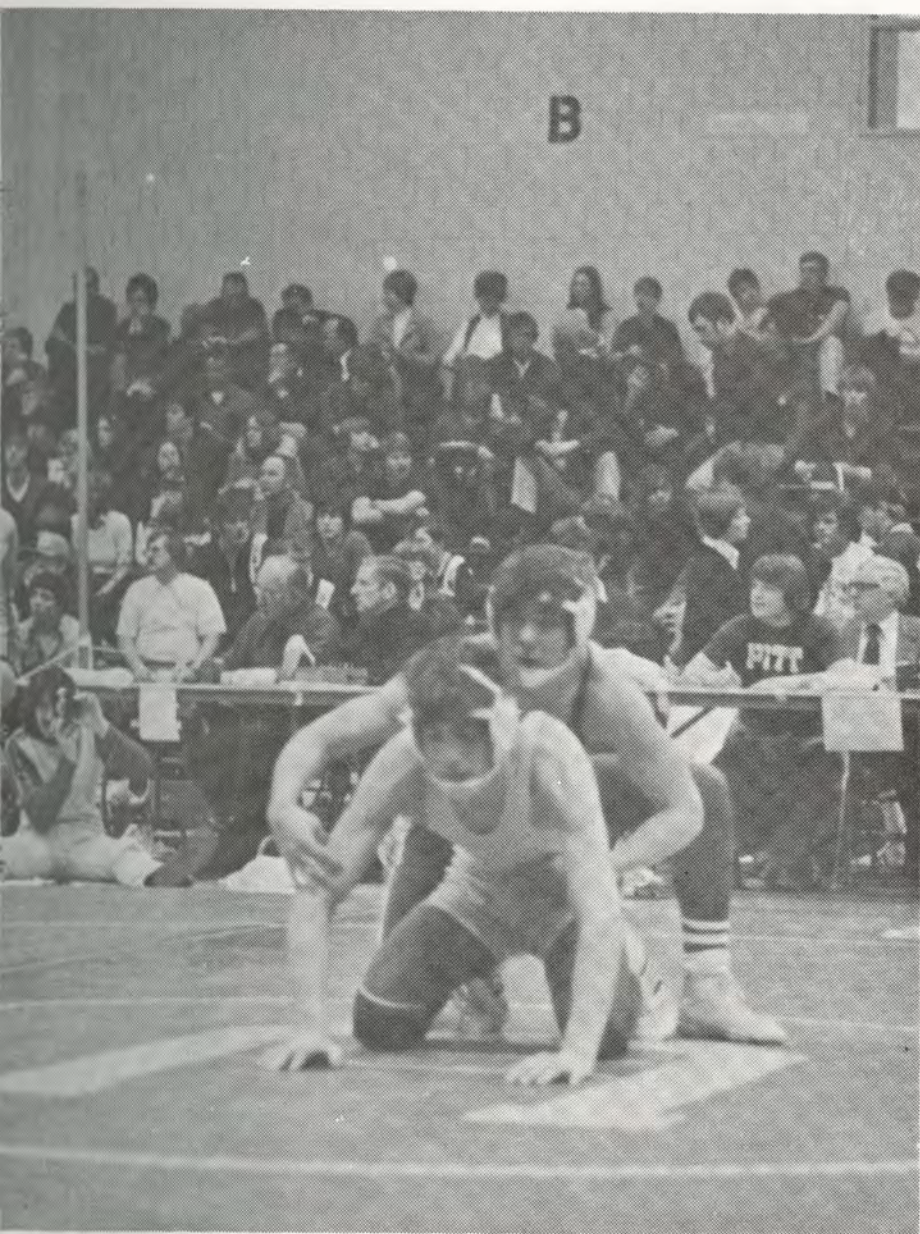

Wrestling's record doesn't really reflect their talent at this stage of the game.

Presently holding a 7-10 season record, their schedule shows several AA schools.

Seniors Darvin Miller and Ron Biddle look strong, as do Juniors Dean Miller, Tim Hutson, and Tom Chiodo. Coach

Girardi remains hopeful of a strong finish.

Music Sparkles at Holiday Concert

January to U-High students always means the beginning of a new semester, and getting back into the old routine. This January meant new classes, Seniors anticipating no more finals, and a library filled with supervisors. When we came back we were forced to see the kids who had gone to Florida and it's sunny blue skies, those who had gone skiing in Wisc., and Mich., and of course the rest of us with blue faces from an Ill. winter.

With Jan. came a new feeling of spirit especially in the Senior class, as some Seniors took to building pyramids at basketball games. The highlight of winter sports seemed to be the undefeated Sophomore basketball team, and Rob Knight's record-breaking swimming. The January weather didn't freeze U-High's spirit, but instead, thawed them.

Sophs Intent To Win: Undefeated

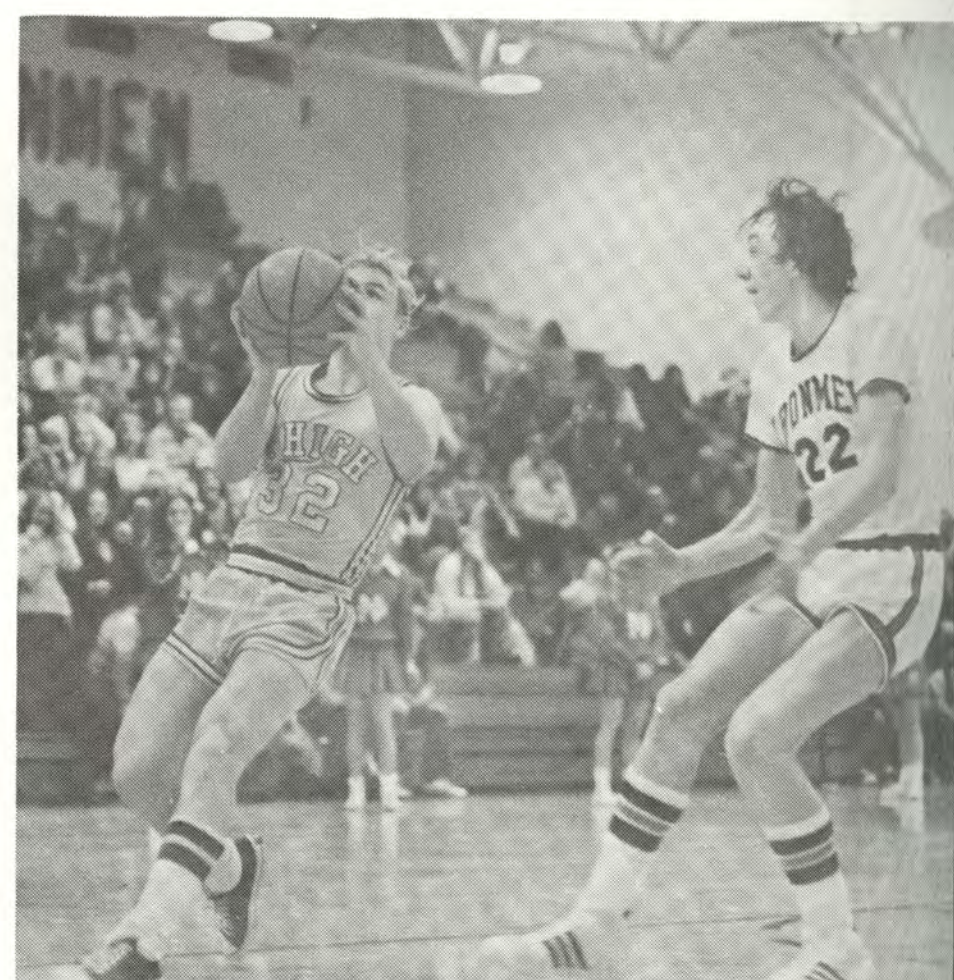

U-High's Sophomore basketball team continued its perfect record during January. The Sophs won the Sophomore Intercity Tourney by beating Bloomington, Central Catholic, and Normal. The championship game with Normal was won in overtime by a last second twenty foot jump by Dale Heidloff. After that came a double overtime victory against a tough Spaulding team.

The Pioneers are outscoring their opponents by an average of 13 points per game. Mike Ryan leads with a 15.8 average followed by Mike Talkington with a 13.1, and Eric Albert with 9.9 and 80 percent from the free throw line. As a whole U-High is shooting 60 percent from the charity stripe.

The Sophs determination is summed up by Coach Chiodo: "They play hard with intensity and have a strong desire to win."

Clockwise starting above: Back court partners Eric Albert and Dale Heidloff head for the 10 second line. Eric Albert passes down the court ahead of his defender. During a time out Coach Chiodo gives some advise to the starting line up. Dale Heidloff eyes the basket while driving in for the needed points.

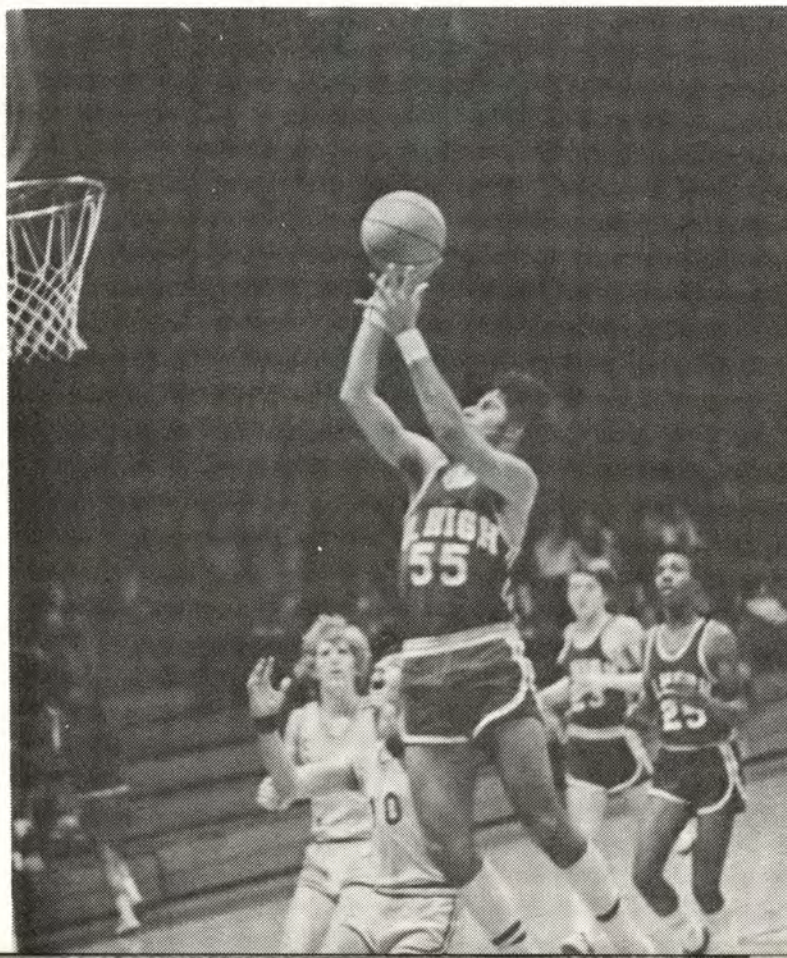

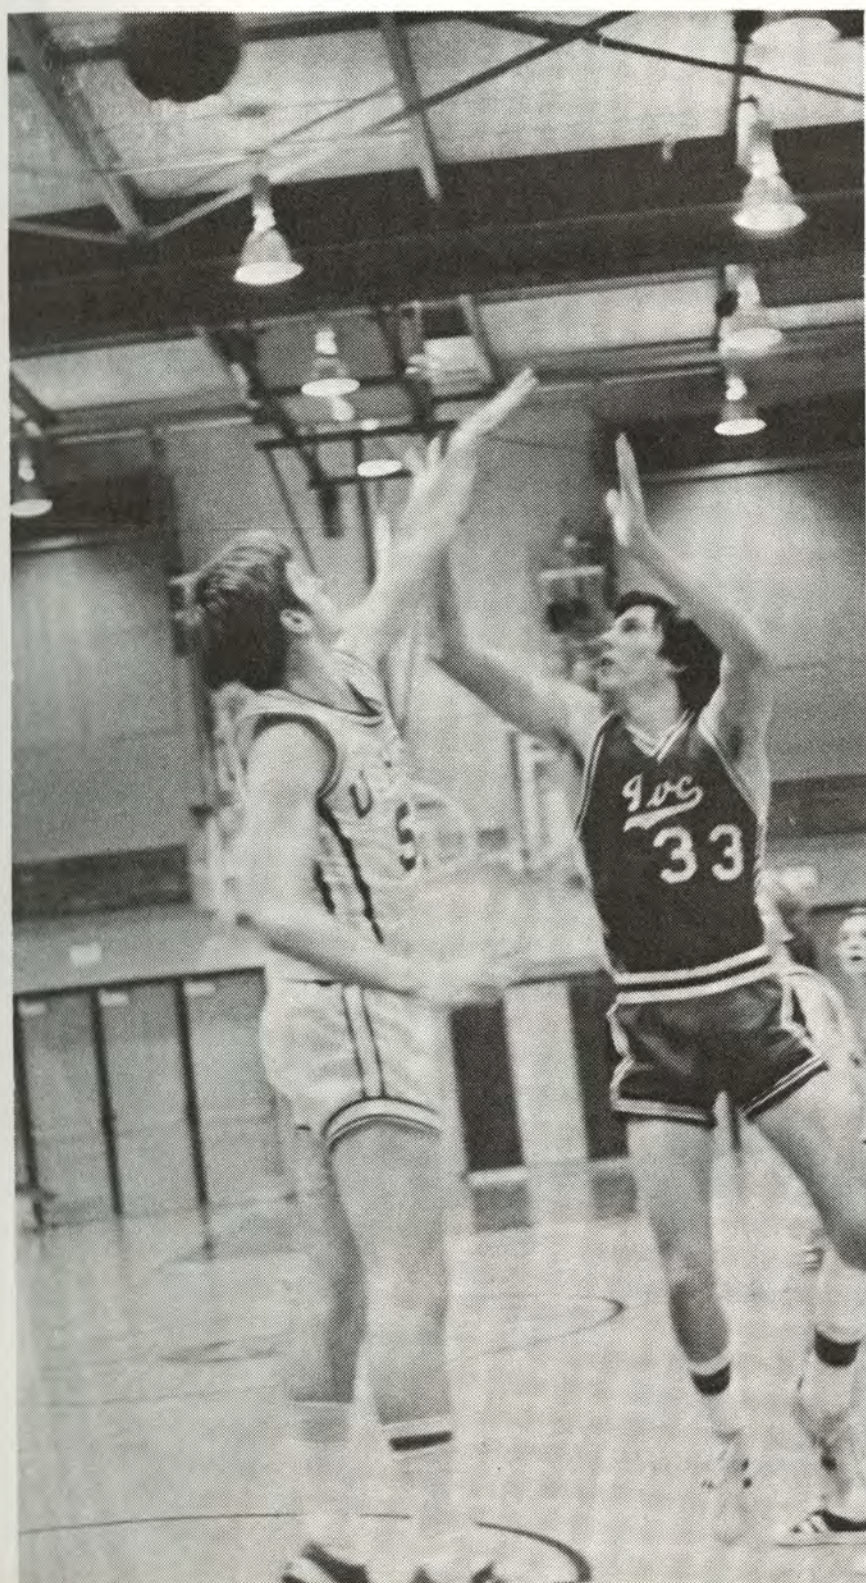

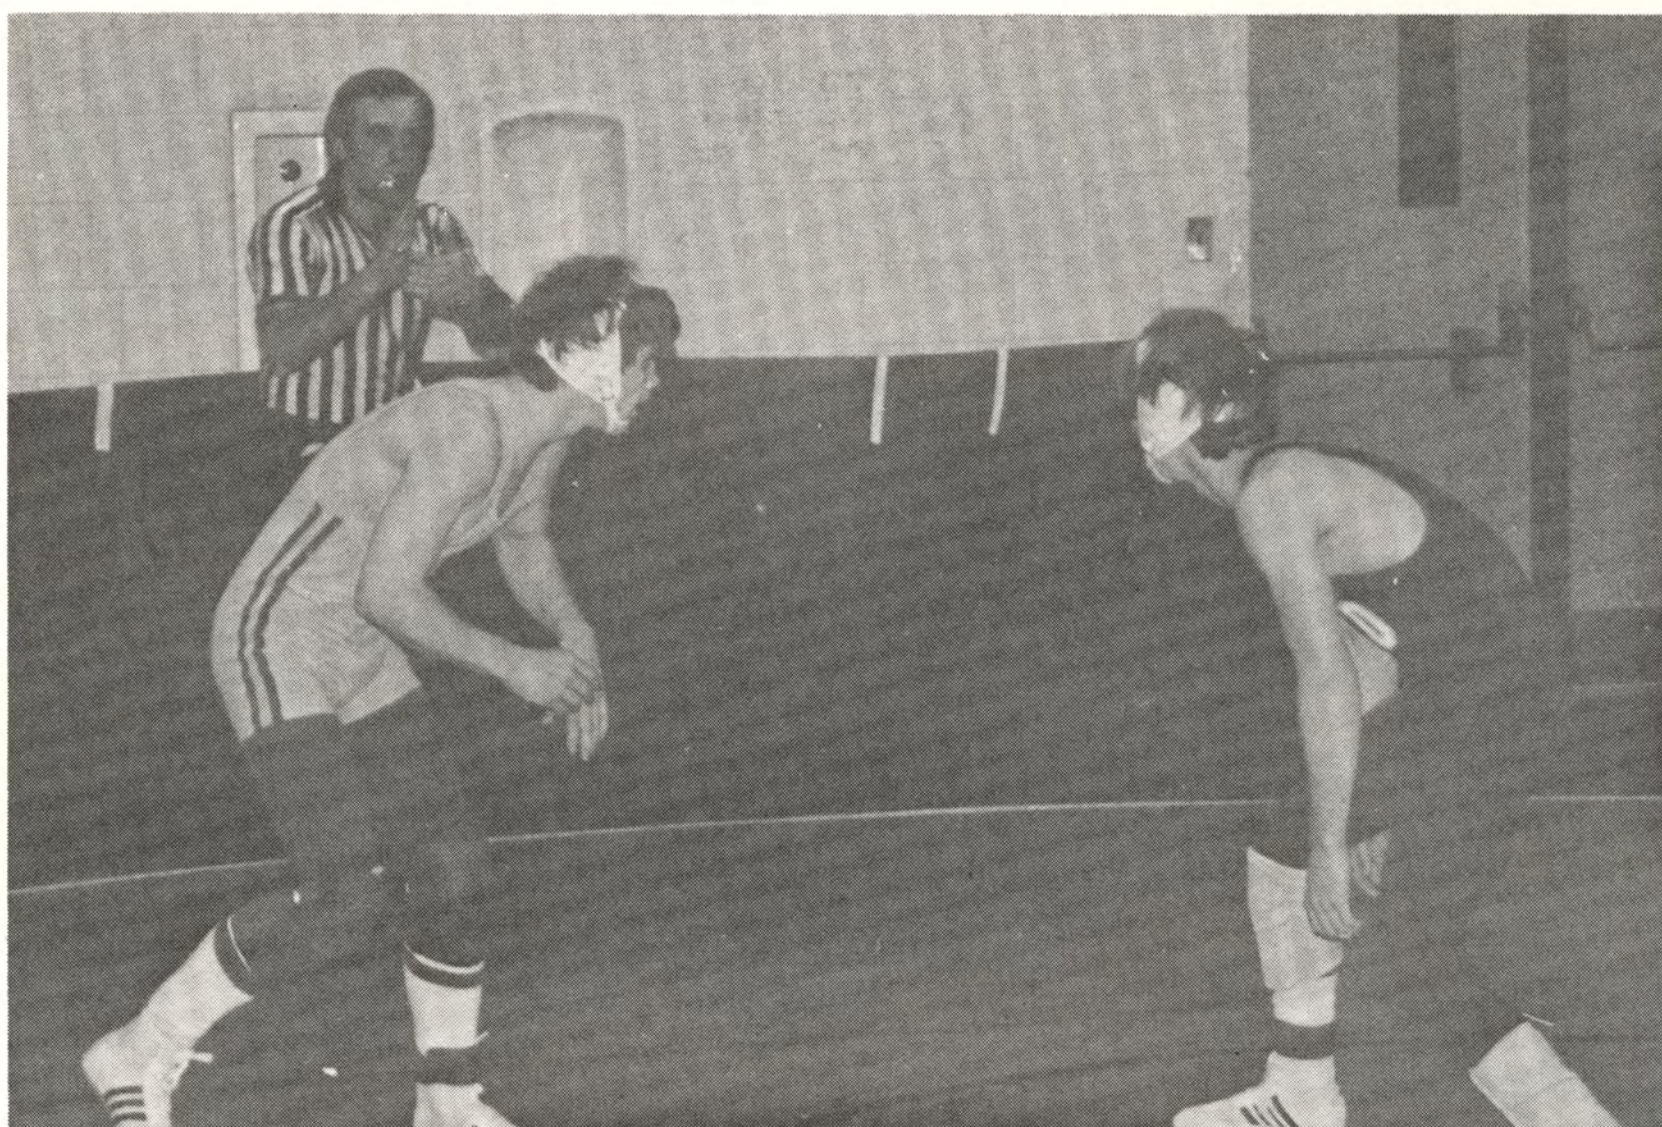

When We're Hot, We're Hot!

U-High's Varsity basketball team went into January with a 3-7 record and came out with 9-9. The Varsity came back hot as ---- to a winning streak of four in a row. Leading the Pioneers were the all Senior starting line-up. Their first loss came against Normal in a bitterly contested game as the fans were engaged in their customary rivalry against the Ironmen. Despite all attempts to gain points, the Pioneers never managed to get ahead. Having lost only one home game Varsity cagers didn't let Spaulding add another; they trounced them 79-65. Canton proved no problem as all five starters finished in double figures. Hopes for the conference championship were lessening as Morton won the final game of January.

Clockwise left Jim Mincey finds it's close quarters under the basket at Normal. Action on the floor draws a diversity of expressions from starters Bill Eddy and Steve Doran and reserves Tom Brown, Rick Pyne, and Steve Scott. Roger Scott partially blocks a shot, ruining IVC's chance for two. Ric Cordero pushes to the basket for an easy lay-up.

Grapplers Boost Season Record

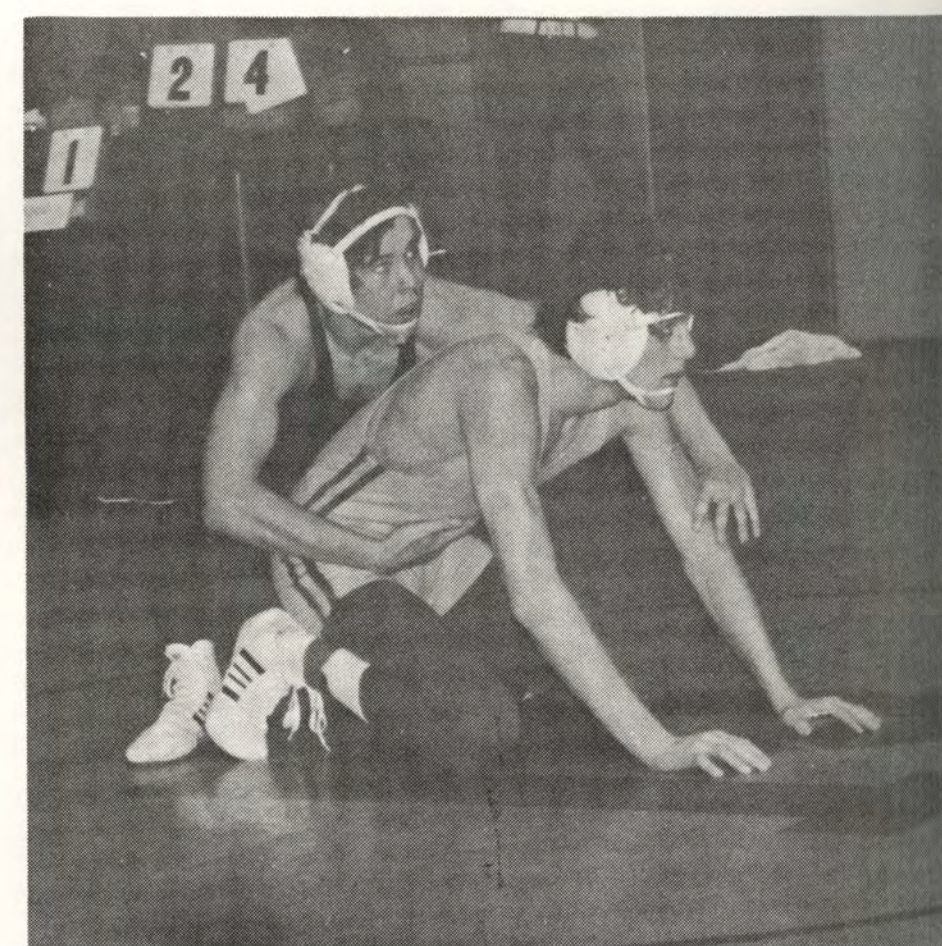

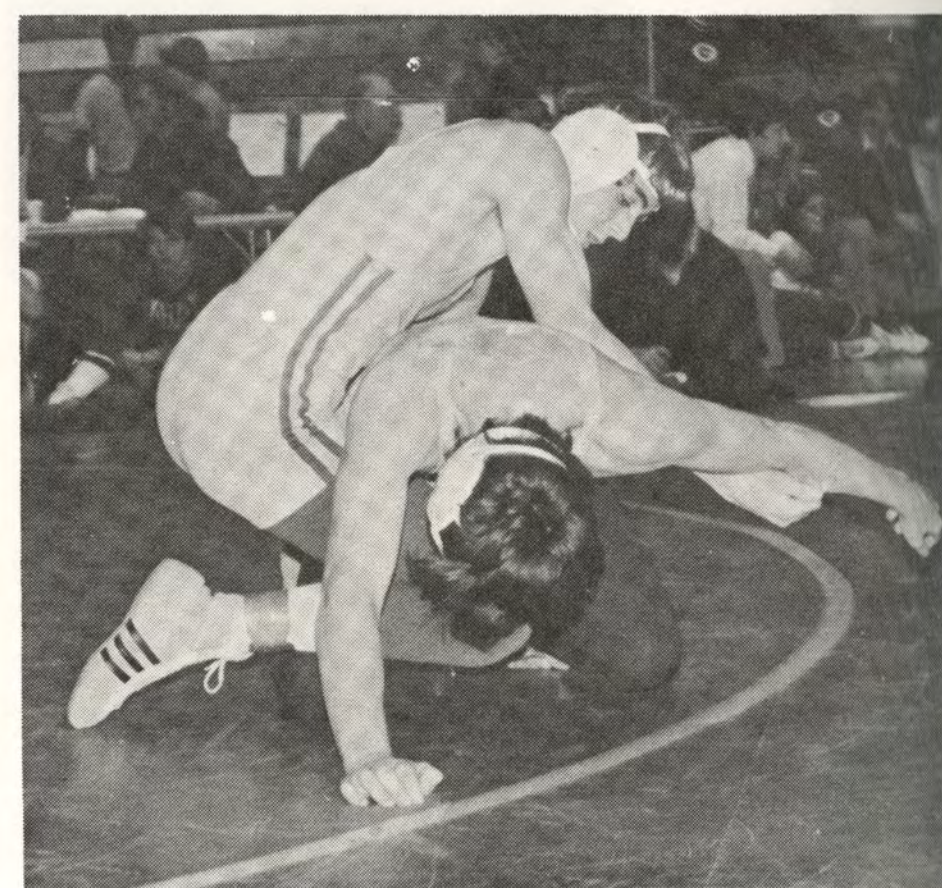

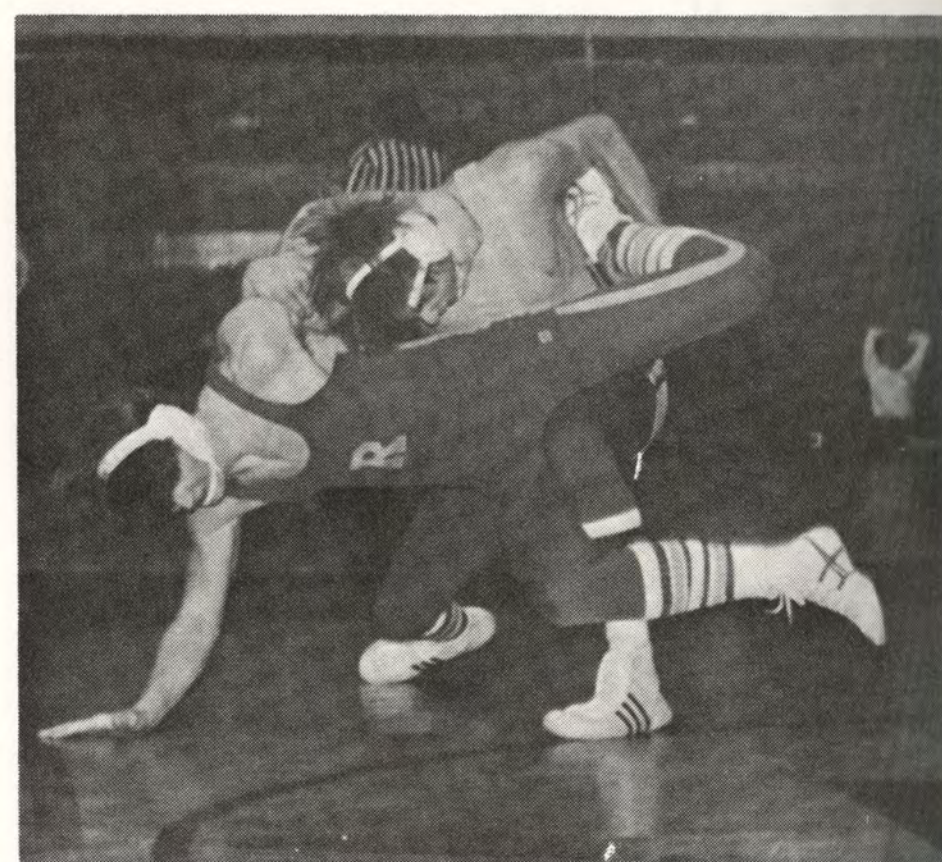

The month of January brought Darvin Miller's continuation of leading the team with an undefeated record in the 138 pound class. Tim Hutson followed at 155 pounds with a 20-2-1 record, and Dean Miller 15-5 at 132 pounds.

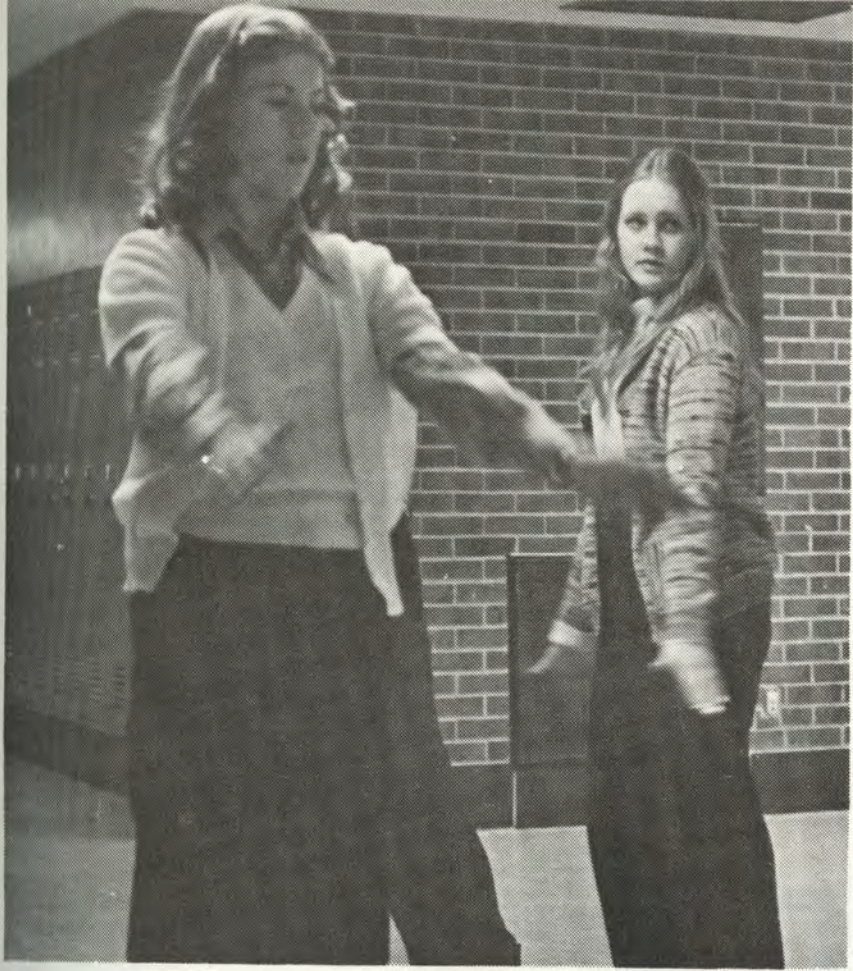

In two closely contested meets, on January 9, the Pioneers squeezed by Washington 29-27, but fell to Metamora 25-28.

At the U-High Invitational Tournament the grapplers took second place out of 12 schools. Darvin Miller boosted his undefeated record and was U-High's only first place finish. Second place finishers were Ron Biddle at 119 pounds and Dean Miller. 98 pounder Doug McClure and Tom Chiodo 167 pounder took third place while Alex Ritt finished fifth at 145 pounds.

Clockwise starting above: Doug McClure eyes his opponent in an attempt to charge and take him down. Tim Hutson gains control of an Ironmen. Darvin Miller puts the pressure on his opponent as he goes for another undefeated match. Dean Miller eyes the ref and awaits the signal to start.

Basketball and second semester brought a surge of spirit to the U-High boosters. Although the team was off to a cool start, the crowds were hot. Cheerleaders added their liveliness and at times were forced to quell the colorful language of the junior-senior guys' cheering block. Prairie Belles, with the help of the pep band, entertained the half-time crowds too excited to leave their seats.

We were like ground hogs in hibernation. February was one of those months where everyone got vacation except us. February was just there, drab and blah; not much one could do about it. There were the usual activities: speech, sports, and clubs. A break in the blahs came with A.F.S. week and the hint of spring in the air.

Mob Invades U-High

The AFS club held its annual week of festivities February 10-14. Schedule of Events: Monday - Kick off assembly; Beginning of the tape race (to last all week). Tuesday - Slide Show by Dan Townley and German Brailard. Wednesday - Movie - "The Naked Runner"; Voting for faculty Romeo & Juliet (Mr. Moore & Ms. Walker won). Thursday - Selling of Valentine Telegrams. Friday - Dress up day as a famous lover (Marc Feaster & Beth Escott won).

The week was a great success for the club, it made over $300. Although all activities did well, the tape race made the week what it was. With keen competition between the Freshman, Sophomore, and Senior classes, the Class of '75 left U-High undefeated.

Clockwise starting right: Dennis Gibson measures out tape to the sophomores allotment. Selling for a nickel an inch, it took a lot of money to reach the second floor. Kathy Boon doesn't look nearly as crabby as her "Lucy" costume demands. Lori Gilmore and Katie Bartmess drew lounge duty during the tape race. Of course no Valentine's Day would be complete without its own massacre. U-High's mob consisted of Lynda Brill, Todd Campbell, Marc Feaster, Clint Ayers, Martin Kohn, Beth Escott, Dave Ericksen, and their hapless victim, Mike Beer. Raggedy Ann & Andy, alias Debbie Weldon, and Debbie Land, deliver Valentine telegrams from Gene Brown's "secret lover."

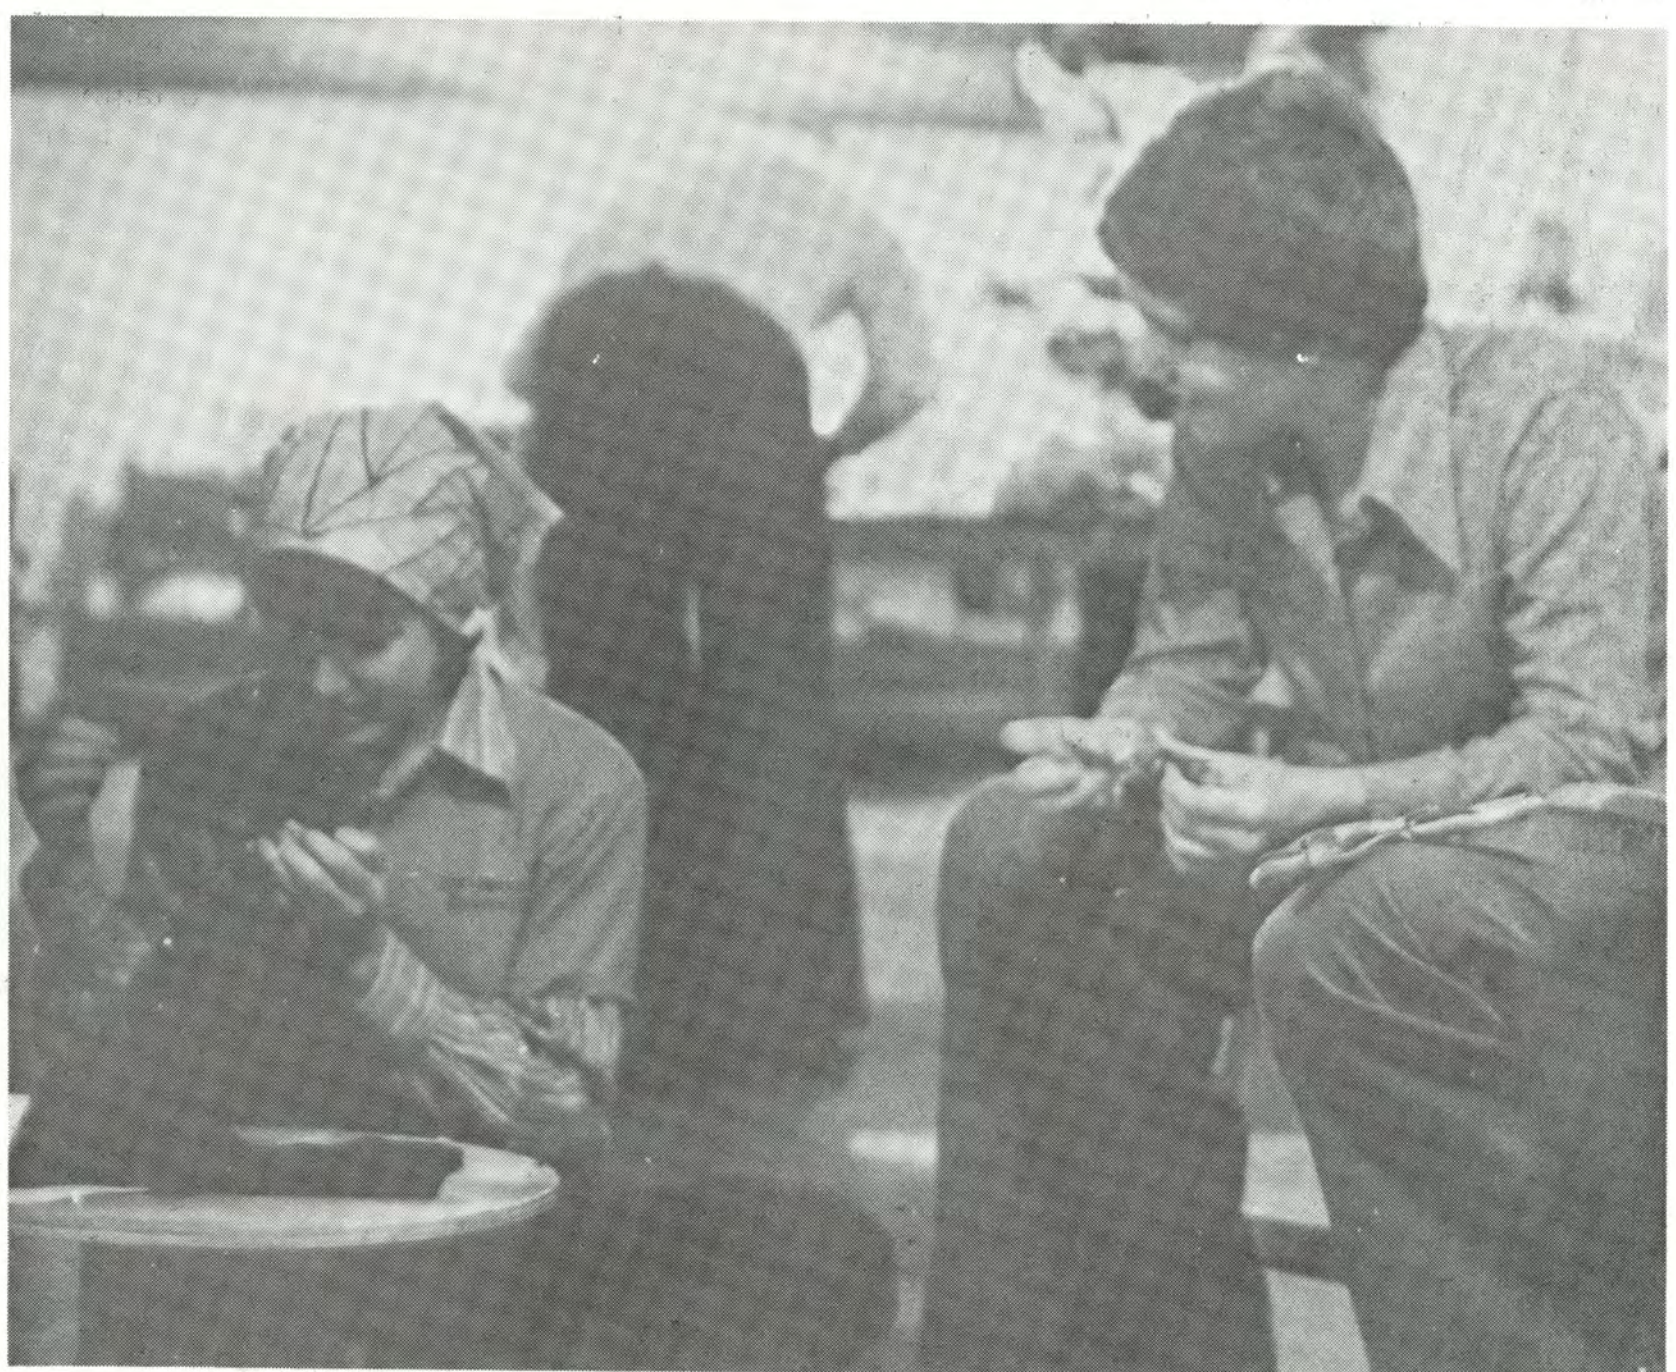

N.H.S. Boosts Headstart With Leaps and Bounds

On Thursday February 13th, National Honor Society visited the Head Start day care Center. Playing and talking with 30 kids in the morning, and 30 in the afternoon, each child received a special treat of a bean bag frog at the end of class. Honor Society made the frogs earlier that month.

The Cake Decorating Mini-course, held in February, was very successful, judging from the amount of icing consumed. Learning how to make leaves, borders, and flowers combined very easily with learning how to eat leaves, borders, and flowers. The two week course was highlighted by cakes made and decorated by the students, with a little help from Mrs. Martin, the instructor.

Dr. Roderick directs the orchestra in "The Chase." Mike Simmons concentrates on his trumpet playing after school in a practice room.

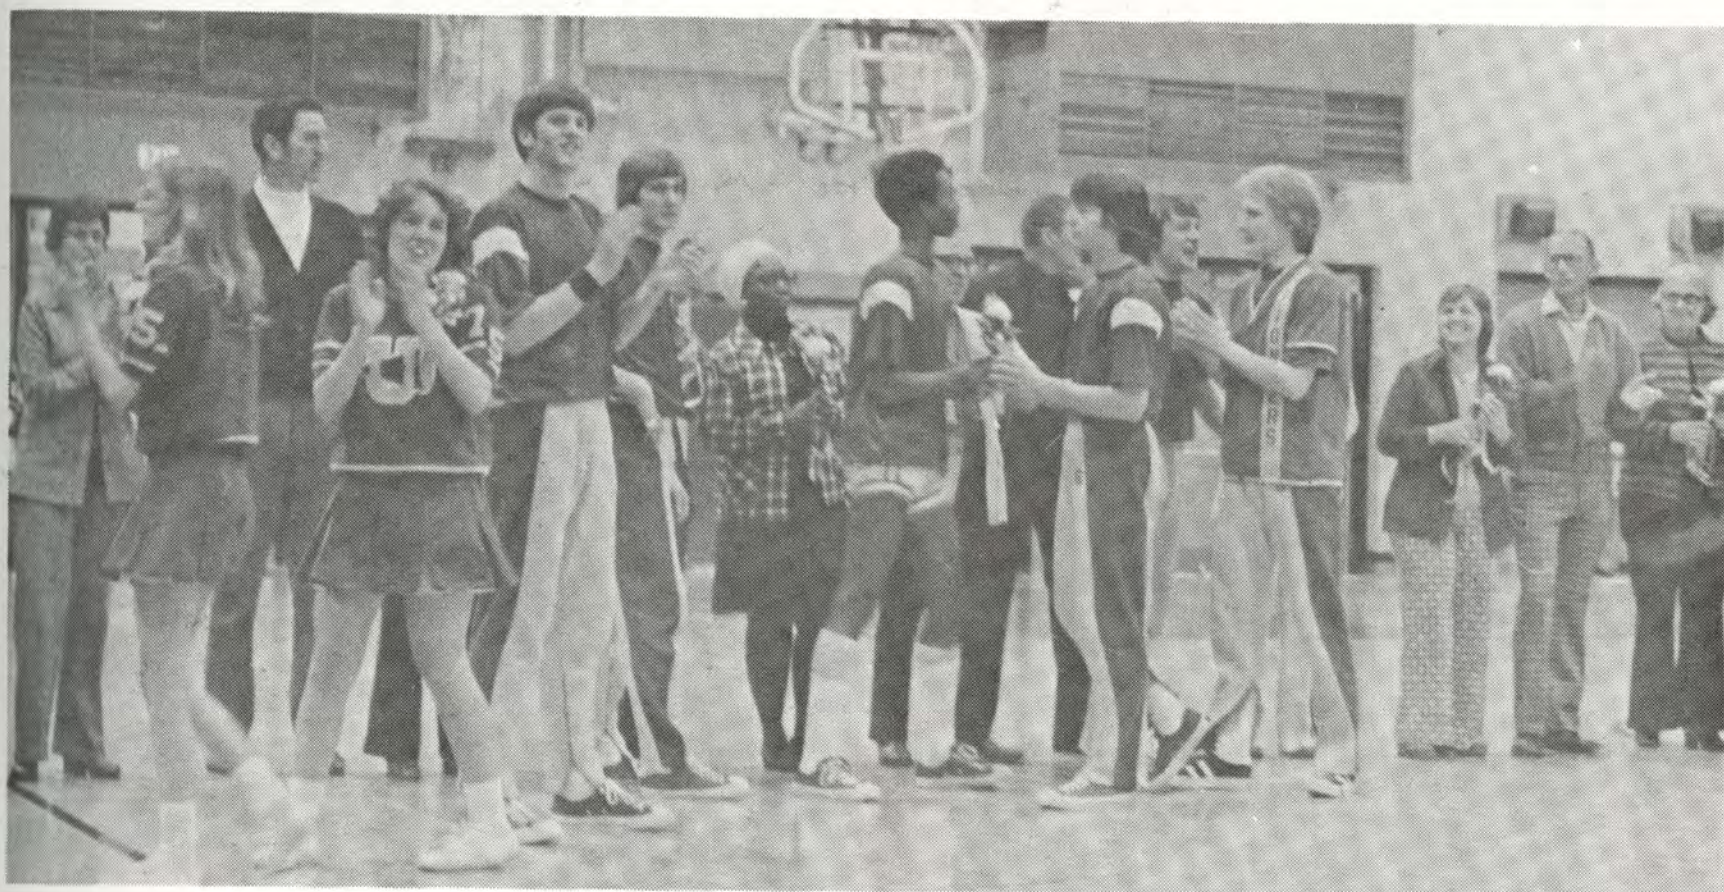

We're On Our Way

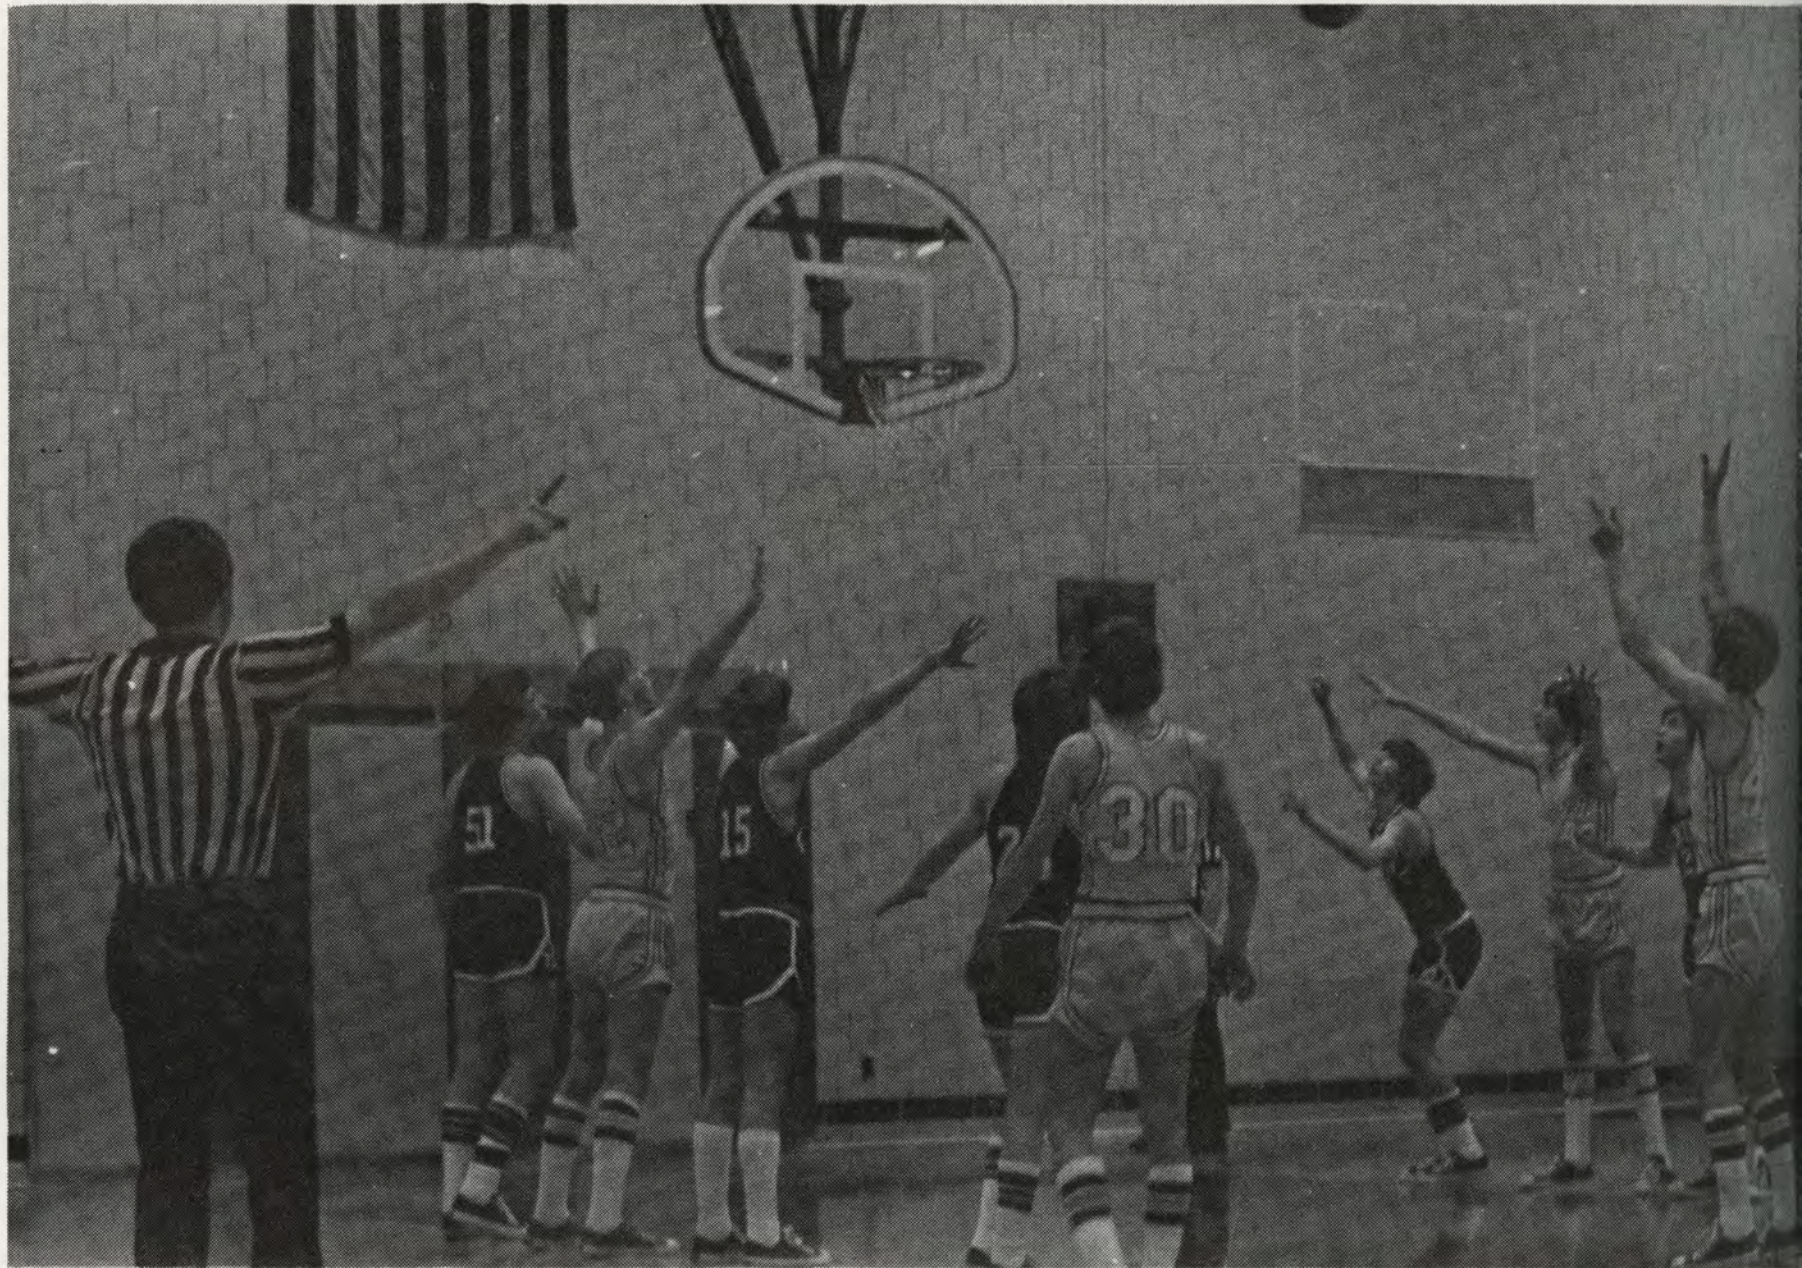

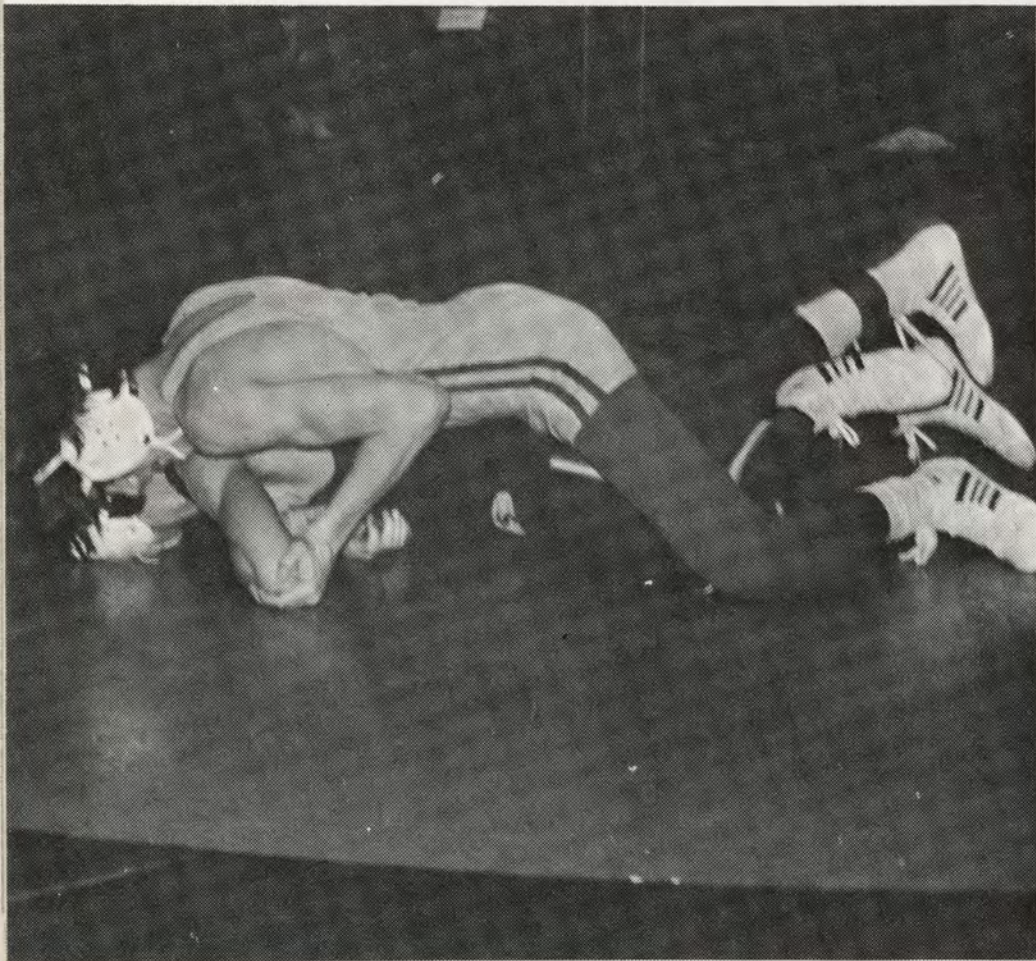

As February came to a close the varsity Pioneers found themselves as one of the hottest teams in the area. With a combination of a strong defense and a stronger offense the Pioneers had a 65-53 victory over Olympia. On the eighth, six players scored in double figures as U-High easily won over Clinton 87-68. The varsity were two games over the .500 mark. Pontiac put an end to the Pioneers streak of eight wins in ten games. Losing by eighteen points, Jim Mincey still shined in one of his best games scoring 22 points. An action packed intercity game found the Pioneers defeating the Saints, for the third time in the season, 62-60. U-High climbed to 102 points against Metamora ending the regular season with a 13-10 record. U-High then moved on to Octavia for the Class A Regionals. U-High took the Regional crown after three wins and advanced on to Sectional tournament play.

Clockwise starting below: Ric Cordero puts on a block against the opponent's basket. Senior Basketball team members and their parents were recognized at the last home game of the season. Jim Mincey adds 2 more points for an easy victory over Clinton.

Records Build Up as Season Winds Down

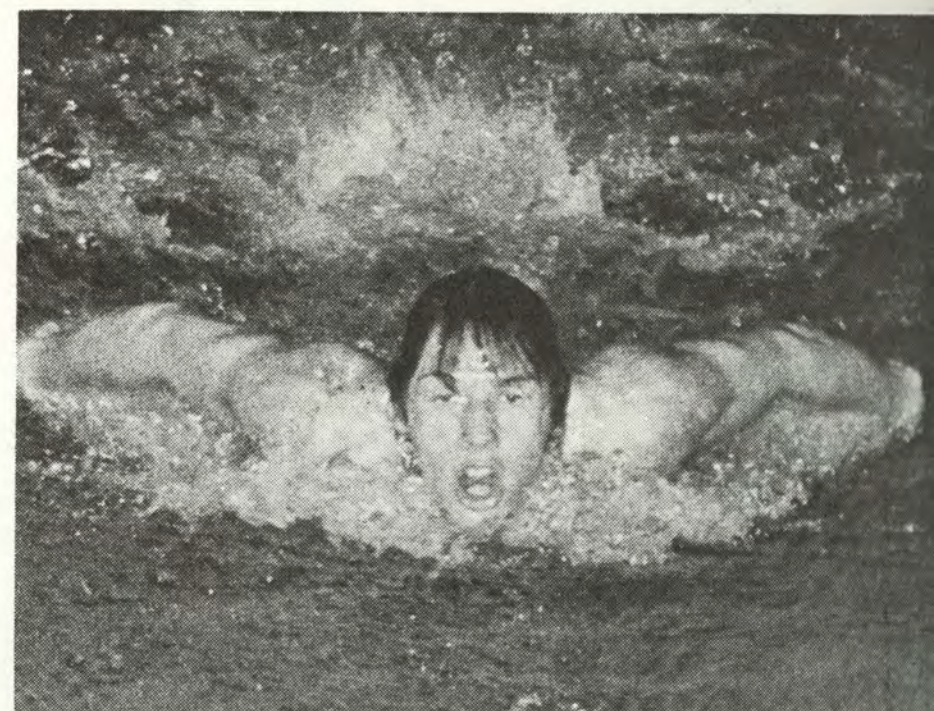

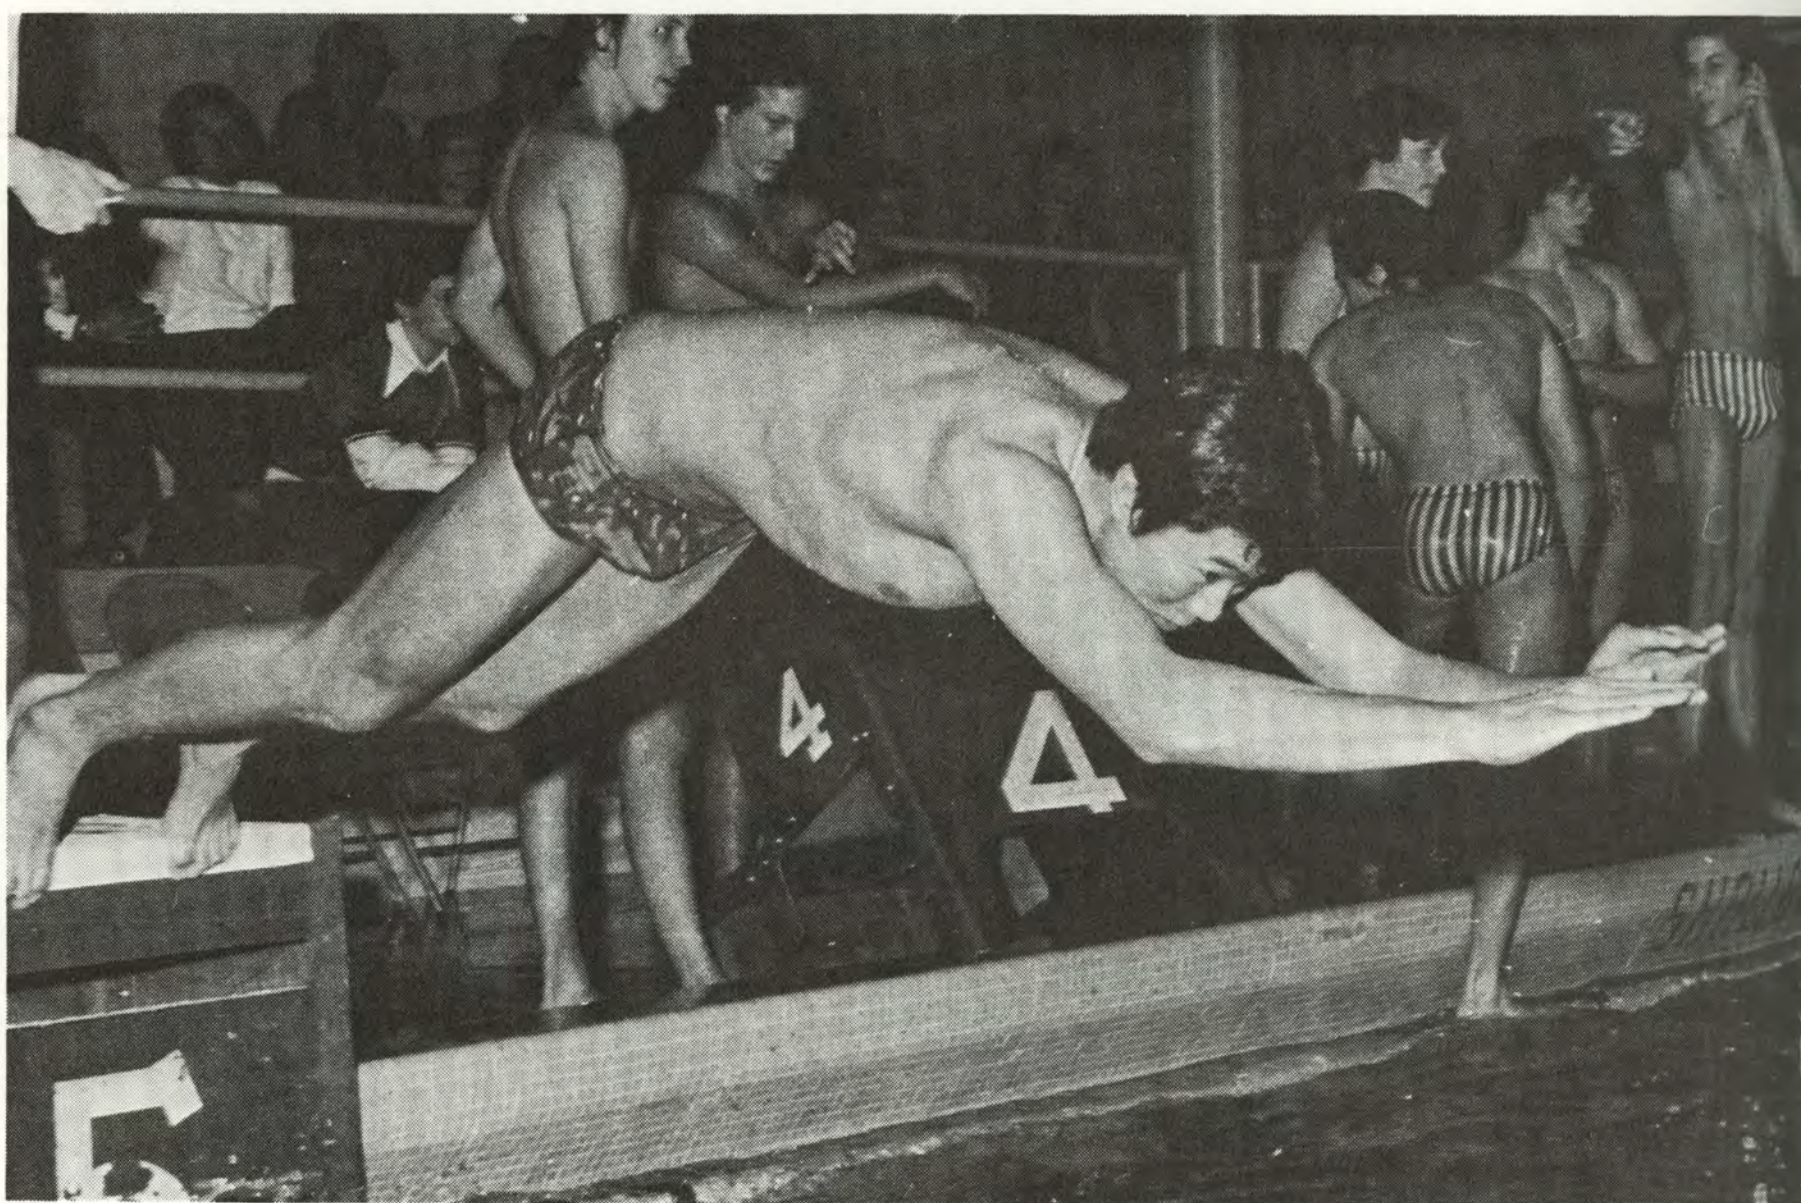

February was a month of tournaments for the Varsity grapplers. At the U-High Invitational they took second out of twelve teams. At Conference, out of 10 teams, they placed third. At both District and Sectional they took first place. At Sectional U-High put away all of its challengers and ran away with first place. The results of Sectional sent five wrestlers to State. Ron Biddle, with only one loss this season, pinned his opponent. Doug McClure advanced to state because of his second place finish. Tim Hutson pinned his opponent at 4:51. Dean Miller advanced by virtue of his come from behind victory. Darvin Miller brought his unbeaten record up to 31-0.

Clockwise starting below right: Hey buddy, watch it. Nobody cuts in on my date with Jo Ann. Junior Dean Miller looks for a take down at the Sectional wrestling. Dean Miller finds the pin just a little more difficult than anticipated. Mike Talkington keeps everyone in "suspended anticipation" on this free throw against Central Catholic. Leading Sophomore scorer, Mike Ryan, puts in two on a percentage shot.

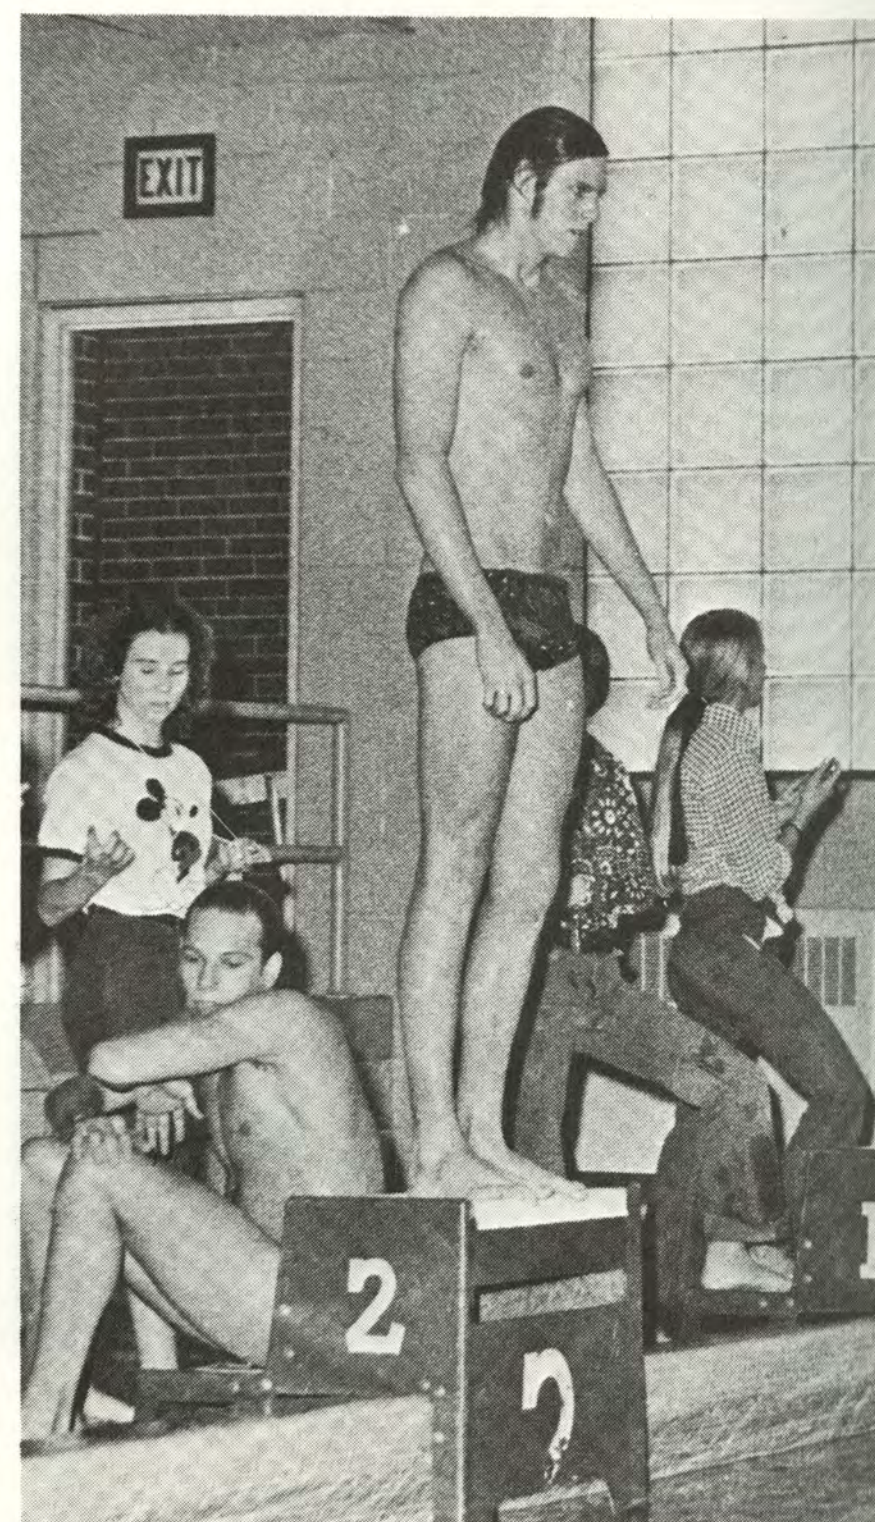

The 16th victory for the Sophomores came as they defeated Olympia in an easily won game 64-54. In a game that was close throughout, the Pioneers defeated Clinton 49-41. Jim Lovekamp had his best game of the year as he scored 18 points. The Sophs lost their second game of the year to Pontiac falling just two points short of a tie. Central Catholic proved tough, but U-High downed the Saints, for the third time this season, 47-45. The third straight close game ended the regular season on a losing note to Metamore. U-High came out with its record 18-3.

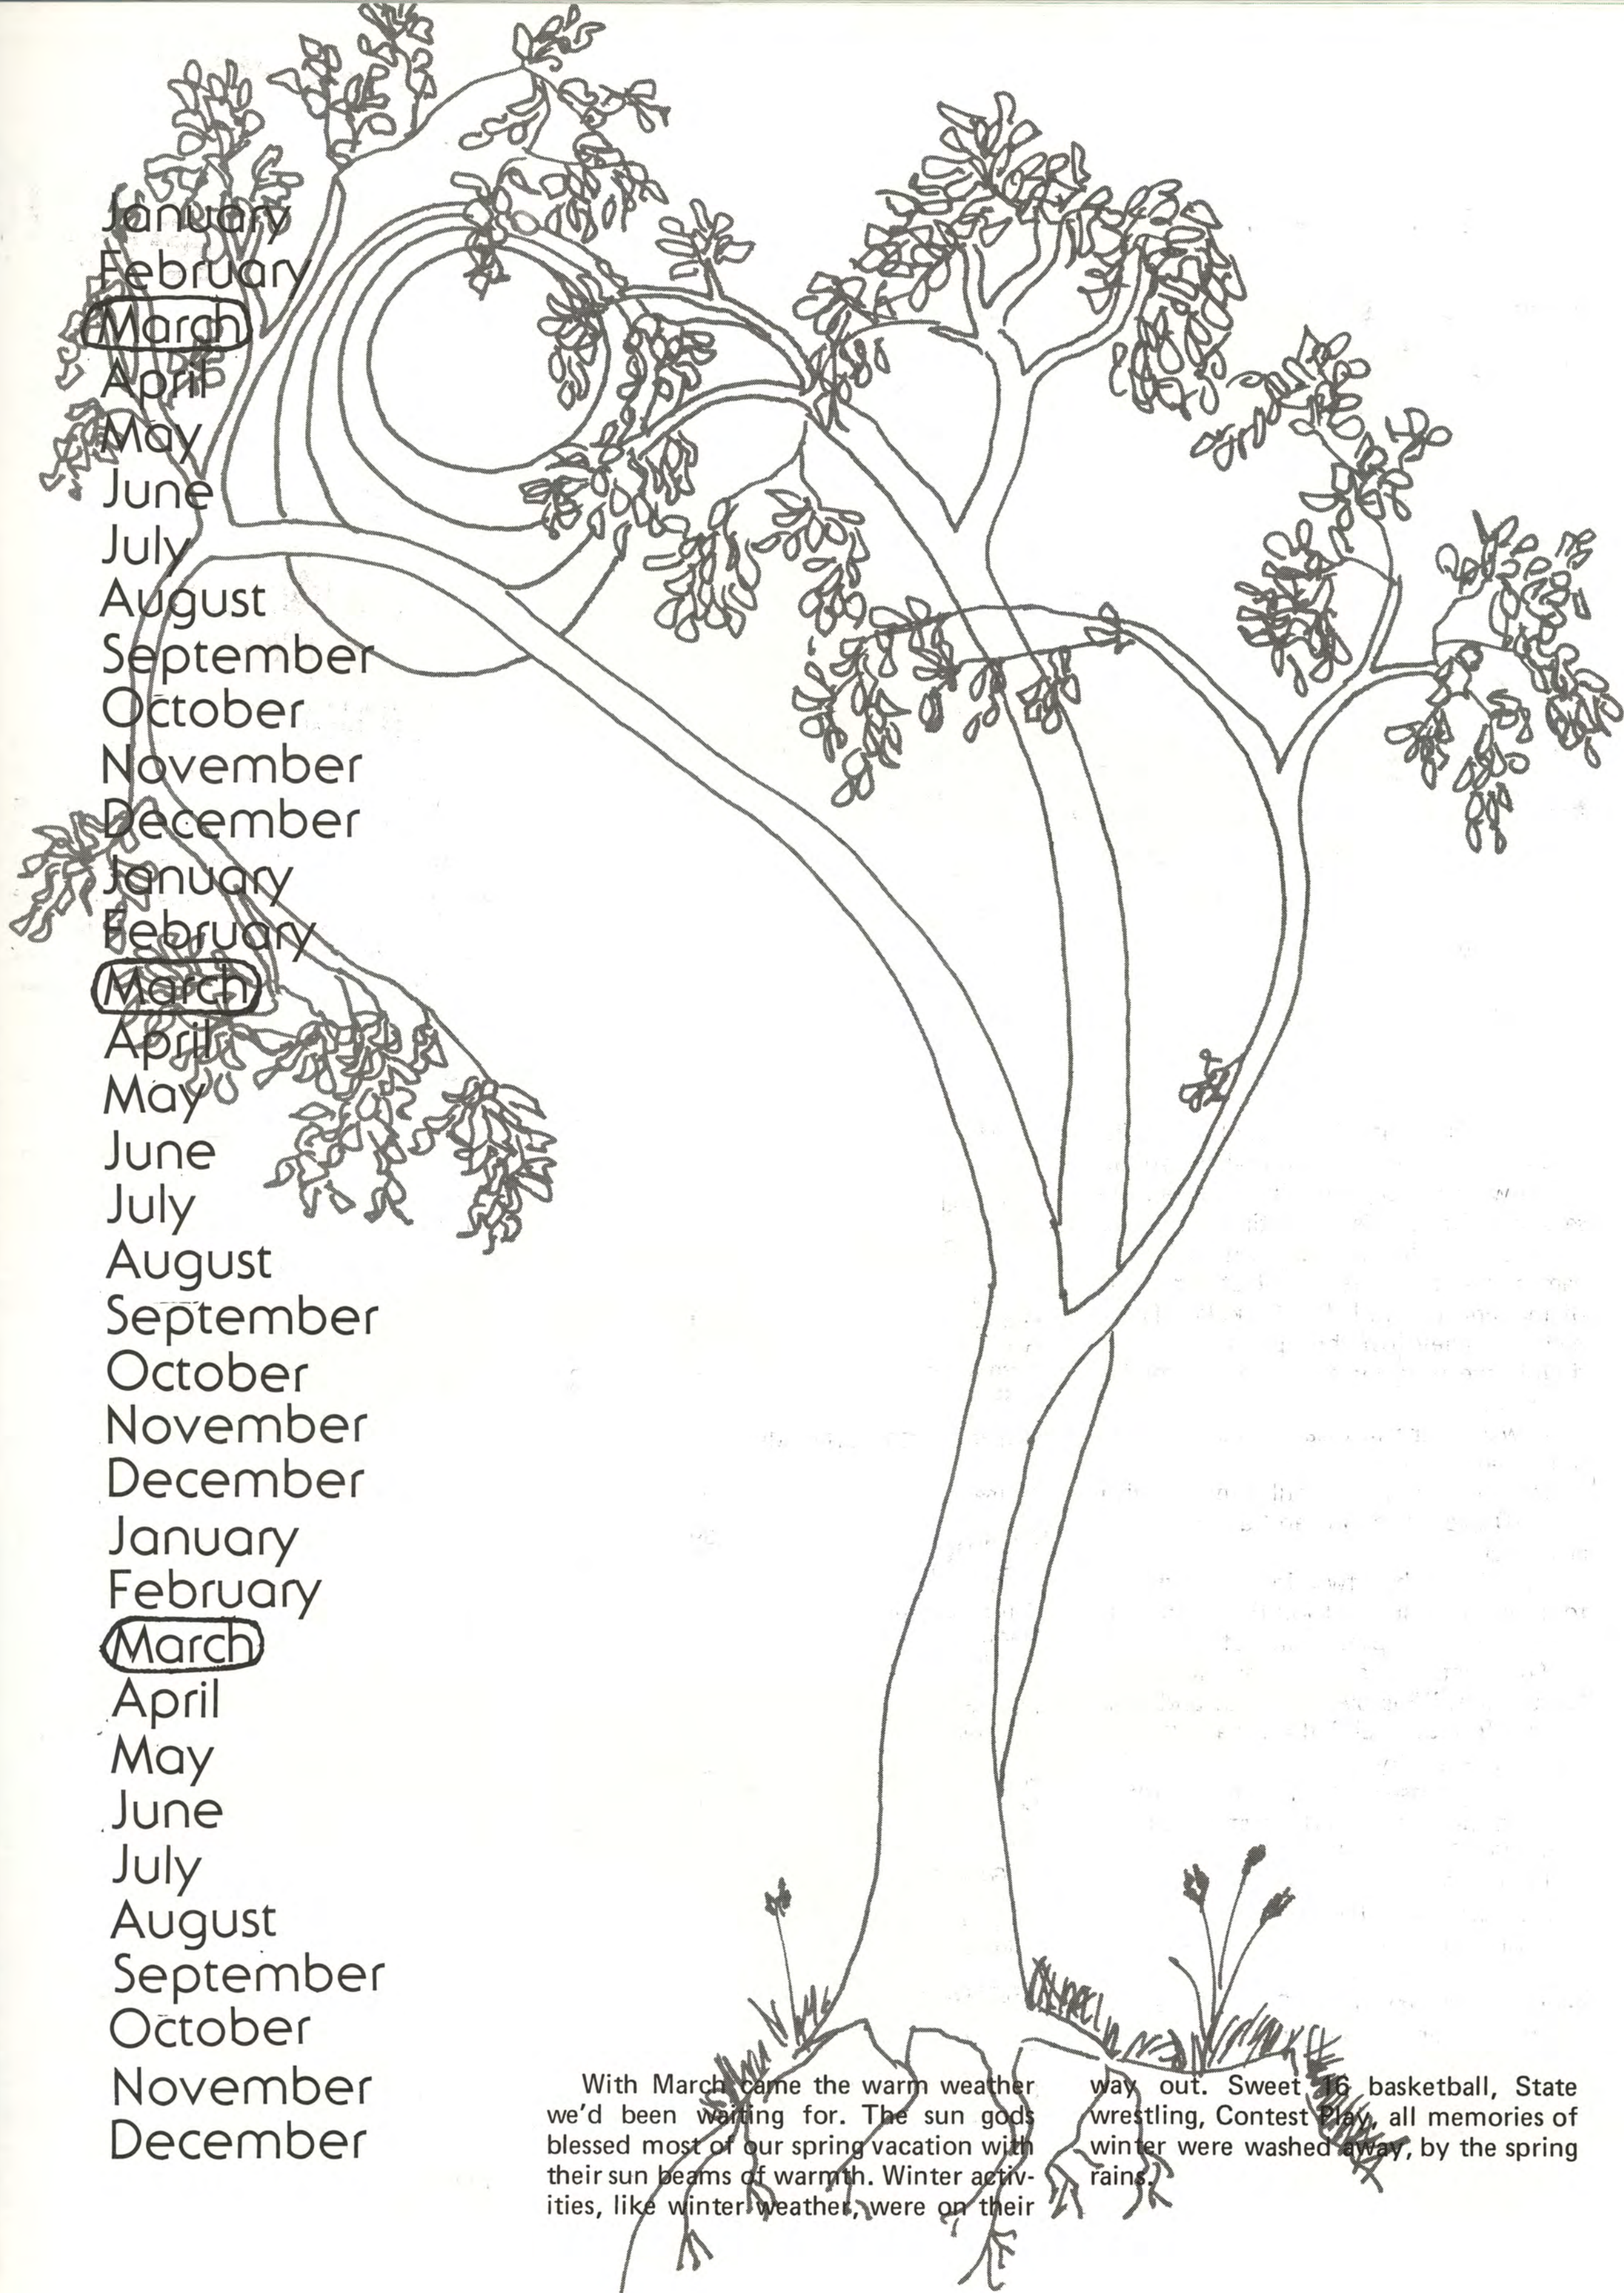

Long Stroke to State

The 1974-75 U-High Tankers had a good year finishing 10-4 altogether. They were 6th of 14 at the first Centennial Invitational and finished 4th out of 15 in the final district meet. Last year there were no qualifiers to the state championships. This year U-High sent a medley relay of Eaton, Eckert, Lartz, and Knight. Eaton and Knight also made it into two or more events. U-High being the smallest of 165 schools did not place in the top 12 of any events, but made the accomplishment of being there to participate. To go one must either win at the district or make a cutoff time which has to be first. Eaton set a new 100 yd. backstroke record, and a new 500 yd. freestyle record. Knight set two records in the 200 yd. individual medley, and the 100 yd. breaststroke. Runners-up for new records were this year's relay team, Rob Knight in the 50 yd. freestyle, and Tim Eaton in the 100 yd. freestyle. The most valuable team members were Tim Eaton and Rob Knight. The Co-captains were Casey Lartz and Tim Eaton, and all but four of the team lettered. With a dedicated coach and dedicated swimmers the 74-75 tankers had proven themselves during the season.

Clockwise starting below: Swimmers find time between races to sit and catch their breath. Terry Thomas practices his butterfly for an upcoming meet. Ken Tcheng warms up with a few dives before a meet. Tim Eaton prepares to dive.

Pioneers Return to Sweet Sixteen

Pioneers

U-High's varsity basketball team finished their 1974-75 season with a streak of 15 wins in 19 games. They began the season with a disappointing Intercity Tournament losing two out of three games. The Pioneers then lost three out of five and entered the Kankakee Tournament. They lost the opening game in double overtime and the second game by one point.

It was after this disastrous start that the streak started.

U-High ended the regular season with a 13-10 overall record and a 9-3 conference mark.

Rated number two in the Regional tourney the Pioneers took three straight, including an upset win of Gridley.

The Sectional also proved victorious for U-High. Wins over Forman and conference foe Central Catholic gave the Pioneers the trophy.

A tall Watseka team who finished third in the state ended the streak at the Super Sectional level.

Ric Cordero led U-High's scoring with a 15.1 average. Steve Doran, who tied the assist record of 159, scored at a 13.8 clip. Roger Scott added 11.4 points per game. Jim Mincey had a 9.6 average and Bill Eddy scored 8.3 a game.

Freshmen Cagers Couldn't Find the Key

The Freshman basketball squad was only 10-12 for the season but they still received high praise from their coach Bob Frederick. "This freshman class," stated Frederick, "has the potential to be one of the top class A teams by the time they're juniors or seniors." The Pioneers finished with a 3-3 mark in intercity play and they gained third place in the annual Heart of Illinois freshman tournament.

5 Grapplers Make State; Win 2nd Place

U-High will become a perennial state wrestling power if Coach Girardi can find another set of brothers!

Finishing second in the State tournament, U-High's wrestling team took two firsts, and two seconds out of the five men who advanced to state.

Ron Biddle and Tim Hutson each scored resounding first place victories; Biddle winning 12-3 and Hutson scoring 10-0 in the class A finals.

Second place finishers went to Darvin and Dean Miller. Darvin found a second place finish a double disappointment as the loss in the final round was his only one for the season, ending the year with an outstanding 33-1 record. Dean lost in a tight 5-4 decision. Doug McClure, who also qualified for State, was eliminated in the first round.

On the whole, the year went well advancing seven members to sectional, five to state and finishing with a good record on a tough schedule.

End of the year honors included Dar-vin Miller as MVP, Ron Biddle receiving an honorable mention as All-American, and Coach Girardi being selected as "Coach of the Year" by his fellow coaches.

Sophs Outstanding

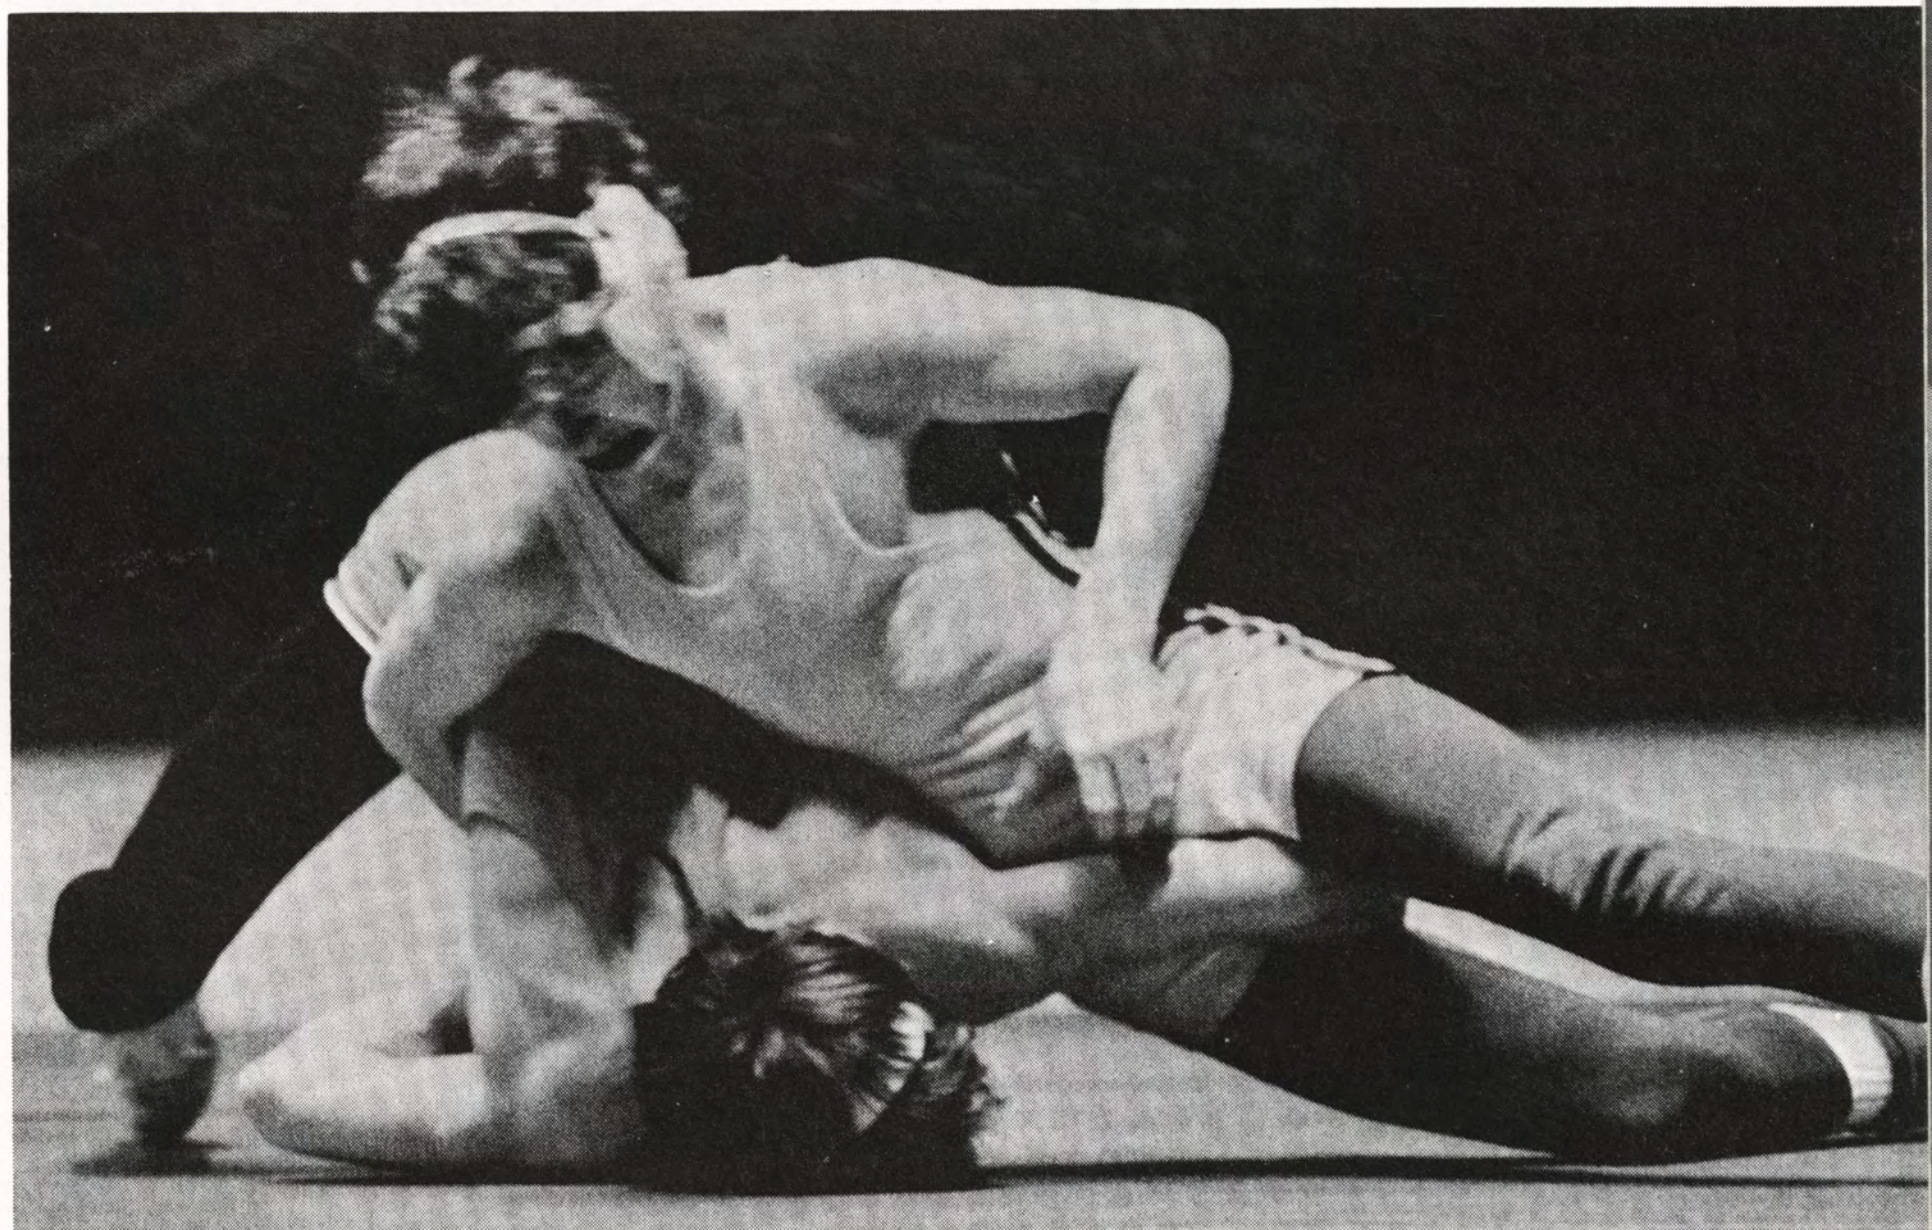

U-High Sophomore basketball team used a fifteen game unbeaten streak to gain a 21-3 season. The underclassmen won the inter-city title and two tournaments.

After winning their first five tilts, U-High took the Inter-city Tourney. The opening two games against Bloomington (55-48) and Central Catholic (62-48) set up the championship against Normal. The game was close all the way and ended regulation play tied up. The overtime period was just as close and it looked like a sixth period would be needed, but Dale Heidloff's twenty footer at the horn went in for the victory. U-High completed the season with a 6-0 mark against inter-city teams.

At the St. Bede Invitational, the Pioneers simply outclassed the rest of the teams for the trophy.

Mike Ryan led the balanced individual scoring with a 15.3 average. Mike Talkington finished with a 12.7 average. Eric Albert had a 10.5 mark and shot 81 percent from the free throw line. Jim Lovekamp scored at a 10.3 clip. Dale Heidloff rounded things off at 7.8 points per game. Chris Cashen came in with a 1.4 average.

Tough defense was the key as the Pioneers allowed only 46.2 points a game while scoring at 57.9.

Spring break was the chance for everyone to get away from U-High. While most of us sat around town and relaxed, many travelled to such exciting places as Florida, New Orleans, Texas, and even Oklahoma.

Rosencrantz and Guildenstern Make All-State

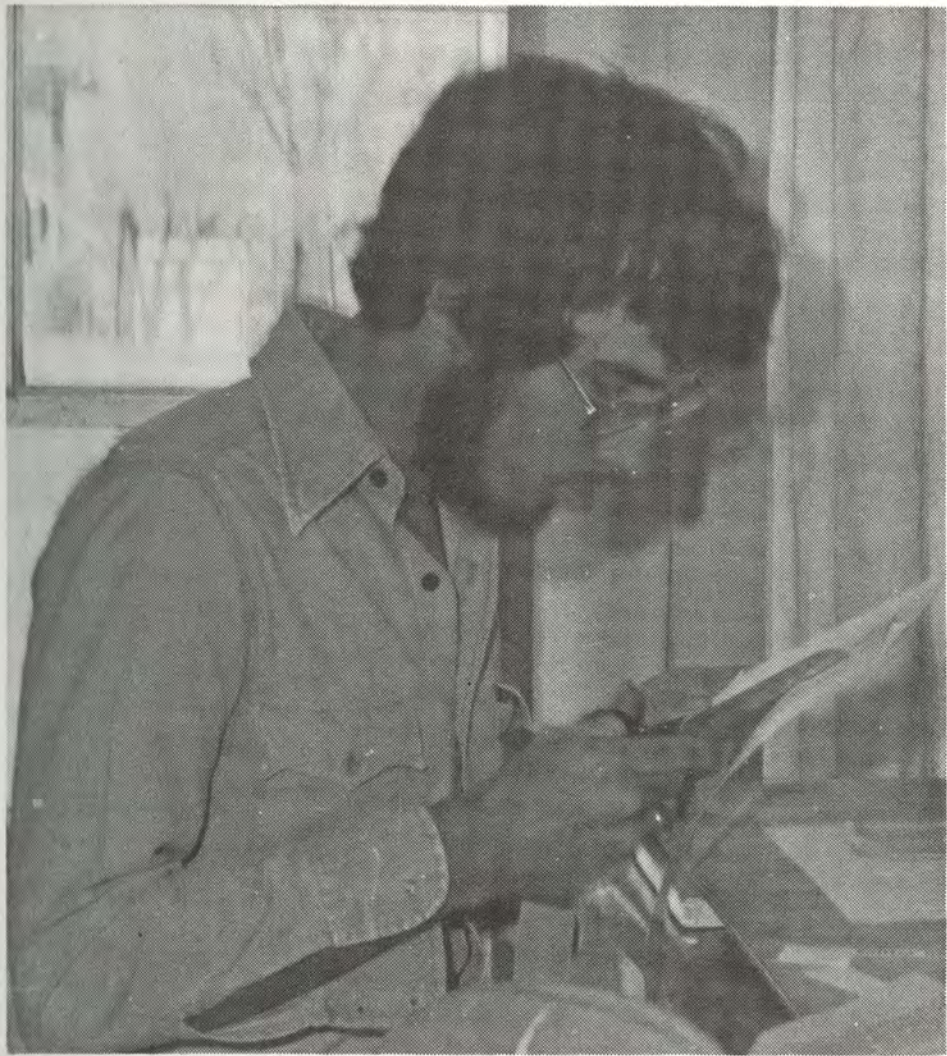

Led by All-Staters Ray Roderick and Clint Ayers in title roles ROSENCRANTZ AND GILDENSTERN carried on U.H.S. tradition by capturing district and sectional honors and placing third in the state.

The play itself is taken from the characters in Shakespeare's HAMLET and deals with the little man of the world working against fate and stronger mortals.

In addition to contest performances, the cast gave an all school performance, several public performances, and a cutting for the AFS talent show.

Clockwise starting top: Members of a group of travelling players (Tami Colvin, Todd Campbell, and German Brillard) find the orders to deliver Hamlet to England for execution. Braves Scalp 'Em All Almost fifty students competed for the intramural basketball championship during the second semester. Three top teams, Chicago Bulls, Buffalo Braves, and Men of Miracles, battled for first place during the regular season. The Braves came out on top with a perfect 6-0 record.

Two first round upsets eliminated the Bulls and Braves from the post-season tournament. Men of Miracles then took advantage of the situation to sweep the first place crown. The eight teams participating included the Washington Bullets (Capt. Doug Wellenreiter), Philadelphia 76'ers (Capt. Kevin Carroll), Boston Celtics (Capt. Dave Schramm), New York Nets (Capt. Tracy Olson), Hoopers (Capt. Dan Elmore), Chicago Bulls (Capt. Ron Hibbens), Buffalo Braves (Capt. Dan Townley), and Men of Miracles (Capt. Harry Brubeck).

These serious scholars (Terry Thomas, Steph McGrath, Bob Fleming, and Cindy Lartz) prepare for an exam in the mini-course: "Spring Fever."

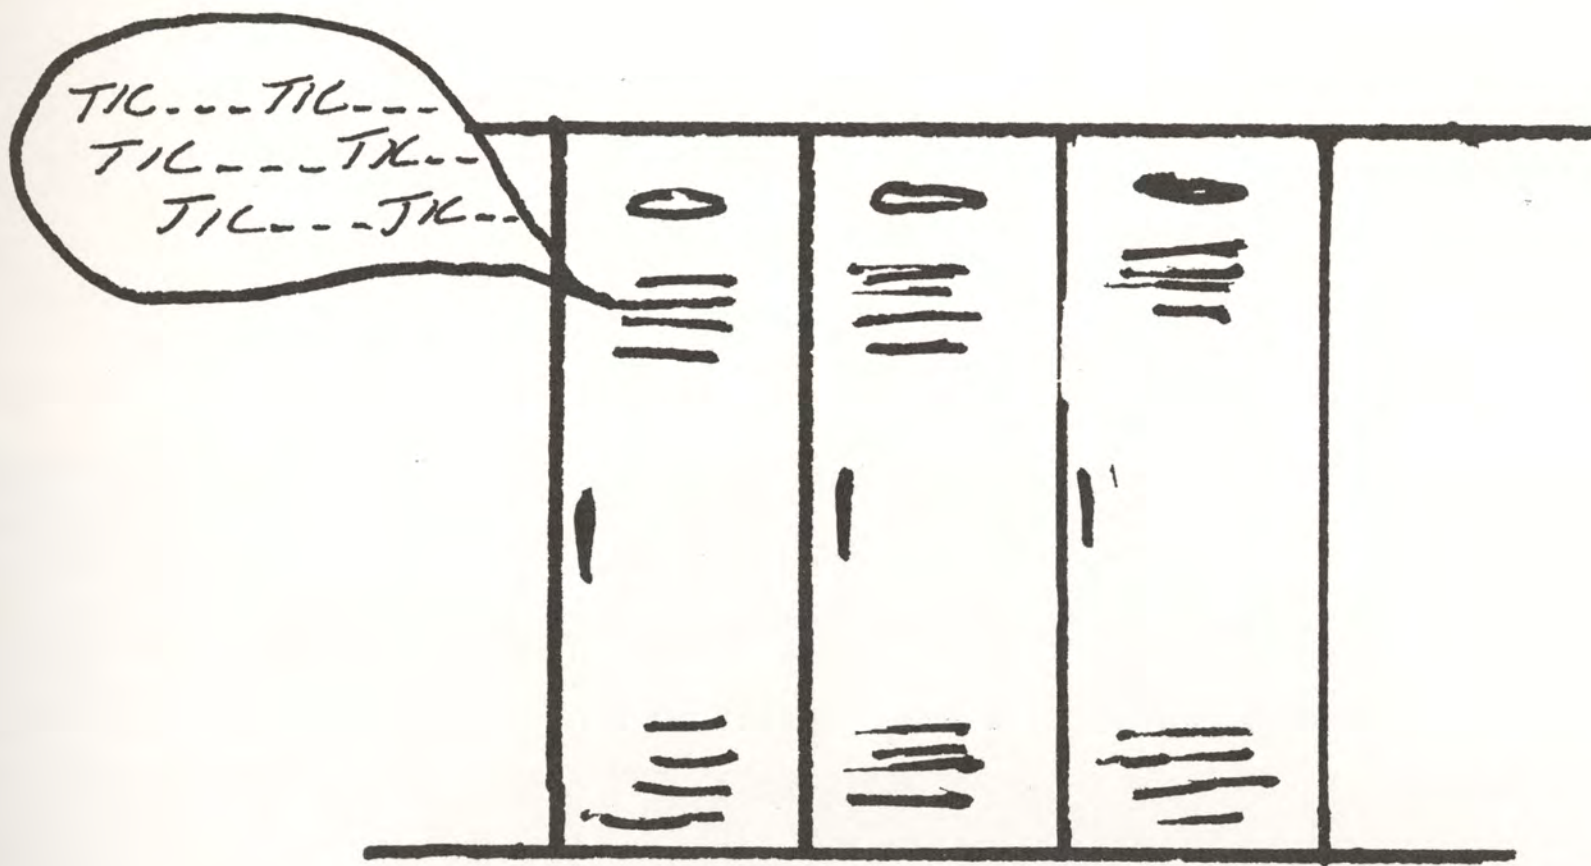

In April the new Spring initiates for Honor Society were announced. The announcement of Katie Shuman, John Sperry, Wade Jacobs, John Friedhoff, and John Newbold was made at an all school assembly. Later the same day the formal induction was held. The five students that were chosen represent the 5 percent of the Junior class that is taken in each Spring. The requirements for members are to be in the top third of the class and have the qualities of scholarship, leadership, service, and character.

On April 28, 29, and 30 U-High students pre-registered for next fall's classes, after first learning from Mr. Norris the procedures that would be followed. Despite his explanations, chaos, confusion and an atmosphere of total insanity prevailed, as usual. Students were on their knees, groveling before teachers, begging them to open classes they ABSOLUTELY HAD TO BE IN for just ONE more person. As each new class was closed, moans of anguish could be heard and people were seen rolling on the floor, sobbing hysterically. Despite all the problems, registration was finally over, although eight Junior jocks found themselves in Fashion Sewing instead of Physics.

Eight o'clock classes received a pleasant surprise on April 11, as Mrs. Lynn came over the intercom to spread the news that a BOMB! was supposedly in the building. Students emptied out of the building faster than ever, not because of the bomb, but because school was dismissed until 10:00 a.m. A search was conducted by Security and classes were reluctantly called back at 10 a.m.

Rain Delays Spring Sports

The 1975 Varsity Baseball season found itself starting on a bad note as 5 of the first 7 games were postponed due to bad weather.

With Ron Hibben's strong pitching and the team's defense the Pioneers were able to win their home opener, against Clinton, 4-3.

As spring weather finally arrived the Varsity boosted their record to 6-3. U-High lead the Eastern Division of the Heart Of Illinois Conference by 2 games over Olympia. Steve Doran led with a .393 average on eleven hits. Roger Scott and Matt Aubertine led with six RBI's and batting average of .355 and .318 respectively. Doug Wellenreiter leads the team with seven runs scored. Steve Scott, only having been up 12 times, is hitting a .416. Ron Hibbens leads with a .88 ERA and a 4-0 record. Roger Scott's 1.05 ERA has helped to keep the opponents scoring only 2.02 earned runs a game.

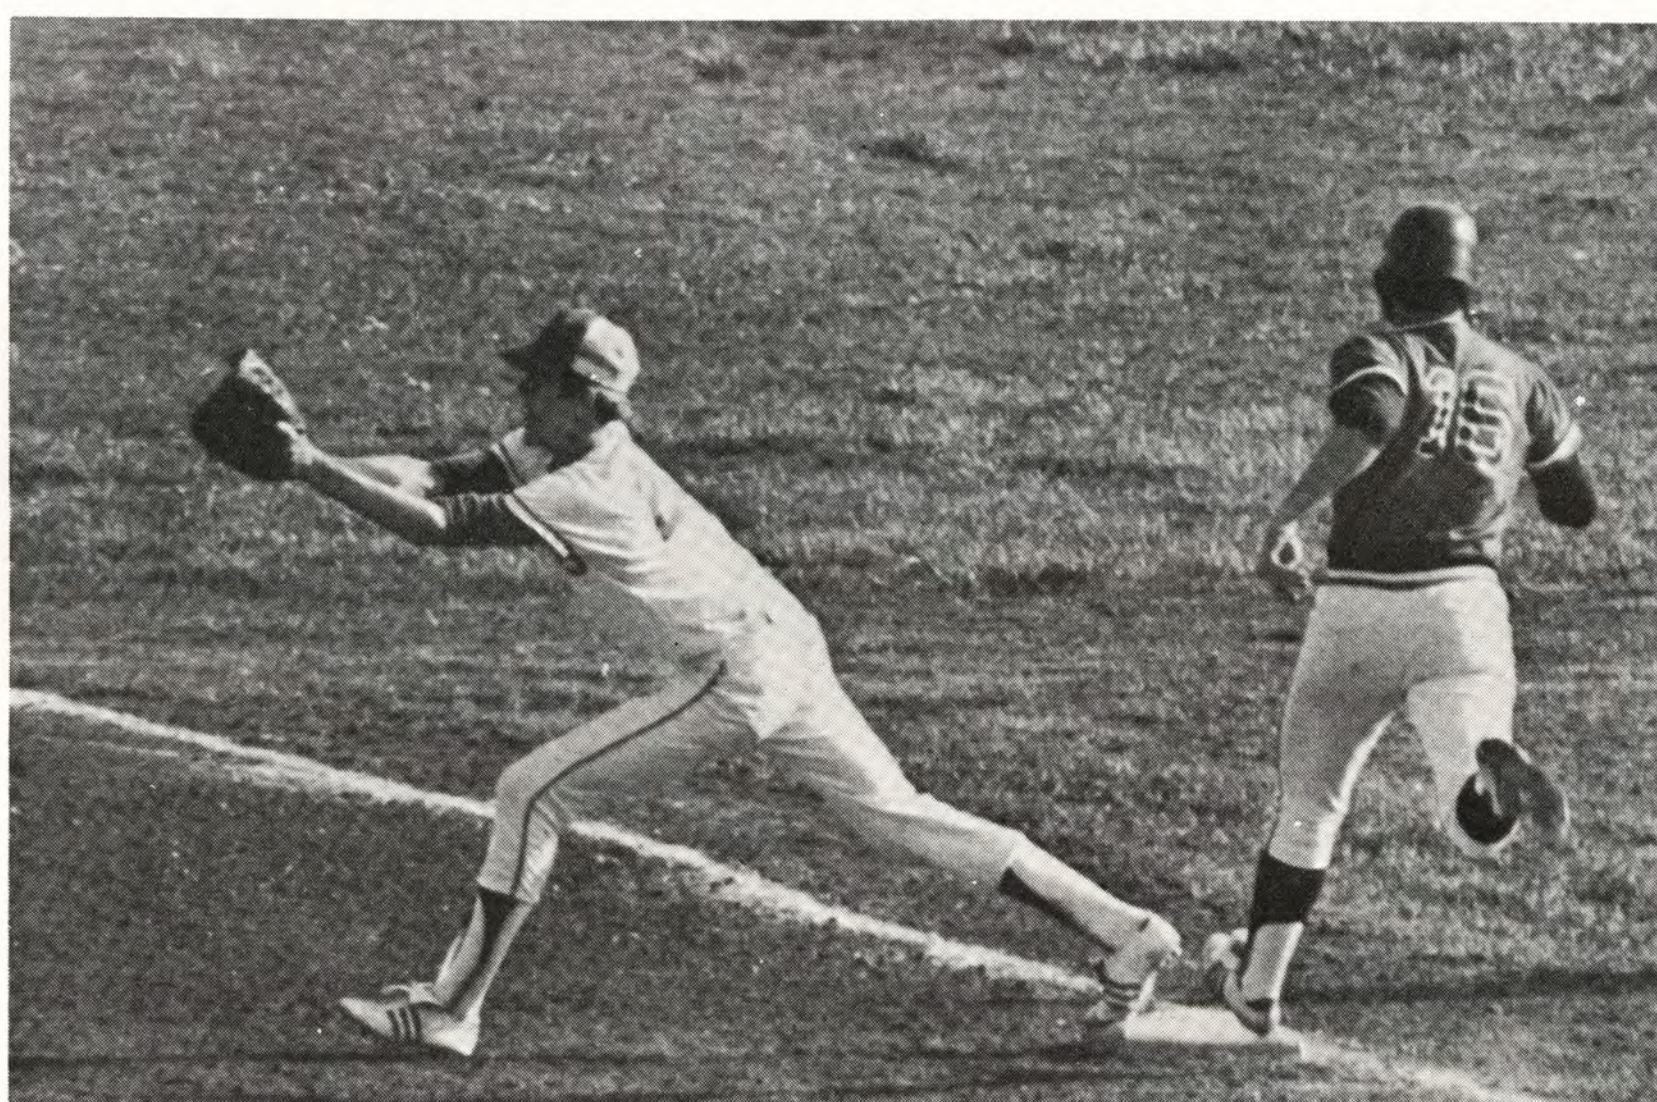

With 5 out of 7 starters returning from last year the '75 tennis team had high hopes for this year's season record.

U-High lost its first meet to N.C.H.S. in 3 years. A big surprise was at Lincoln when U-High blanked Lincoln's tennis team 9-0 compared to last year's close match which was won by U-High 5-4. LaSalle/Peru caught U-High off guard in the 2nd match of the year upsetting the Netters 5-4. The Netters had a few May meets left to redeem their record.

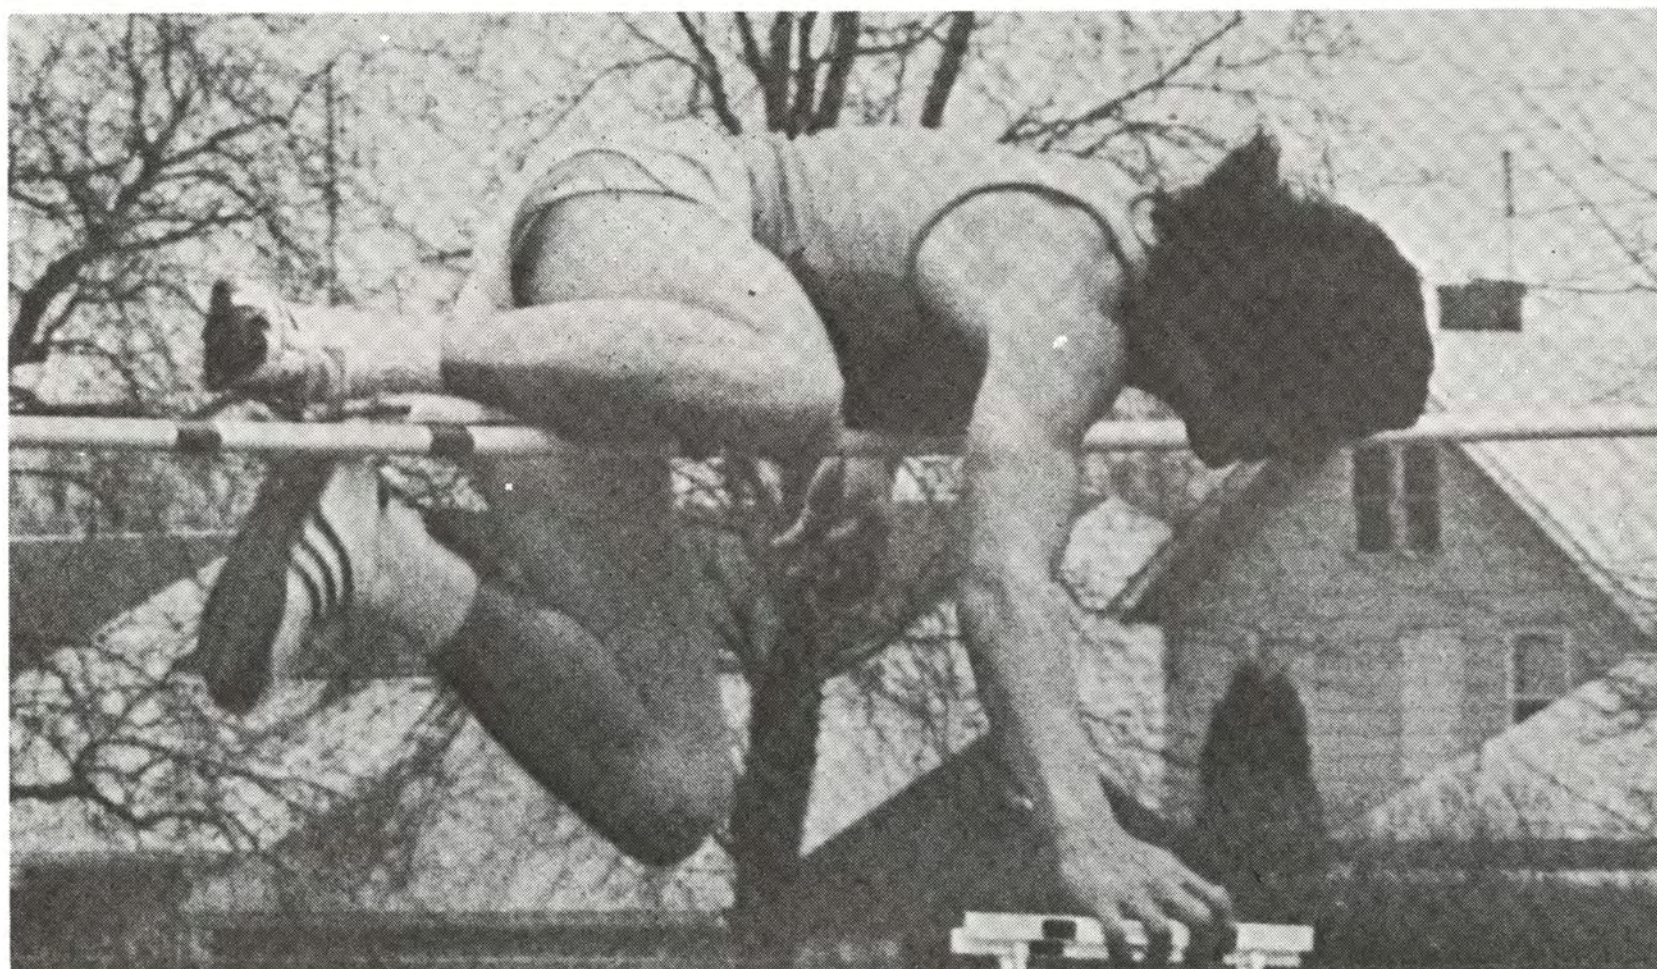

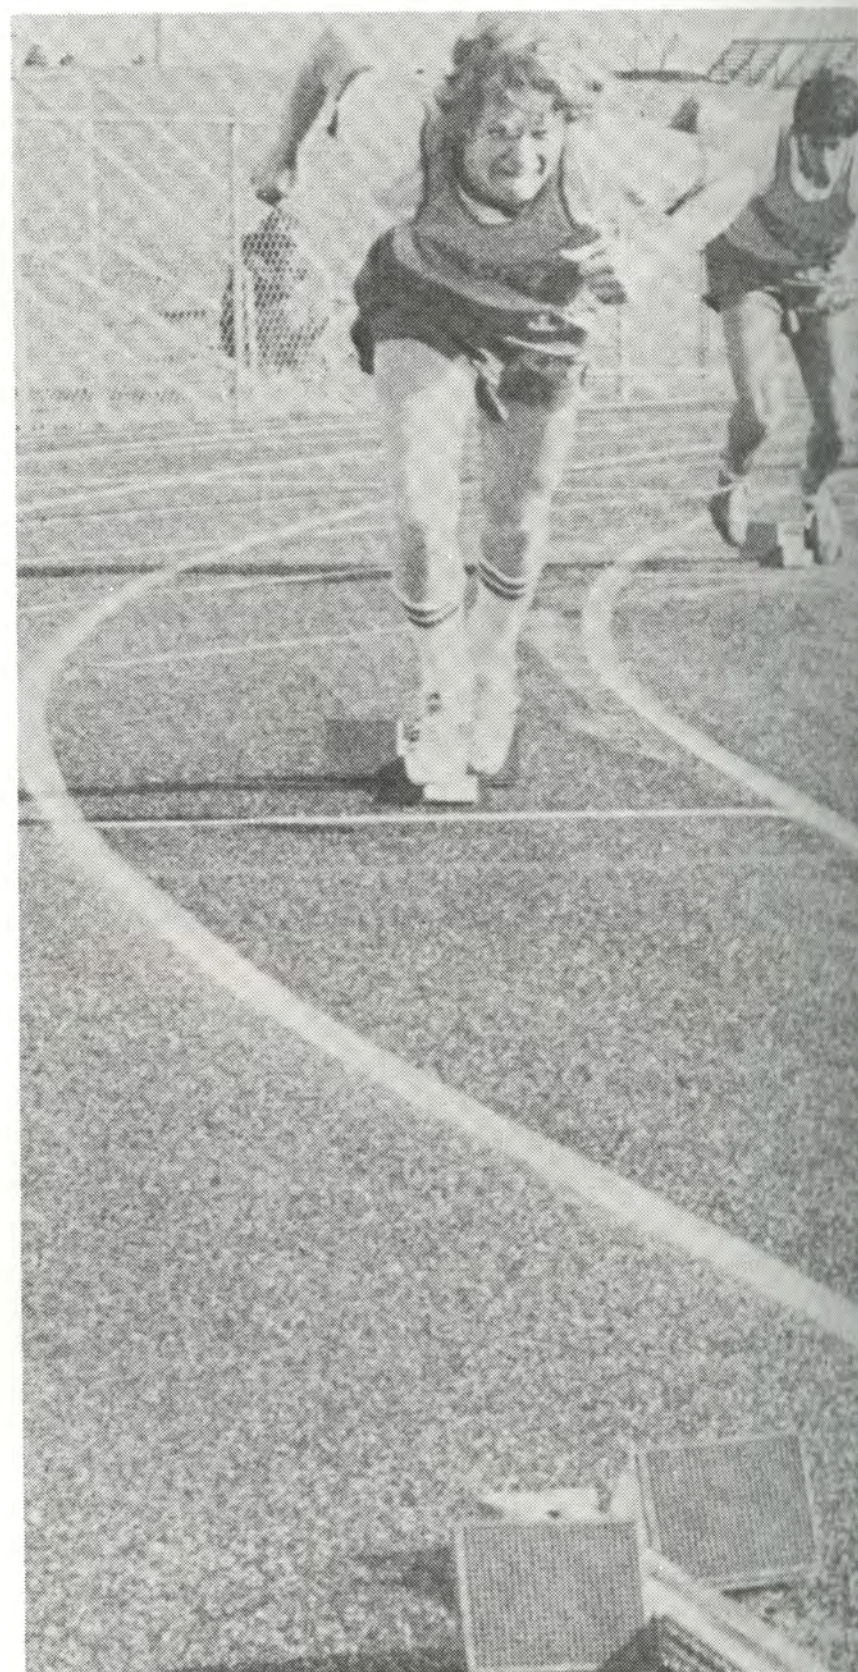

"Super Stretch" Steve Scott gets Normal's runner out at first base. Up at bat, Jim Aaberg keeps his eye on the ol' horsehide while Jeff Miller warms up for his turn at bat. Scott Killough and Coach Chiodo take time out to discuss some new techniques. Sporting a mean backhand, John Friedhoff attempts to outwit and outplay his opponent. Jeff Miller hurls the horsehide toward the infield, in hopes that the Pioneers will get "their" runner out.

Recordbreaking Spring Heads Track to State

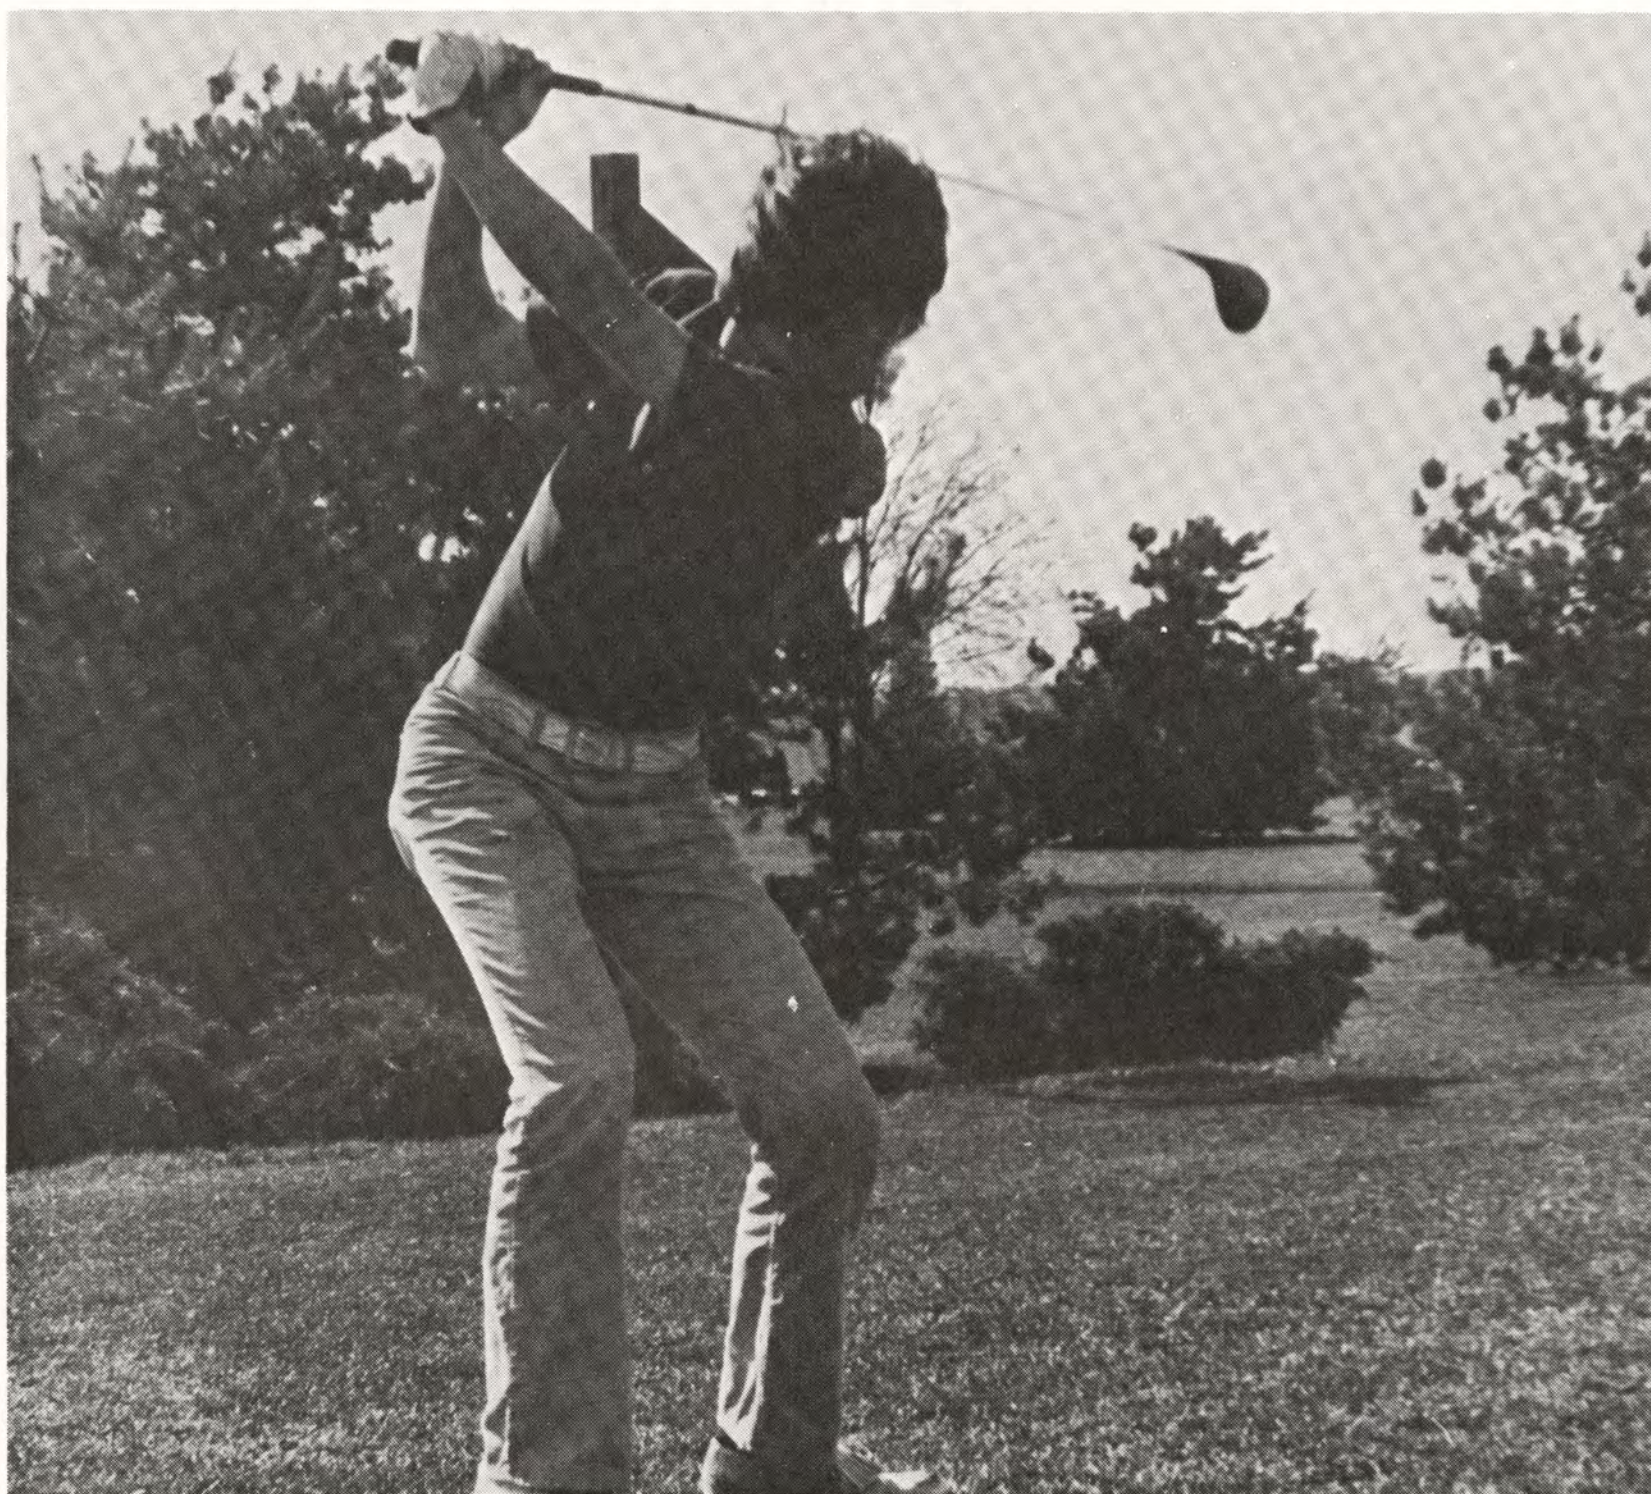

U-High track seemed determined to rewrite the record books. Led By Senior Tom Jump in four different events, the tracksters found themselves off and running in the spring season once the weather cleared. Kevin Carroll battled with Jump for records in the long jump, triple jump, and hurdles, while rookie Jay Allen dominated the high jump. Bob Bell, Dan Elmore, and Tim Bushnell held the distance events and the relays looked good as well. Everyone waited anxiously for May and the end of the year wrap-up, with a feeling that State would be something to watch.

Clockwise starting top: Tim Bushnell finds the last bit of adrenalin as the tape appears in the mile. As golf stories are told and retold, Dan Townley would tell how he "just killed the ball on the front nine." Baton in hand, Rick Pyne finds a good start essential to any relay. Doug Rupp shows that form of head down, arms straight . . . An empty starting block tells the story; Marty Kieswetter and Ric Cordero have their work cut out for them. Mark Chiodo just clears the bar due to that extra effort.

Golfers Snare Intercity

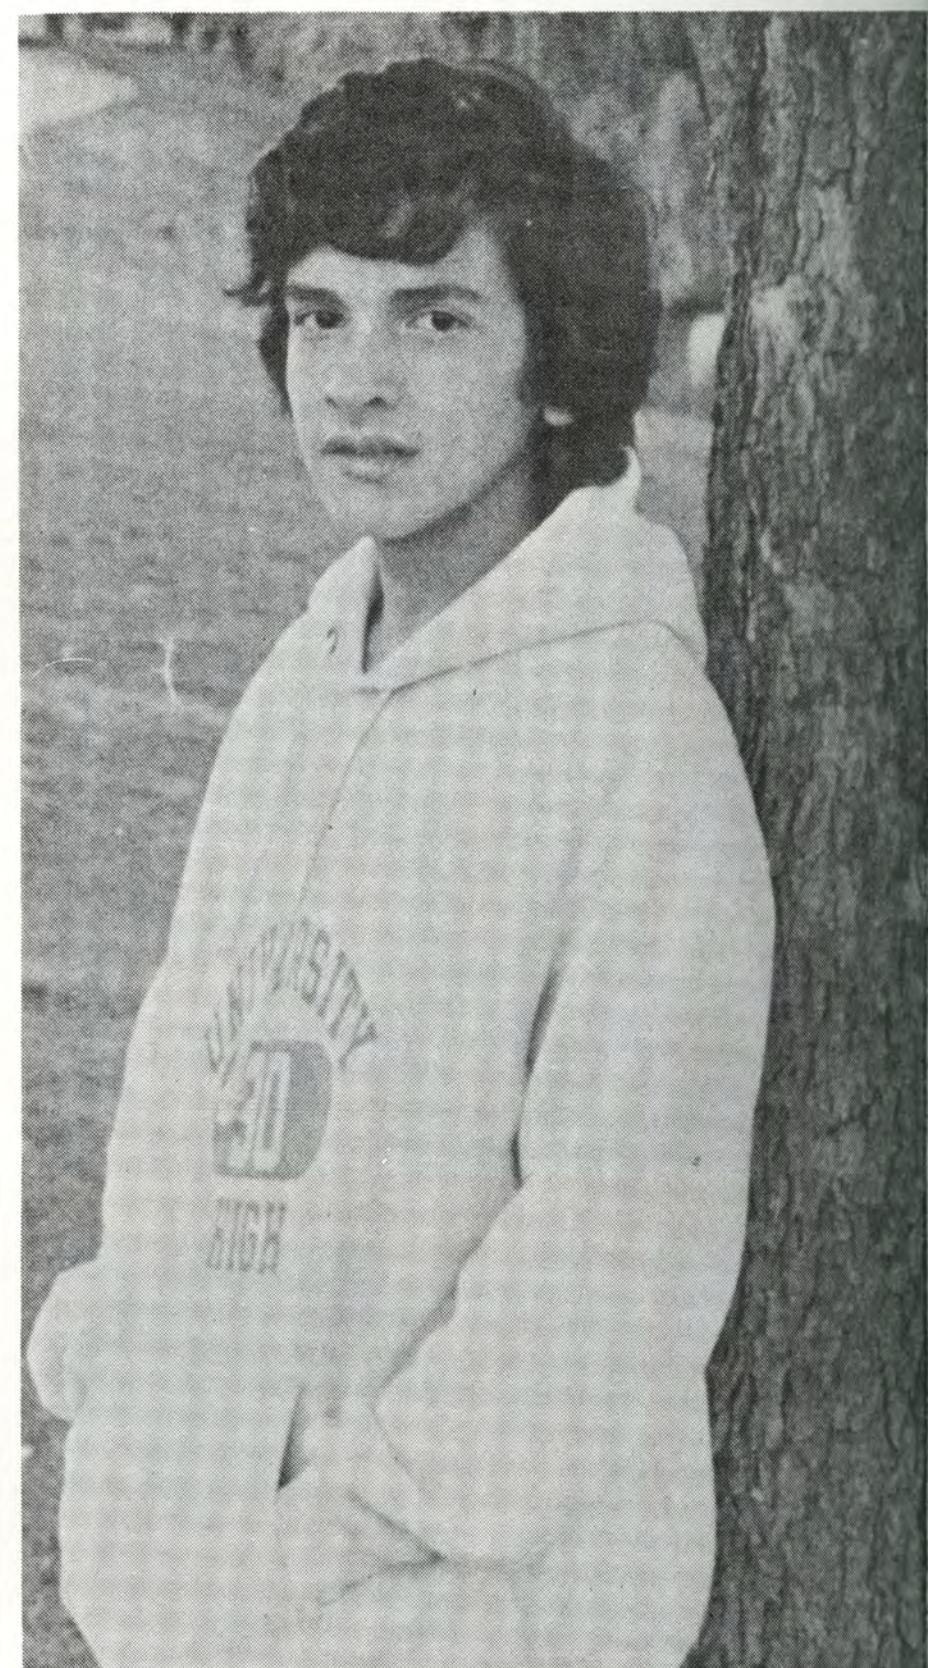

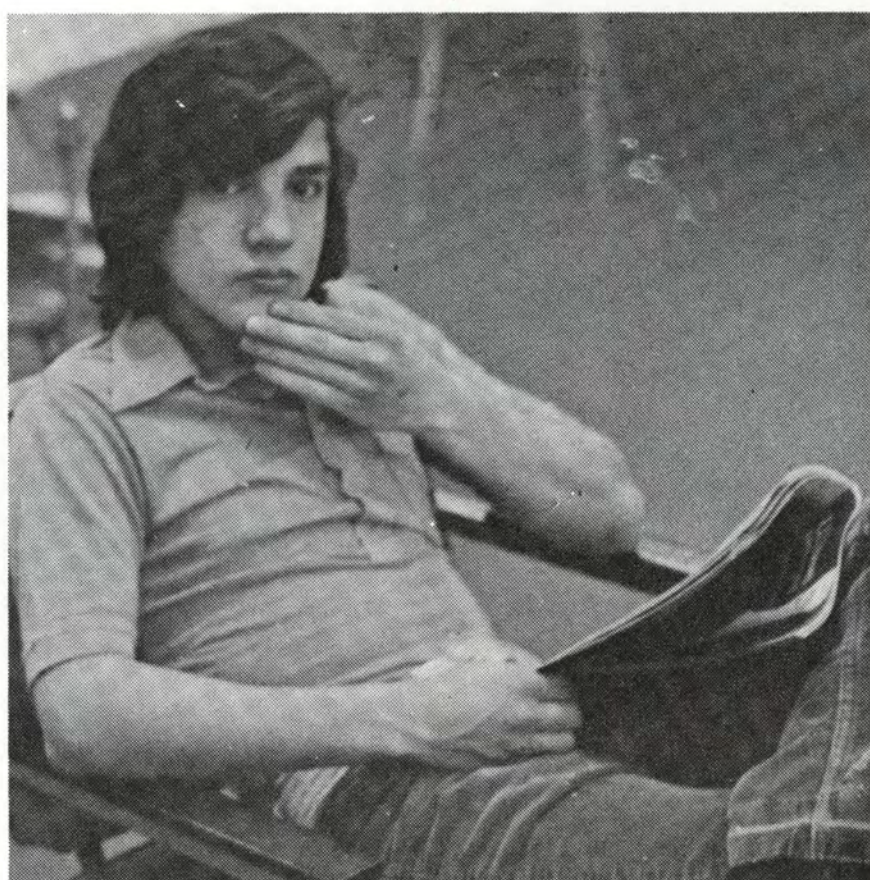

Spring golf was geared for tournament play. Although playing several regular meets (13-5 on the spring schedule), the real action for the linksmen came in the Heart of Illinois Conference Tournament and the Fourth Annual Intercity Tournament. Defending champions of both tournaments, U-High golfers considered these as important as fall State Tournament play.

U-High captured the Intercity trophy for the fourth straight year in a come-from-behind effort in the two day match-up. Pat Venker, 1974-75 MVP, played his usual excellent rounds as medalist at 145 and the Pioneers swamped second place Bloomington by 11 strokes. Normal placed third and Central Catholic fourth.

Unfortunately, the Conference title was taken by Washington. Pioneers had been beaten twice by Washington in seasonal meets, but they were hardly expecting to finish behind Central Catholic as well, tying Pontiac for a disappointing third. Golfers will face a rebuilding year losing seniors Dan Townley, Duane Miller, Scott Henrichs, Rusty Macy, Doug Rupp, and Tom Brown.

Drama, Beautiful People Highlight AFS Experience

Since the people of 202A, asked me to write a letter for the yearbook, I'm trying to find the words to thank you for the wonderful year that you have made possible for me, but those words either don't exist or I can't find them.

This has been a very fruitful year for me, not only because I learned (I believe) another language, but mainly for the people that I have met; very interesting people, weird people, or simply the nice, common people; but no matter what sort of people they were, they were always something different to me, and almost always very nice to me.

Before I came to America, I thought that I knew a lot about this country, by references that my brother (who was an AFSer in 1971) gave me, and by books. During this year I saw that I was wrong, you can learn the geography, history, or economy of one country by books or references, but you can't know its people unless you meet them. Now that my departure is close, I am very thankful for this year that gave me the chance to meet and know such a beautiful people.

The family I stayed with is wonderful. I got along very well with all of them, and they really made me feel at home.

I had my best moments in the school. I was in several activities such as cross country in which I did pretty well, track in which I did terrible, and drama which I really enjoyed. I also belonged to different clubs. All these activities gave me many friends and made me feel part of U-High.

The year is almost over, although I am pretty anxious to see my family and friends at home again, I am sad because I leave you, but I know that I will see all of you again, therefore, let me tell you just "Hasta la vista."

Summer was in the air and end of the year activities were received with enthusiasm. Seniors were especially spirited now that the end was in sight. Prom, Awards Day, Class Night, and Graduation had moments of nostalgia, but the smiles were always just below the surface. Underclassmen were just relieved to have another year behind them.

Pie-Eating Contest Cream of the Crop

Student Senate held its annual fund drive during the last of April and first of May. The drive netted over 210 dollars which would go to the Crippled Children's Camp of McLean County. The week was filled with various activities with the pie-eating contest and the movie "American Graffiti" highlighting the week.

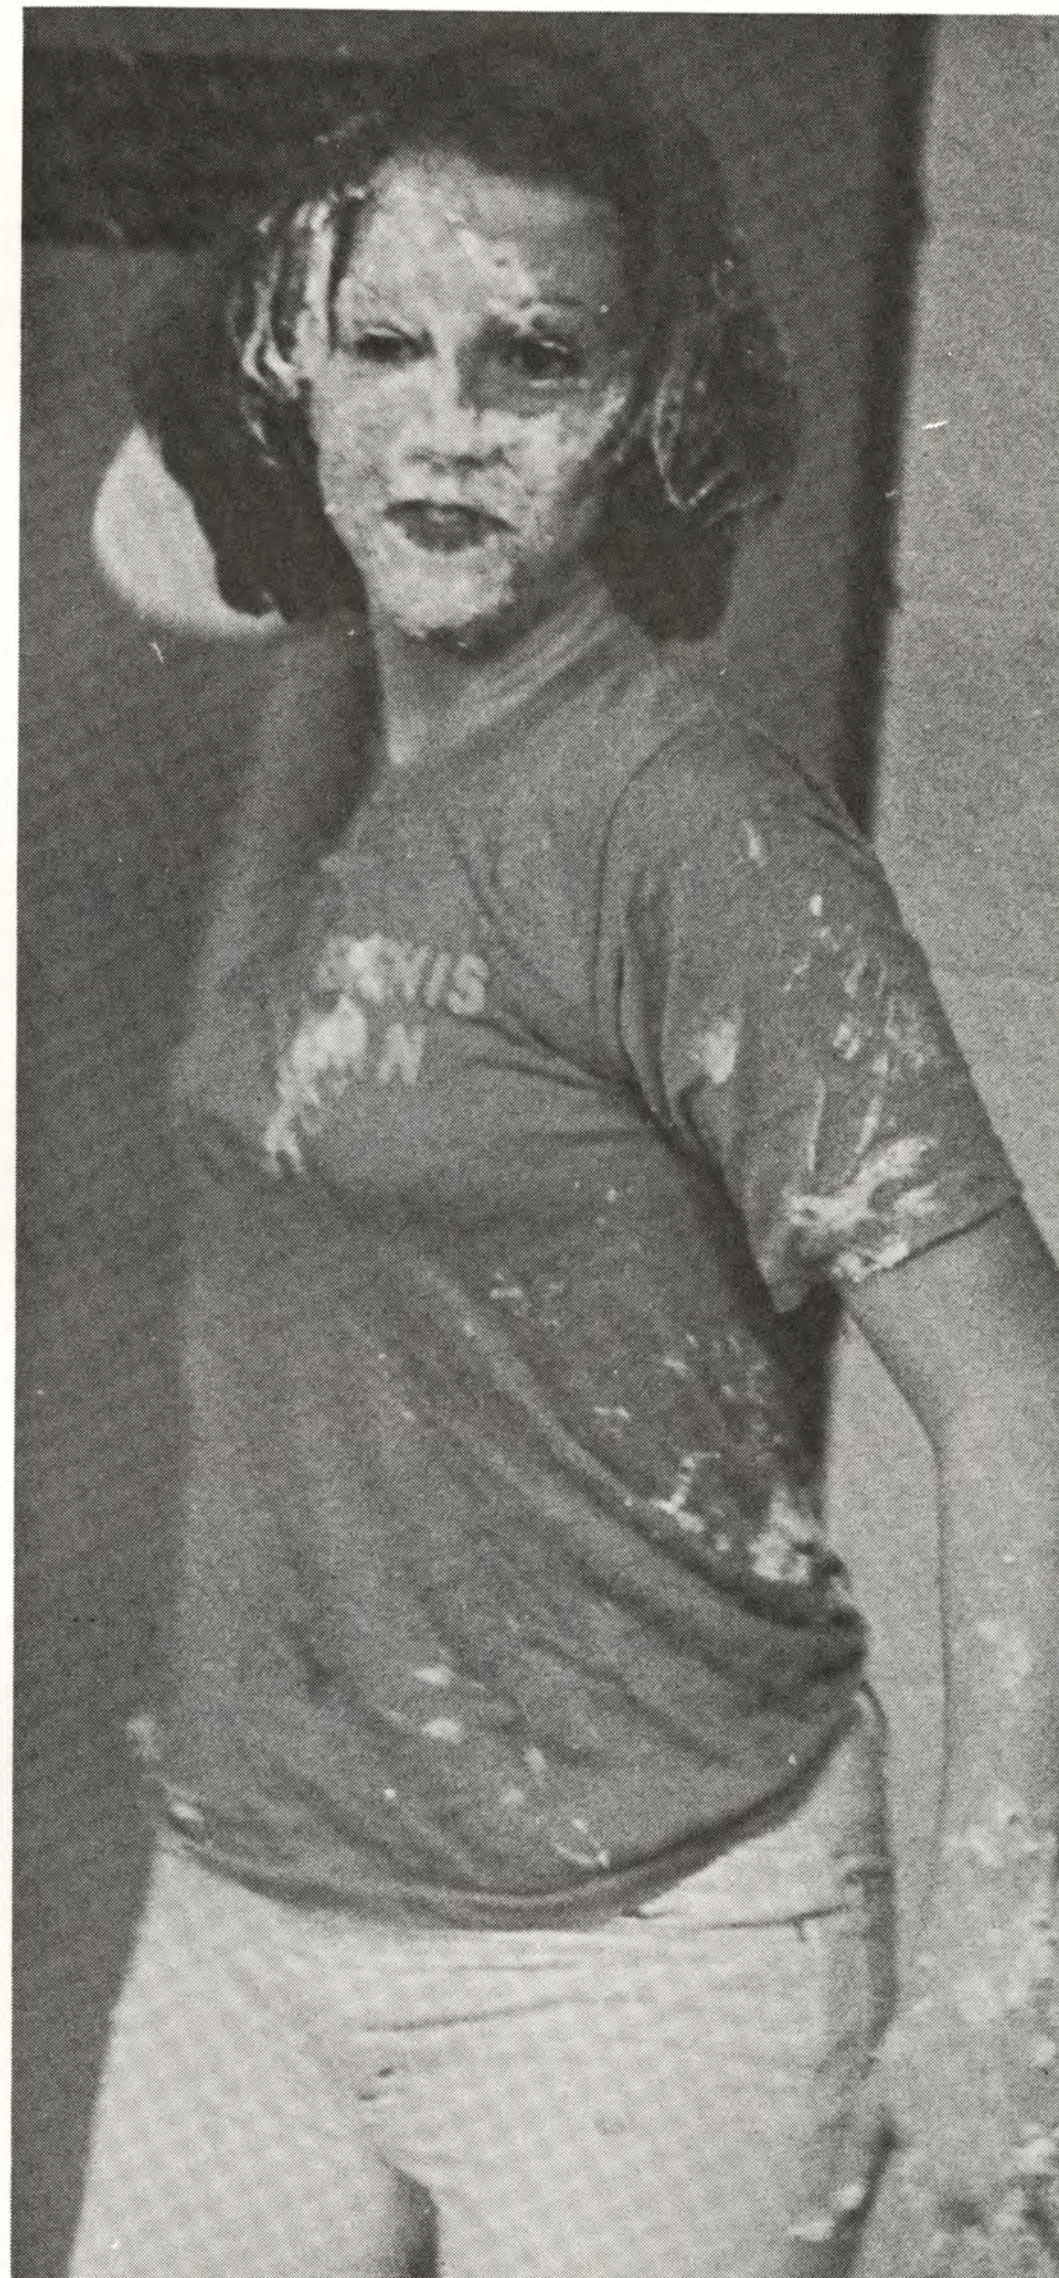

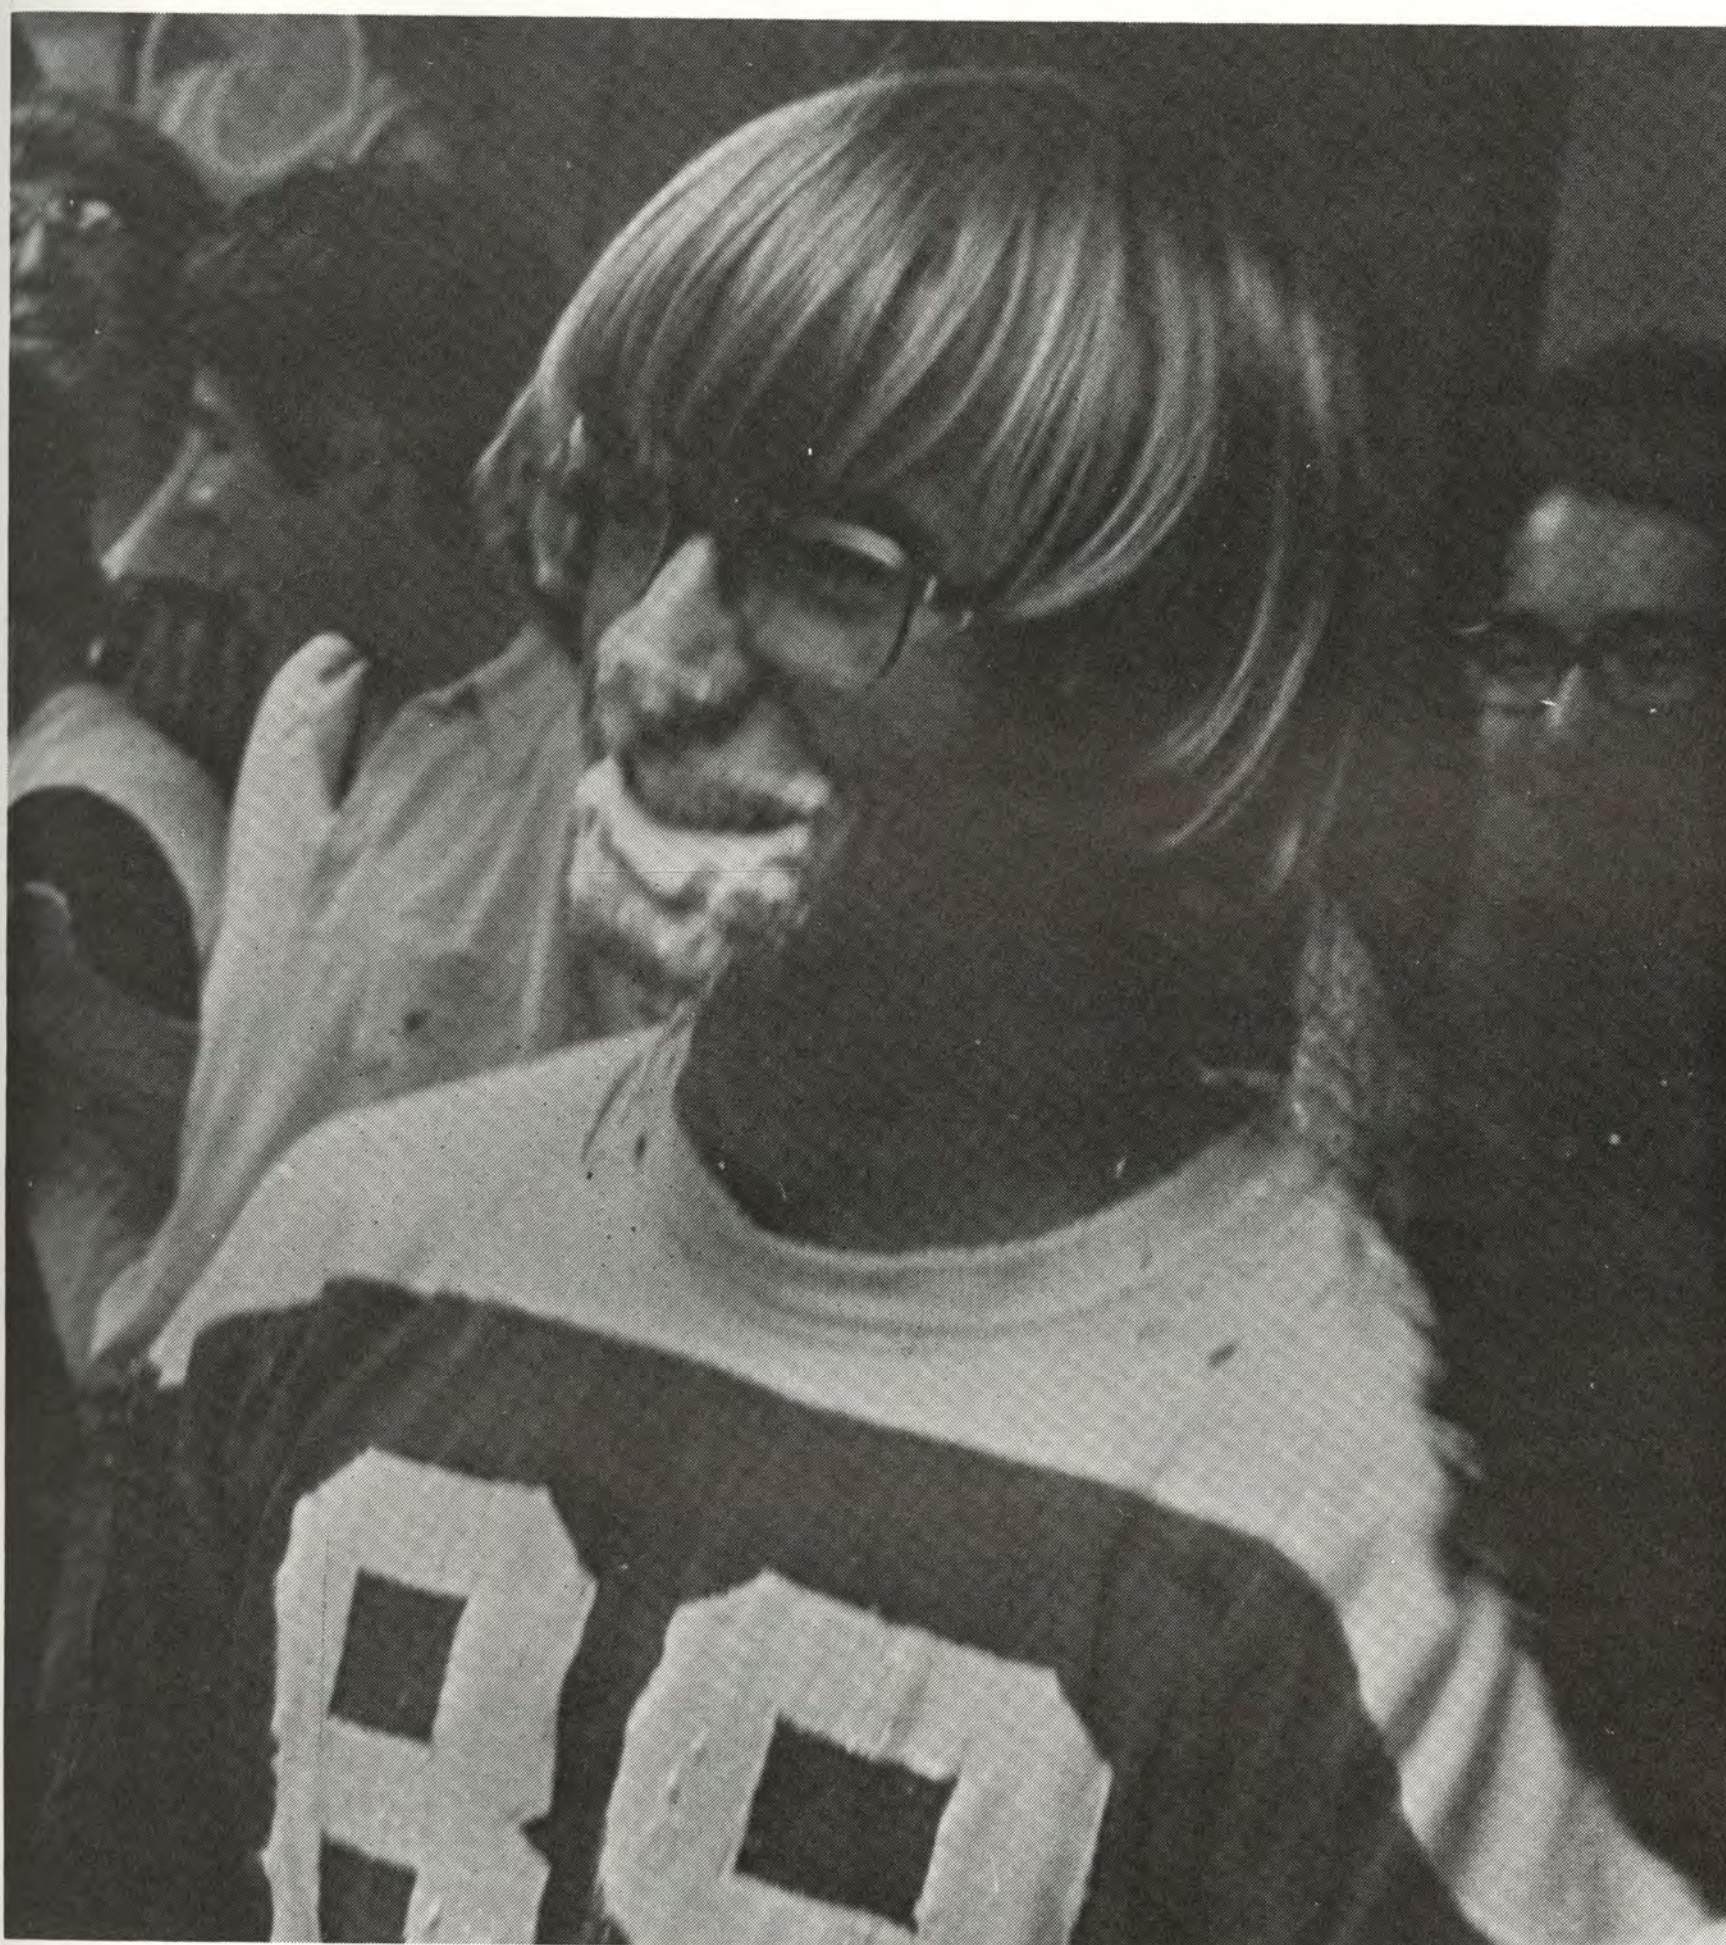

Dave Bullard, Scott Killough, Harry Brubeck, Rusty Macy, Quentin Litherland, Todd Campbell, Debbie Weldon, Christi Hobbs, Steve Ulbrich, George Spector, Rod Armstrong, Kirk Sieg, Joel Reeve, Kim Eversizer, Rick Smith, Kim Stewart, Cinda Forbes, Rusty Scott, Judy Dohrmann, Scott Henrichs, Steve Doran, Rich Pocs, Rick Pyne, Bob Bell, Laura Sloneker, Marjorie Whalen, Jenny

Spring Roundup

Seniors Lead the Way

U-High's varsity baseball team finished its season with a 15-9 mark and were 11-3 in the Conference. Leading the way for the diamond men were Senior pitchers and co-captains Ron Hibbens and Roger Scott. Ron Hibbens had an outstanding year with a 6-2 record for the Pioneers. Roger Scott lead U-High hitters with a .377 batting avg. Other members of the team that did well were Senior 2nd baseman Doug Wellenreiter, shortstop Harry Brubeck, center fielder Steve Doran, and 3rd base Dave Schramm. Juniors who finished the season on a short note were catcher Brian McAdam, 1st baseman Steve Scott, left fielder Matt Aubertine, pitcher Gene Brown, and Jeff Sieg. Also with a good season was sophomore right fielder Tim Eaton.

The Varsity batsmen finished the year with a 15-9 record and a 11-3 record in the Heart of Illinois Conference.

Gene Brown gives it all he's got.

Jim Aaberg hurls the ball during warm-up.

Frosh Strike Out

This past season was not a good one for the Frosh-Soph baseball team, winning only one game in thirteen starts. Although the Pioneers played well many times, the breaks did not go their way.

Some individuals did stand out in this disappointing season. Freshman Rod Armstrong sparkled with a .388 batting average and Willie Gaddy batted .366. Kirk Sieg recorded the only homerun.

Netters Score at District

At District tennis meet the singles team was played by John Friedhoff and Dave Morris. Each scored a point for the team by winning first round, but losing the second round. The doubles team of Steve Ulbrich and Scott Switchenburg also won first round, scoring two points. They also lost in the second round. The doubles team of Scott Killough and Ken Tchong lost first round, scoring no points. Then with 4 points the U-High tennis team gained the most points at District in 3 years.

Dave Morris surprised everyone by going from # 7 man on last year's team to # 3 on this year's team. Ken Tchong also moved up considerably. Last year, having no position he worked his way up to # 5 man. The position of the team were: 1. Friedhoff; 2. Switchenberg; 3. Morris; 4. Ulbrich; 5. Tchong; 6. Killough; 7. McElroy.

Small, but steady Freshman, Greg McElroy looks very promising as a future U-High varsity tennis player.

Jump Overcomes Obstacles

May found the varsity track team in a mass of tournaments. U-High won the Eastern Division championship of the Heart of Illinois Conference. The Pioneers continued their domination of the title. Jump turned in record breaking performances, and Jay Allen set a season record of 6'2" in the high jump.

At the NCHS Track Honor Roll meet Tom Jump set a new record in the high hurdles with a time of :14.5 seconds. Jump also won the long jump with a leap of 22 feet 1 inch. Dan Elmore recorded a time of 1:59.5 in the half-mile. The Pioneer relay team lost 1st place by a tenth of a second.

At the District track meet, at Farmer City, U-High dominated all the events in which it had entered and easily took first place at the meet.

As expected Tim Jump made his way to the state title in the high hurdles with the winning time of :14.28. Jay Allen qualified for finals clearing 6 feet, but did not place. Those who qualified for state were, in the 440 yd. dash, Ric Cordero, and Bill Eddy; in the 880 yd. run, Dan Elmore; the 120 yd. high hurdles Kevin Carroll and Jump; in the pole vault Rick Legner; the 440 yd. relay Cordero, Eddy, Elmore, and Robin Roberts; the mile relay with Elmore, Cordero, Eddy, and Bob Bell. Setting school records were the 440 relay team and the 880 relay team.

Surprise! Surprise!

A pleasant surprise for coaches Horn and Girardi was the Frosh-Soph track team. The squad finished the season with a 4-1 record, and proved their talent by winning the U-High Frosh-Soph Invitational.

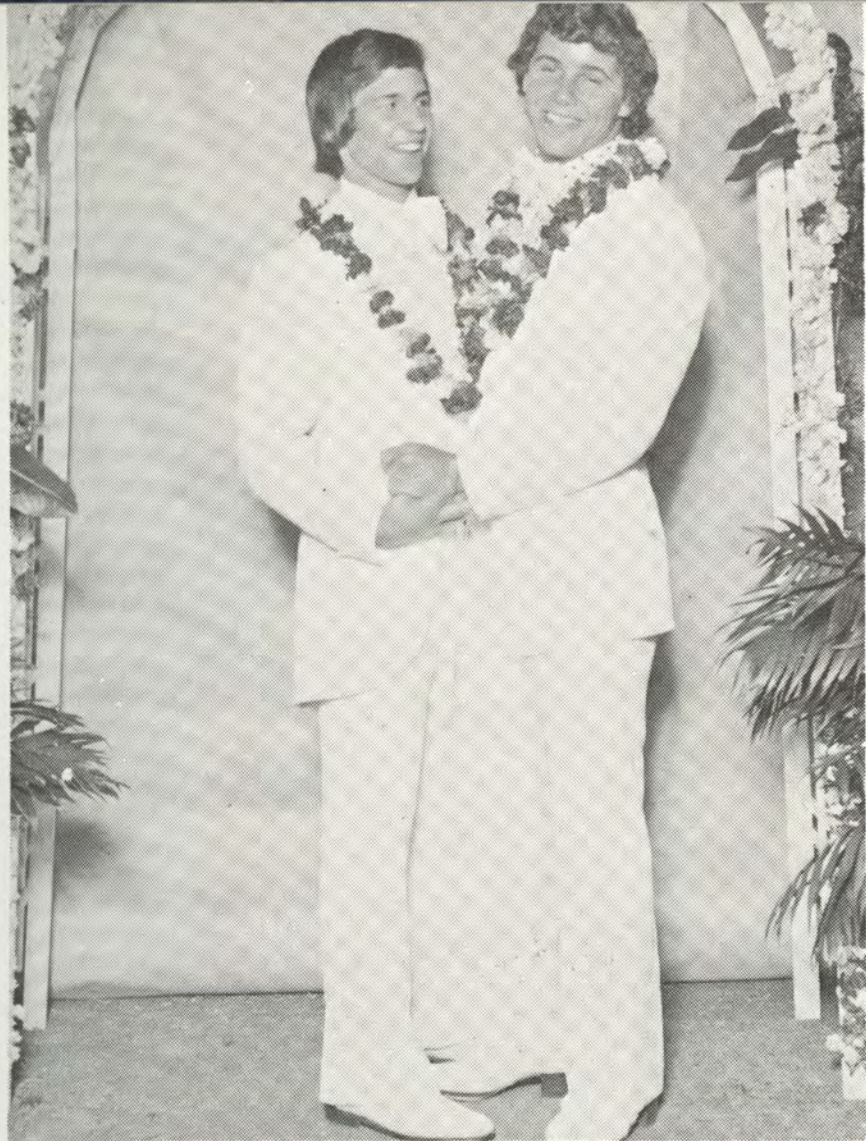

Strong individual efforts highlighted the season. The 440 relay team (Talkington, Heidloff, Ryan, and Albert) broke the school record with a 47.6 time. The hurdling corps, led by Mike Talkington, did well all season. Talkington won the Conference championship in the high hurdles. Varsity letterman Dale Heidloff led the sprinters and Freshmen high jumpers. Comparing times with previous Frosh-Soph teams, it seems that this year's squad should turn into a strong varsity team.

Clockwise, opposite page: Diversity was the key to prom, but let's not carry it to extremes. The Seniors really enjoyed their night of honor and even requested an extra dance or two from the band. Jeff Sieg receives his lei from one of the sophomore attendants, Cindy Blunk. Other sophomores helping with prom were Leslie Lundy, Pat Venker, and Jim Weygandt. Is this dance style an imported product as well? Clockwise, starting below left: Junior "MC'S", Mike Beer and Lori Bass, seek out the Bali H'ai's royal couple. The court dance was led by King Casey Lartz and Queen Joy Wainscott. The '75 prom court, which seemed vaguely familiar, included (from l.) Mark Chiodo, Tom Brown, (Jr. class president, Mike Beer), Kathy Frye, Ellen Gilmore, Jane Newbold, Queen Joy Wainscott, King Casey Lartz, Chris Girardi, Laurel Foreman, (Jr. class secretary, Lori Bass), Tom Jump, Steve Doran, and Ric Cordero. Mac's Creek proved a popular band as the floor was crowded for every dance.

Bali H'ai. . . Your Own Special Island

Bali H'ai itself could offer no more pleasures than U-High's own Night at the Bali H'ai. The theme allowed a break with the usual tuxes and nosegays as Juniors specially ordered orchid leis and the dance was sprinkled with Hawaiian prints and a variety of hats and halters. It was truly a prom of individuals. Other pleasant changes included a Junior-Senior brunch which was held at the Union later in the month. After Prom was at Four Seasons and included swimming, skating, and a very popular casino.

Don't Drink. . .Still Refreshing

With a Woody Allen script, it's hard to go wrong, and the spring play, DON'T DRINK THE WATER, was right on course. There were a few comments about a less professional atmosphere due to a relatively young, inexperienced cast, yet the play was a crowd-pleaser for its three night run in mid-May. Todd Campbell and Connie Hutchinson played the leads of a confusing yet compatible couple, the Hollanders, caught behind the iron curtain. Debbie Davis and Alan Gill played the young lovers brought together by this unusual turn of events. Other characters found their way on stage as the play worked its way through a week at the U.S. embassy.

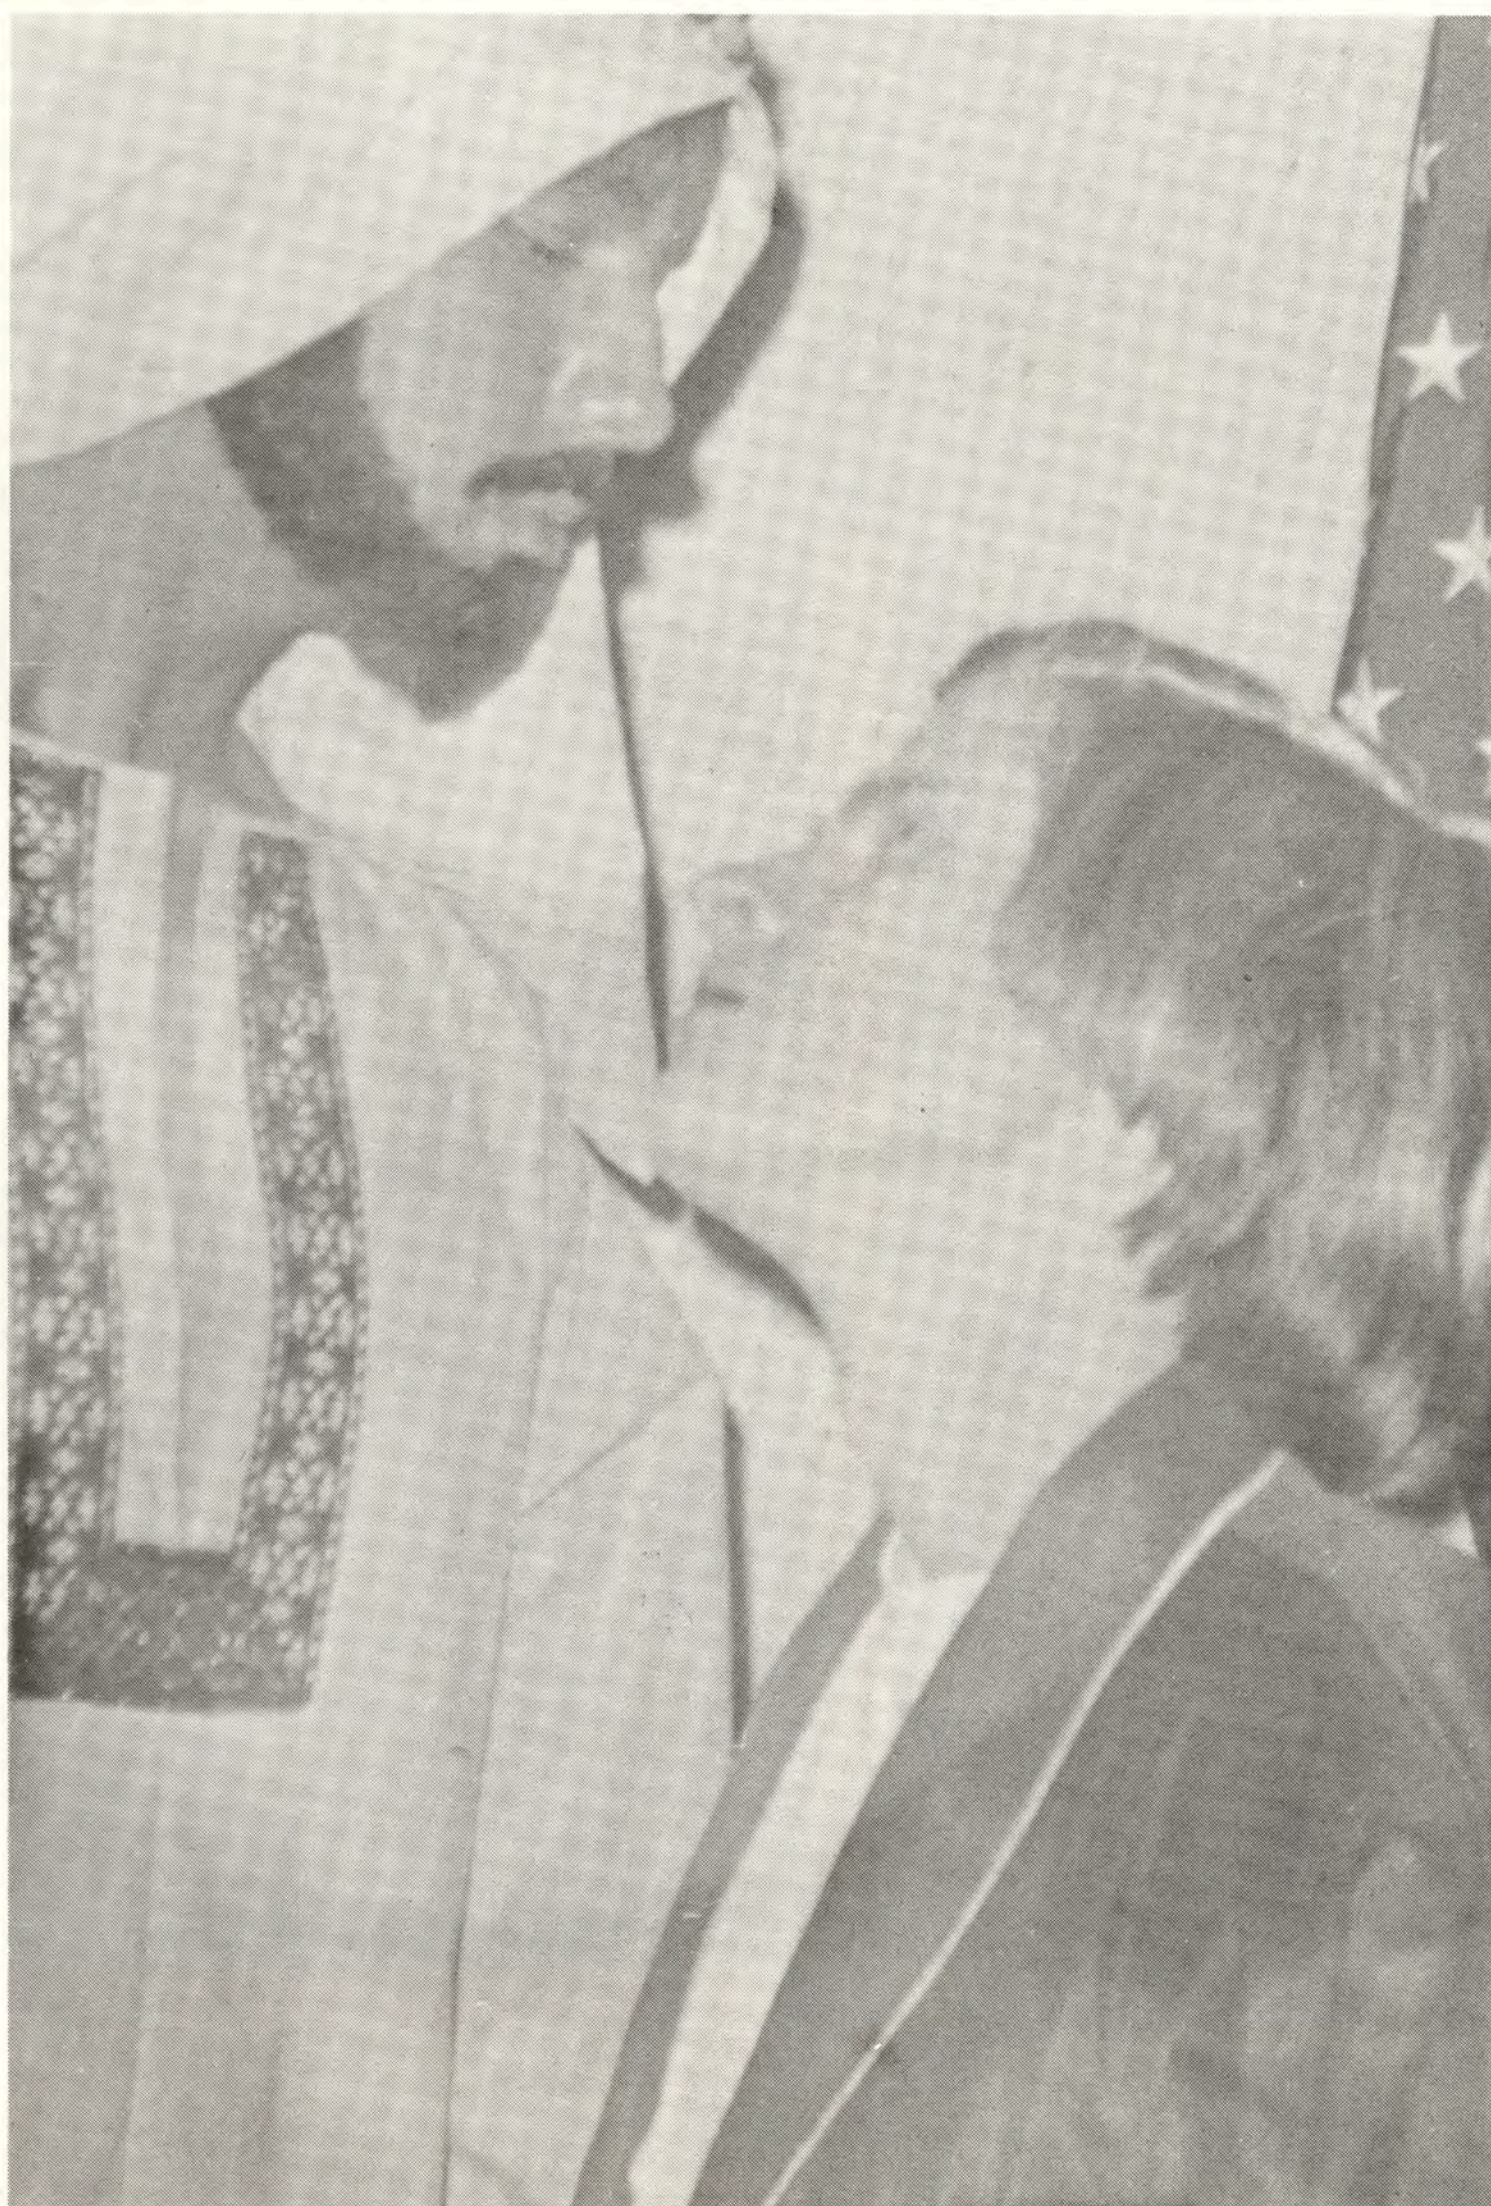

Key scenes included a conflict between the Cook (Greg Riss), Walter (Todd Campbell), and the priest's "magic" rabbit, soon to be Walter's dinner; Father Drobny (Curt Coffey) and Marion (Connie Hutchinson) struggling in the laundry basket to free him of a straight jacket; and a patriotic show-down between the Sultan of Bashir (Tim Emmons) and Walter which turned into international incident.

With the final performance, speech and drama closed out the season, and after break down of the set, started a well-deserved rest.

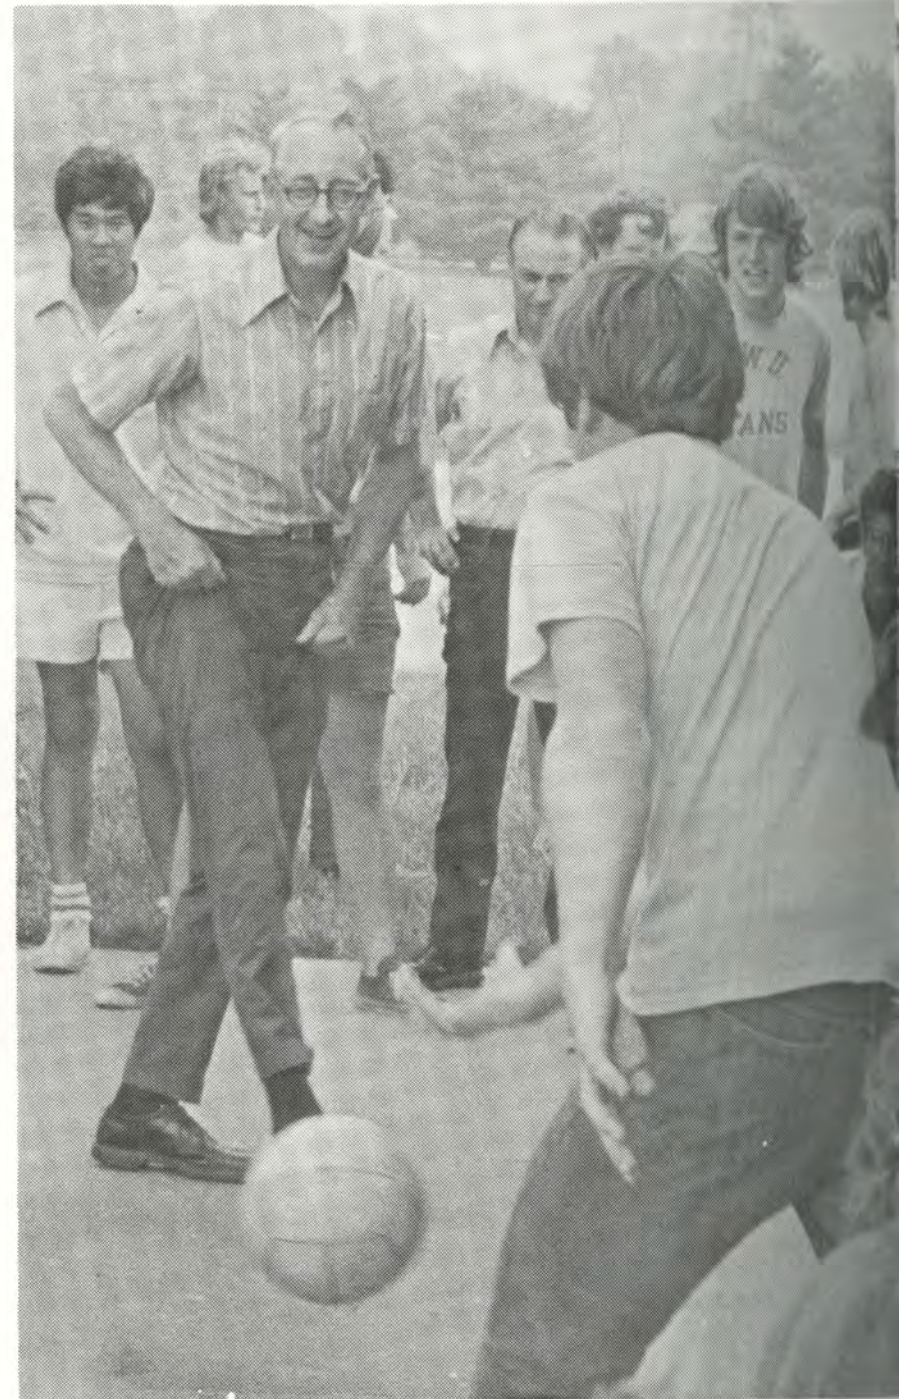

Clockwise starting far right: Connie Hutchinson and Curt Coffey find themselves in a real tangle over a straight jacket. Greg Riss, as the embassy cook, refuses to continue with "those people in my kitchen!" My name is John . . . Sam . . . Walter . . . Charles . . . God bless whom? It's a bomb! Todd Campbell, Alan Gill, and Connie Hutchinson give dress rehearsal the finishing touches. Excuse me, would you pick a card? Maybe the King of Hearts? Kilroy (Judy Paxton) faces the wrath of Krojack (Chris Cashen) as Axel (Alan Gill) temporarily relinquishes power. Oh brother, Walter, sometimes!

Seniors Have Fun in the Sun

On May 20th the Senior class held its annual Skip Day. Because the class treasury was so full (ha! ha!) each Senior who went paid $3.00. Their destination was Lake of the Woods in exciting Mahomet. An early bus left at 7 a.m. for golfers and the other at 9 a.m. Once at the park the Seniors were set free, that is until 3:45 p.m. when it was time to get back on the bus. Activities included softball, sunning, playing in the woods, boating, switching boats in the lake, illegal swimming, playing Frisbee, shaking the "do not shake" bridge, and dunking Mr. Norris and Miss Walker in the lake. The end of the day found some 90 hot, tired, and sunburned Seniors not ready to face another day of classes the next day.

Clockwise starting below: Miss Walker was not forgotten from Senior class traditions. What new game are the coaches teaching Ron Hibbens, Mike Donovan, and Rich Smith? Laurel Foreman and Tom Brown relax and take it easy while boating. Mike Frinsko really gets into the game of 4-square. Miss Scott and Miss Walker like to pretend that they are still Seniors. Doc Fuehrer gets ready to meet the challenge. Ric Cordero and Kathy Frye check to see who's behind them before they get rammed.

Class Night Spoof Goofs

Clockwise starting below: The Senior class skit comes to a close on a serious note. The Freshmen class dance proved to be highly successful and enjoyable. Seniors raise the pyramid to the wishes of Metty and the displeasures of Dr. No. Jane Newbold and Steve Ulbrich, receive the award for best love song. Bob Bell and Julia Reitan read one of the many wills that "mysteriously" reappeared. John Newbold receives the Lamp of Knowledge from outgoing Senior class president Casey Lartz.

Capen Auditorium was the setting for Class Night '75. After remarks by Casey Lartz and Dr. Lynn, the Class of 1975 presented traditional gifts to the school, to class sponsors Dr. Fuehrer and Miss Walker, and to AFS student German Brailard.

The class wills amused some, antagonized others, and surprised Dr. Lynn who had removed many of them, only to hear them "strangely" reappear. The class skit was a take-off on the Academy Awards featuring U-High regulars in starring roles. The spirit backstage was not only psychological and emotional, it was also liquid. The spirit was partly responsible for some of the pies ending up on the curtains, and charges placed against U-High for damage done. The actions left the future of Class Night up in the air. Class Night ended on a serious note with the Seniors singing "We May Never Pass This Way Again" and the moving up of classes to the U-High Alma Mater, during which the incoming Freshmen were warmly welcomed. Following this was a very successful dance sponsored by the outgoing Freshmen, which was held outside U-High.

Commencement is Only Our Beginning

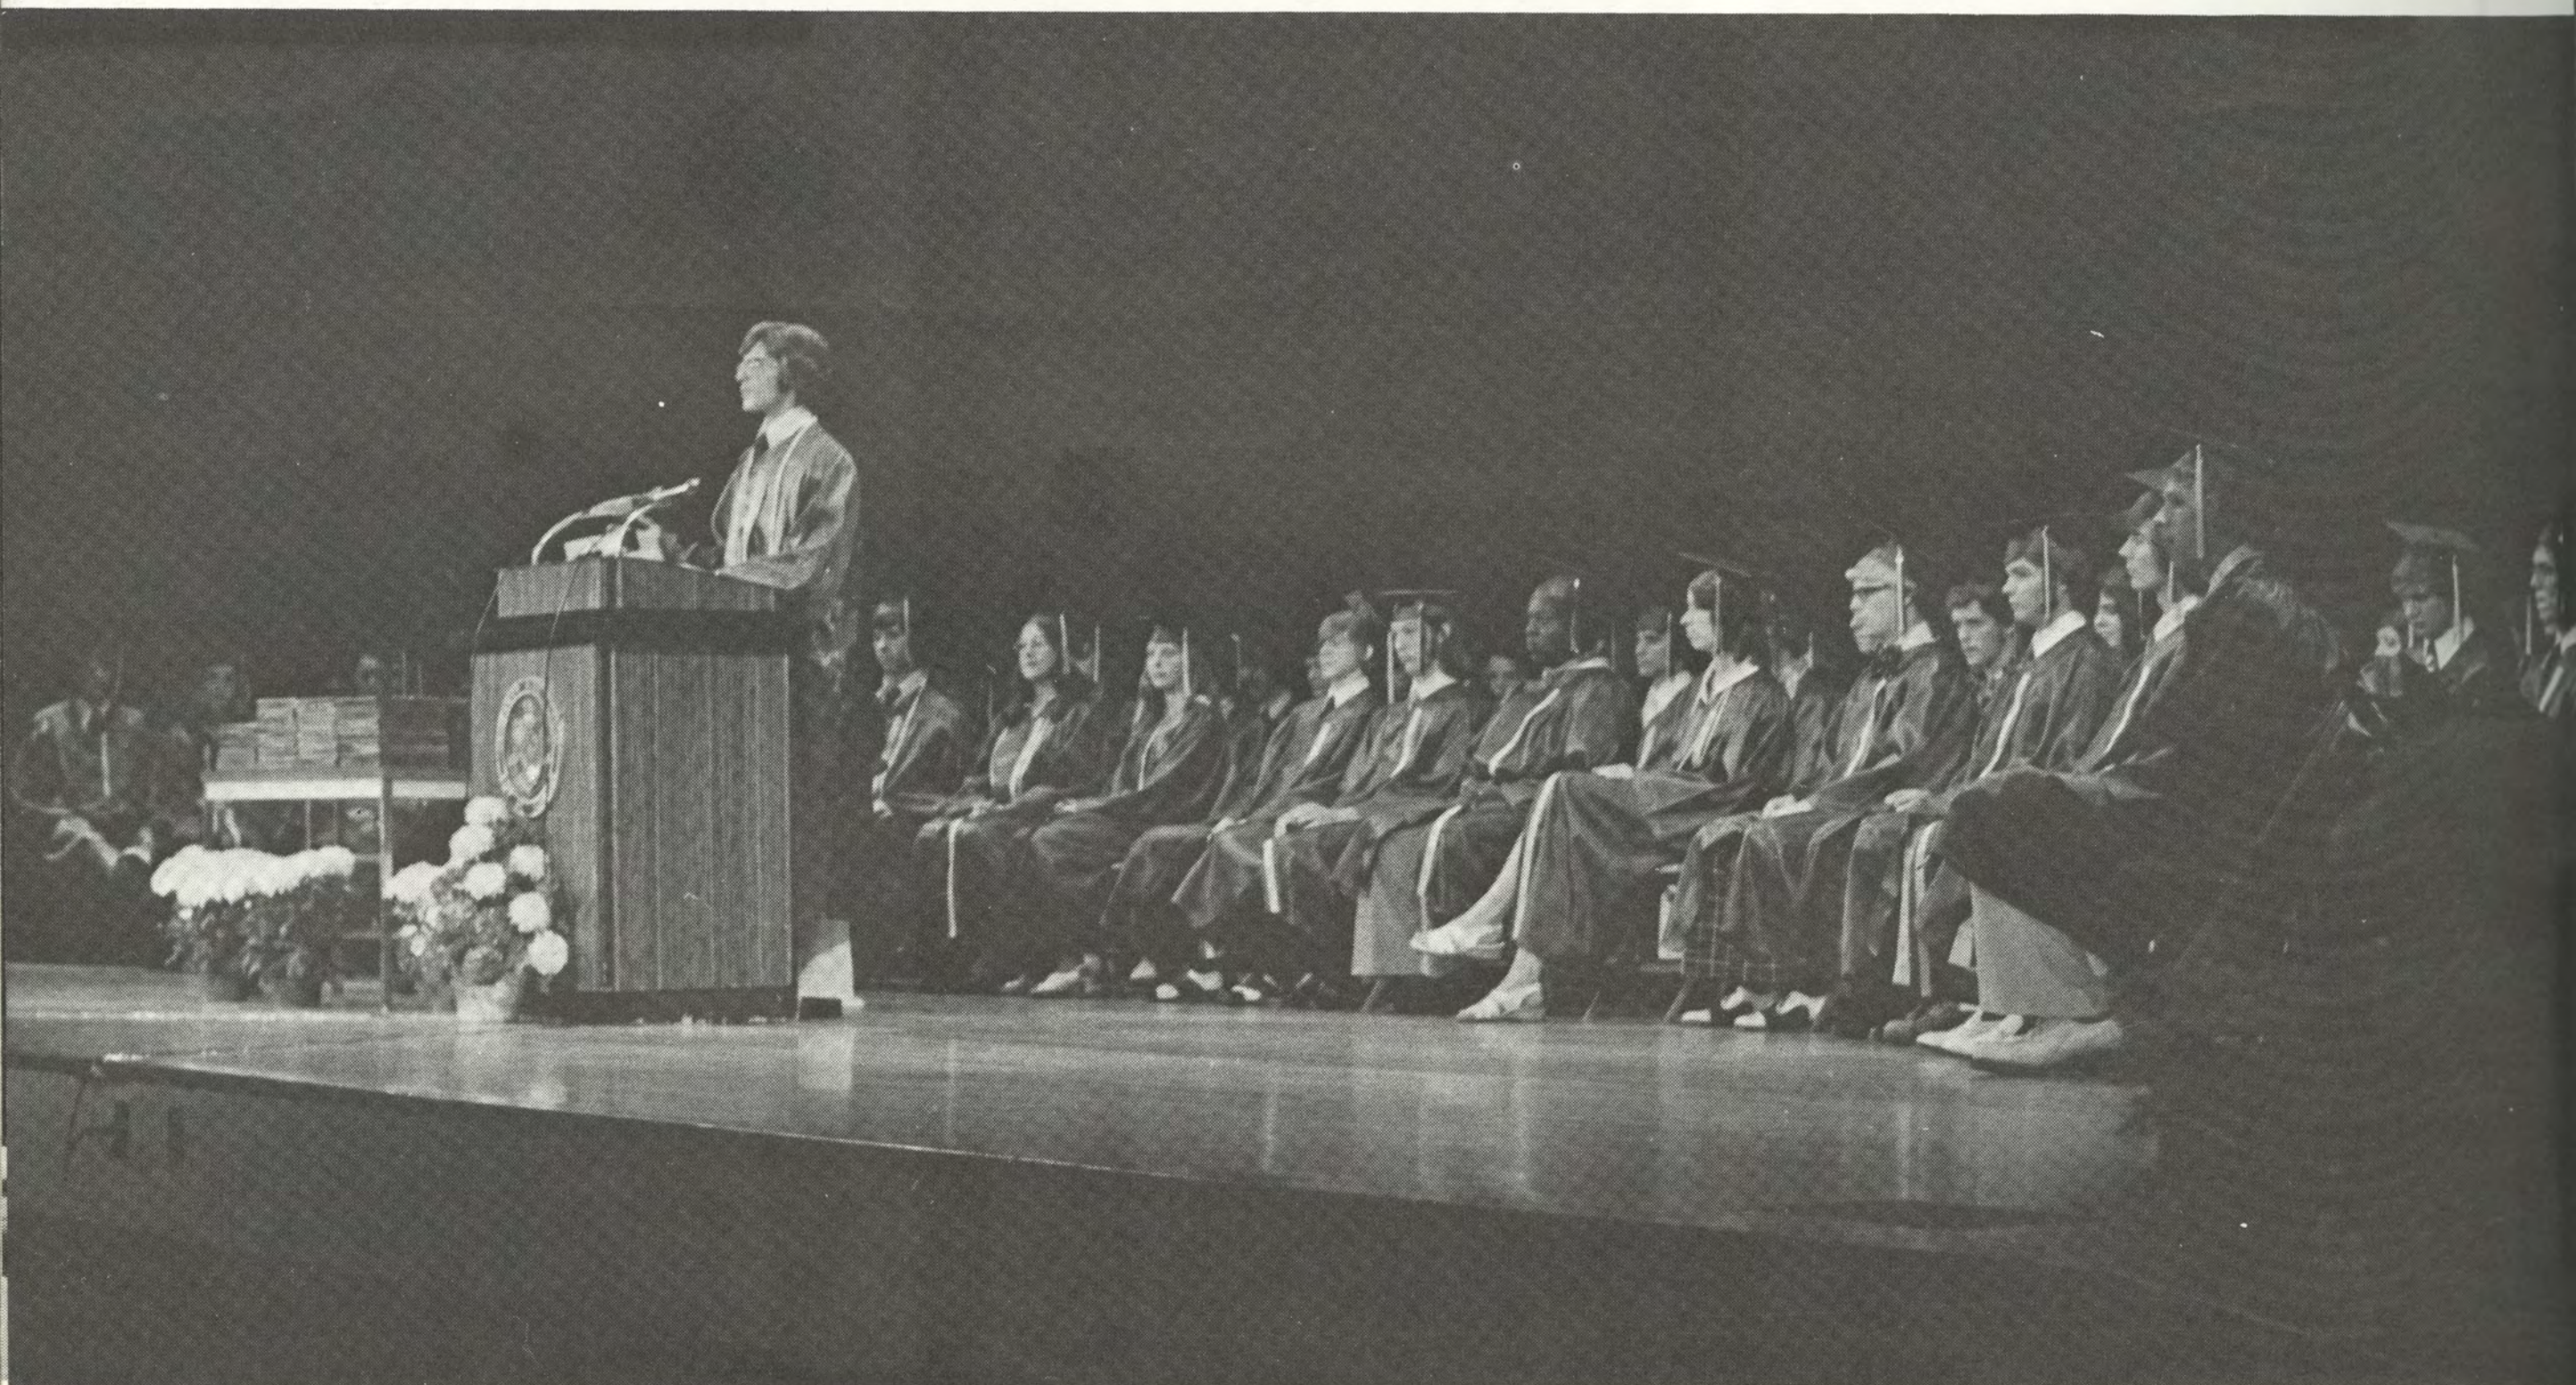

The class of '75 held commencement on May 27. Instead of an outside speaker, the class chose members of the graduating class to speak. Valedictorian Casey Lartz, Salutatorian Dan Townley, Julie Reitan, Sharon Kohn, and Bob Bell received the honor. They spoke on a continuing theme of "Graduation: a Stopping Point."

The Senior Singers sang "Fill the World With Love."

The class was honored with a reception in the lounge following the ceremonies.

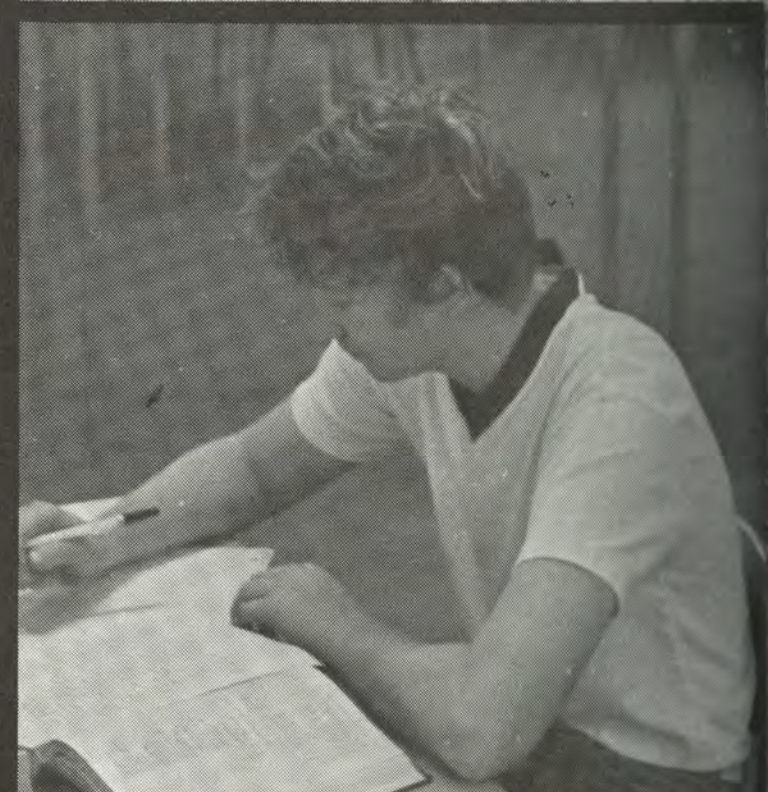

Clockwise starting right: Jim Mincey receives his diploma from Mr. Norris. Mr. Schuler congratulates Rob Hill. Tom Brown and Kevin Carroll - together from Kindergarten to Graduation. Julie Frank: last official time at U-High. Senior girls (Laura Clark, Kim Eversizer, Diane Anderson, Martha Shelly, and Celia Hicklin) say "We finally made it." The class of '75.

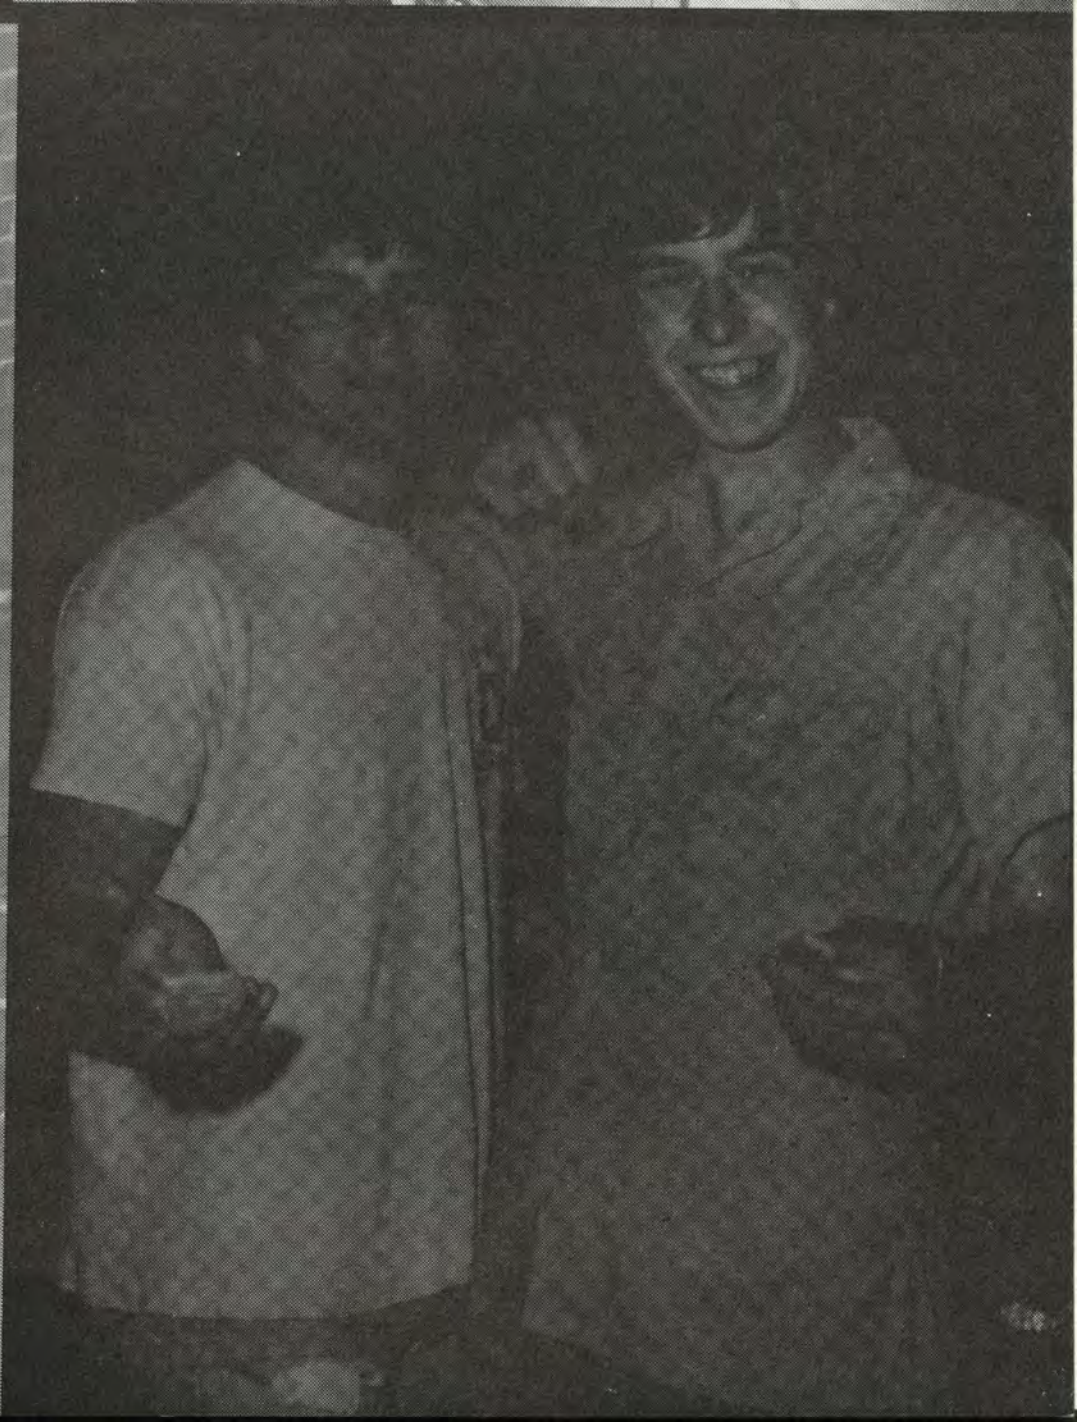

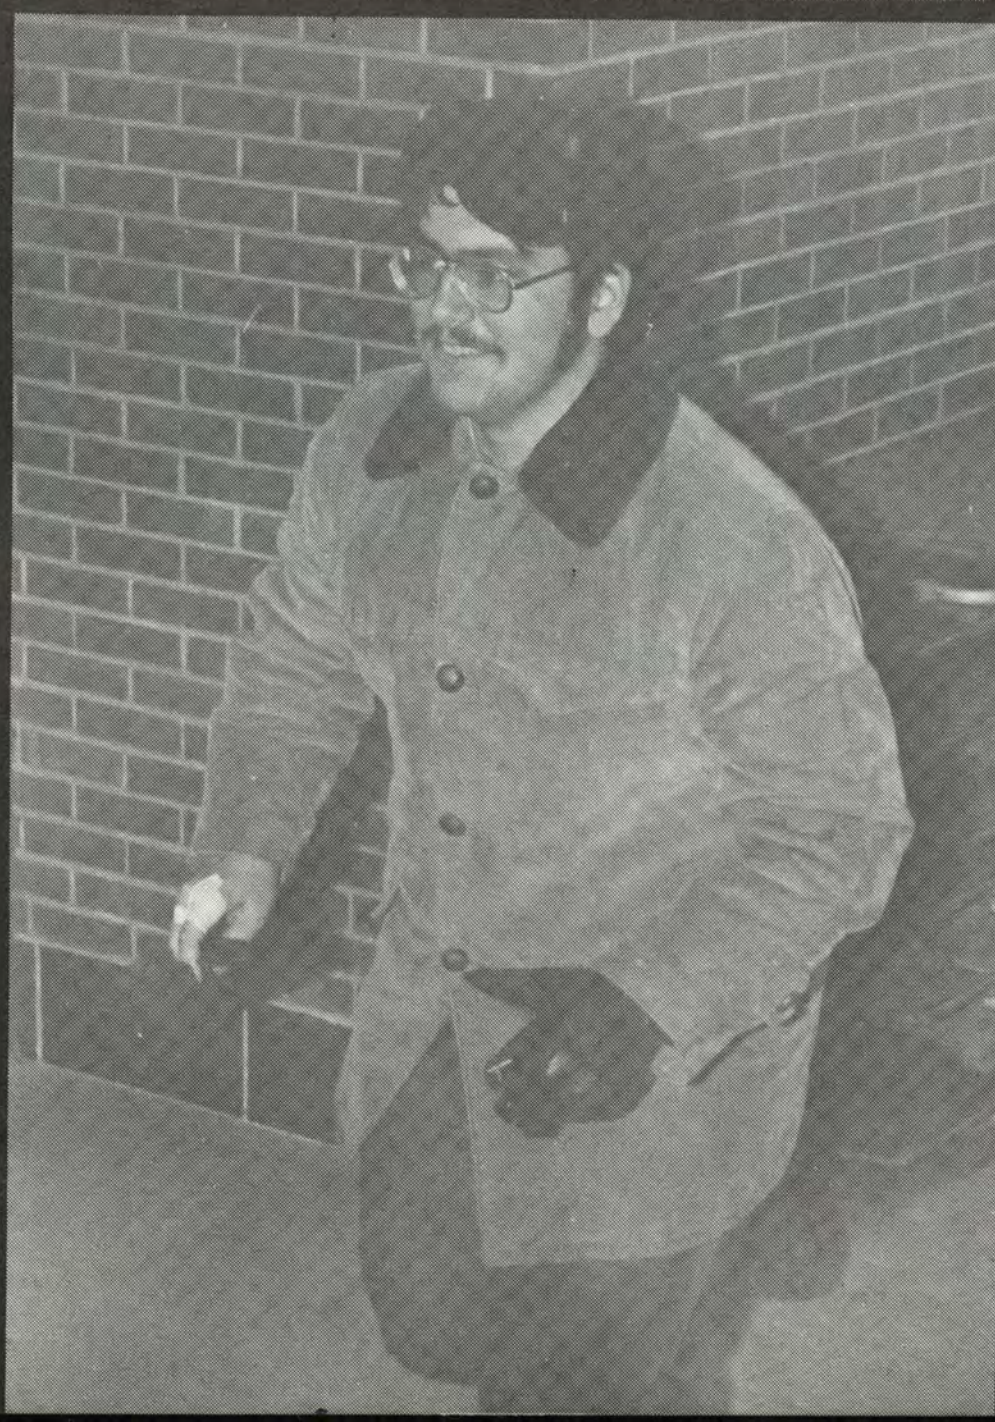

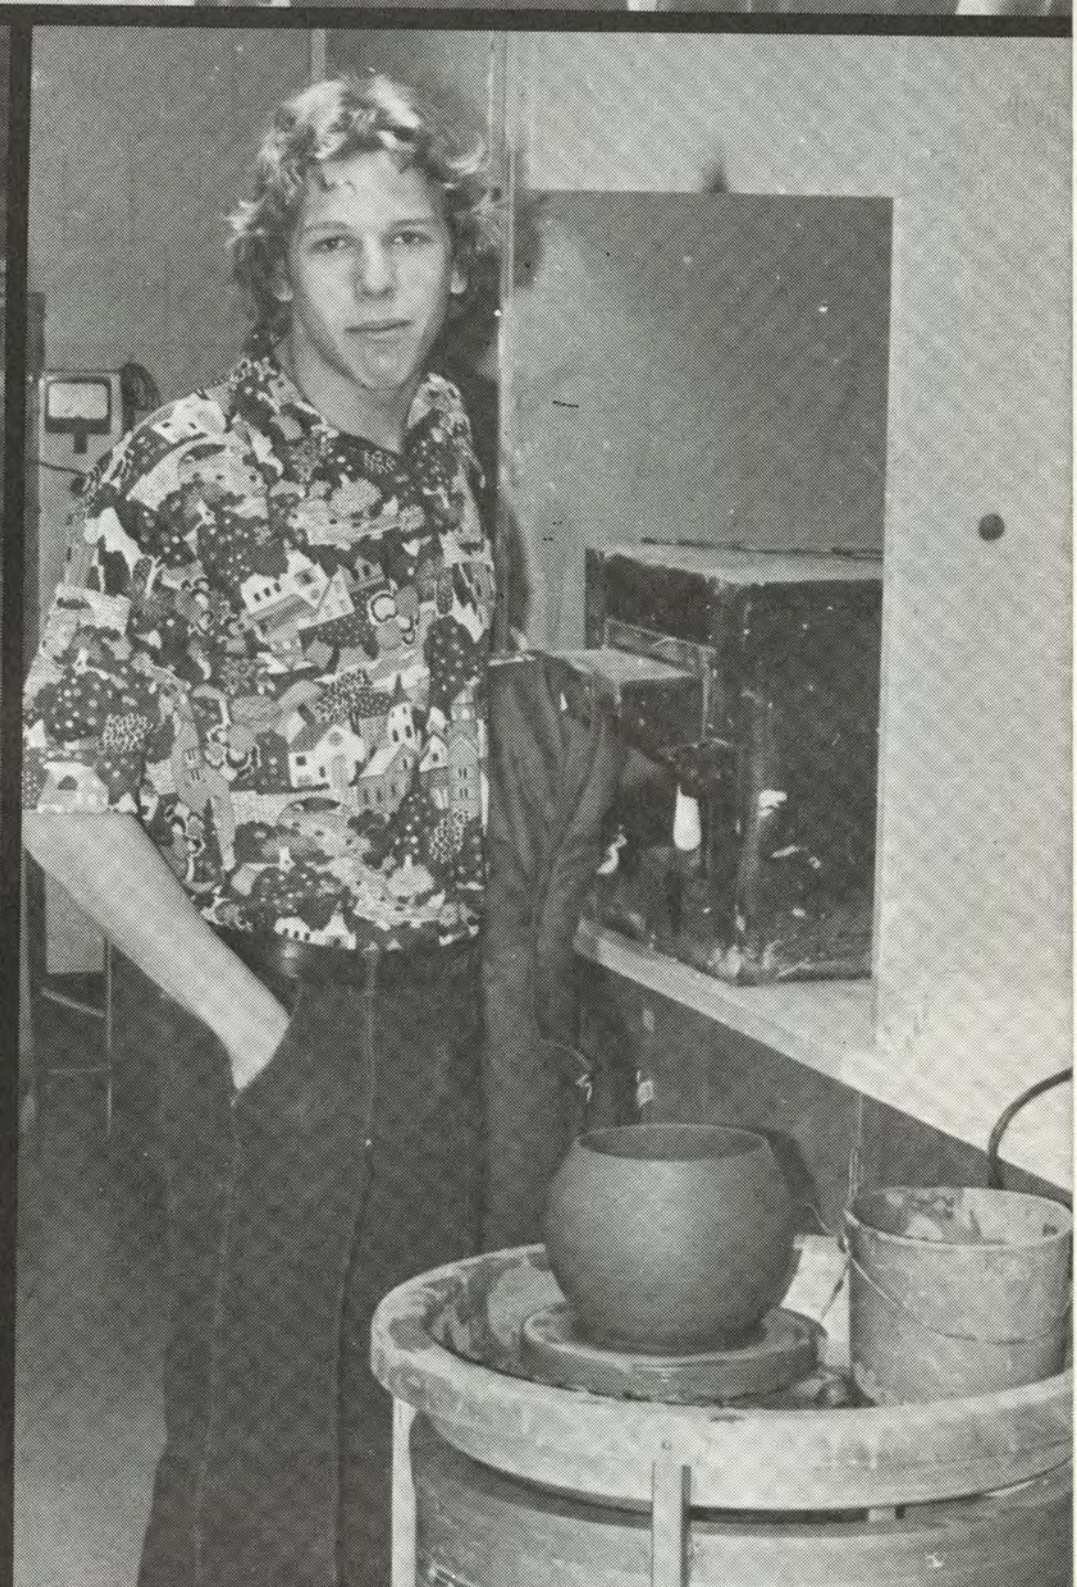

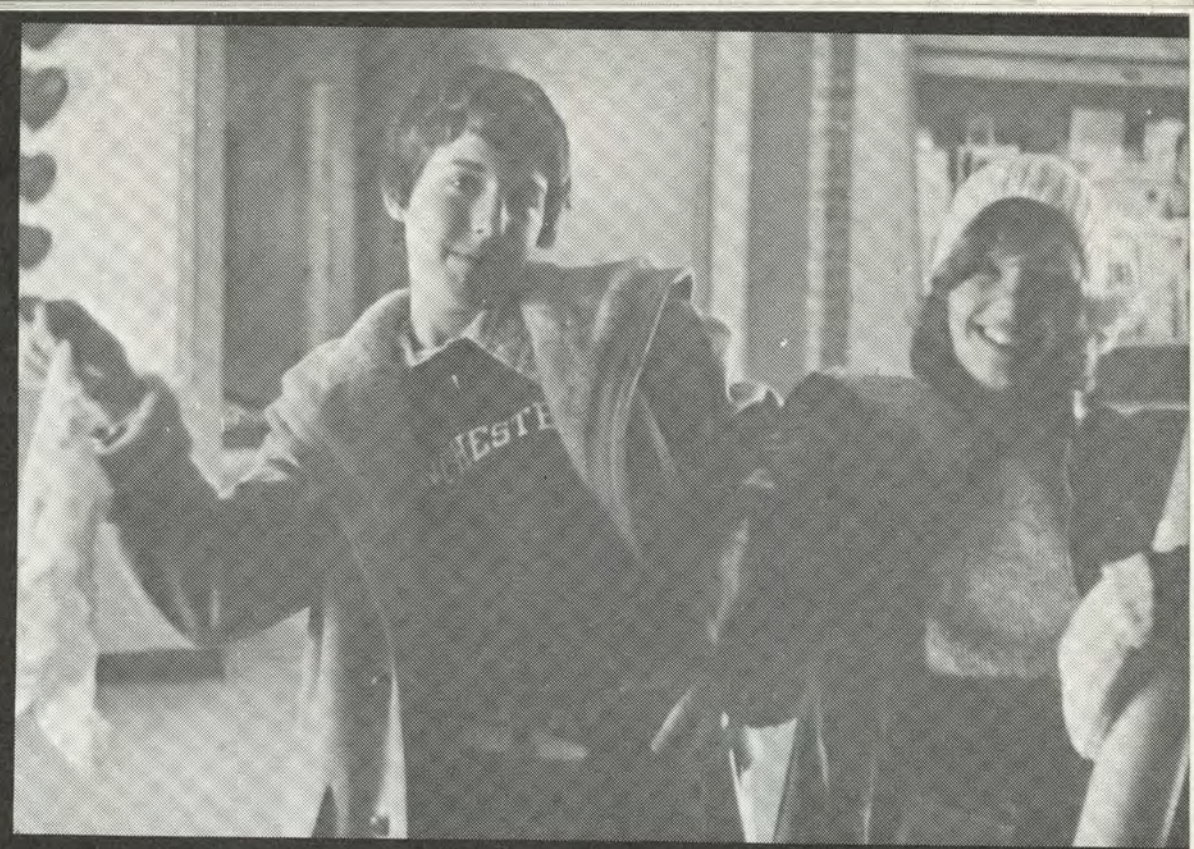

PEOPLE

Clarion Votes Hill MVP

Thank you, thank you, thank you, for presenting me with the MVP on the CLARION staff. I'd like to thank those who made it all possible: MY staff, all five of them, and those whose constant determination helped me win; Bob Bell for rewriting some of the theme copy to HIS specifications, forcing us to do some of it over; Mike Beer as a business manager that never appeared; the sophomore girls for their constant rifling through pictures; Steve Doran, for without all his pictures the book would be plenty empty; and the faculty for supporting us so heartily, by buying a total of five books.

Being Editor is a tough job; it doesn't last a season, or nine weeks, but a year. Unlike sports, drama, or even the newspaper where the results are known quickly, the work that is done isn't seen for months. When it does come out there are no reviews or write-ups, just a bunch of kids eager to get their books, who won't, hopefully, stash it away the next day. Then there are the kids who cut down the book, but ask how it can be improved they won't utter a word. Few know of the time that is spent; it takes A LOT of work. Those pictures just didn't get there by magic, it may look simple, but it can and has turned into a real headache. The rewards and recognition one receives, if any, are small. You have to enjoy it to work on the book.

I wanted to change the book, from what it had been in the last ten years

(not much) to show a better picture of the happenings at U-High. I think it was accomplished. I enjoyed the job, and once I got involved, it became a part of every day. But I am glad that it is now all over. I did enjoy it, but as the year came to a close I wanted to get out of school like everyone else, but couldn't because the book still had much to do and had to be finished. I don't think I could take another year of being editor. I've had enough problems, frustrations, deadlines for one year. The staff, well, without them the book would have never existed. The staff often piddled around, avoiding those pages they didn't like. Sometimes I wondered if they knew they had to do things they didn't like and that the book WAS going to be finished. But somehow we did manage to make it. We often wondered if our sponsor, Miss Scott, (Peg or Mom) remembered about us, but she did manage to come through.

Remember we may produce the book, but it is YOUR yearbook.

And without Rodgers & Hammerstein, Pooh, Aunt Ruth, and the 44,986 residents of Enid, Oklahoma, I'd have never made it.

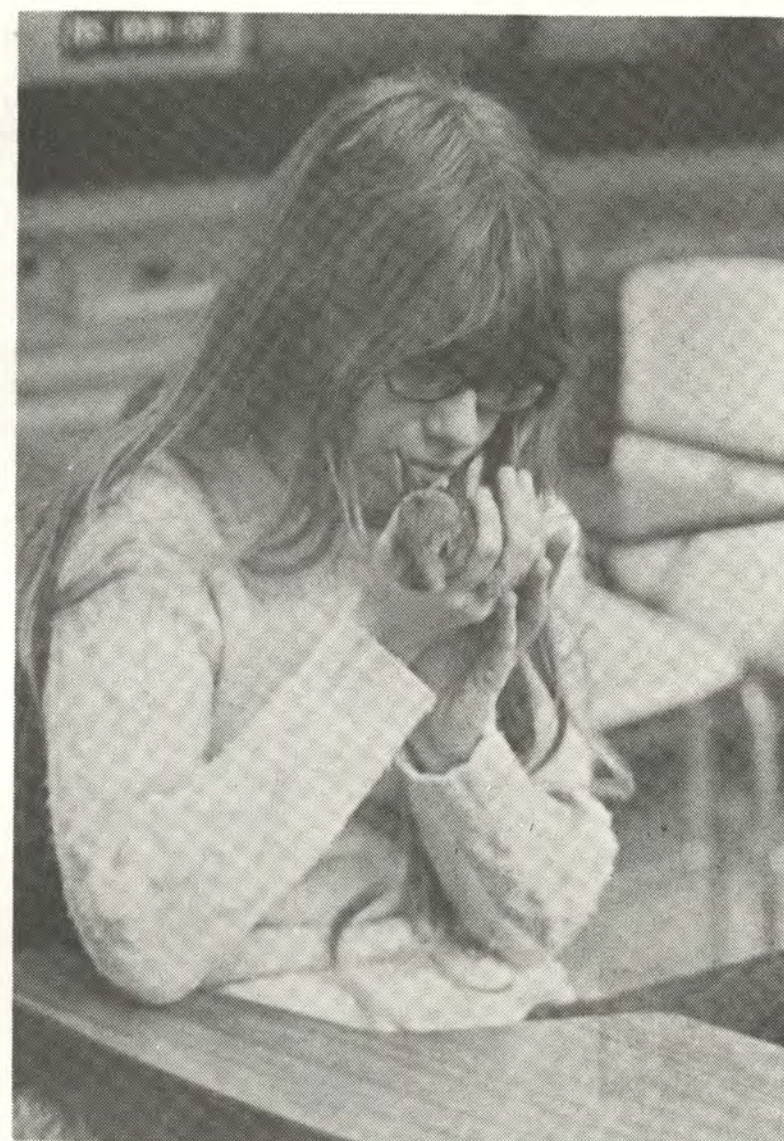

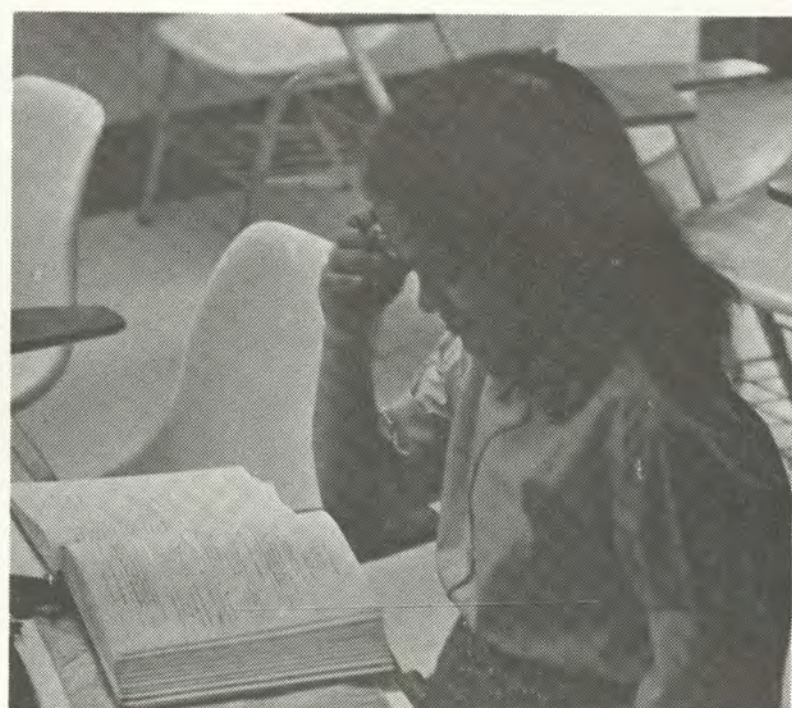

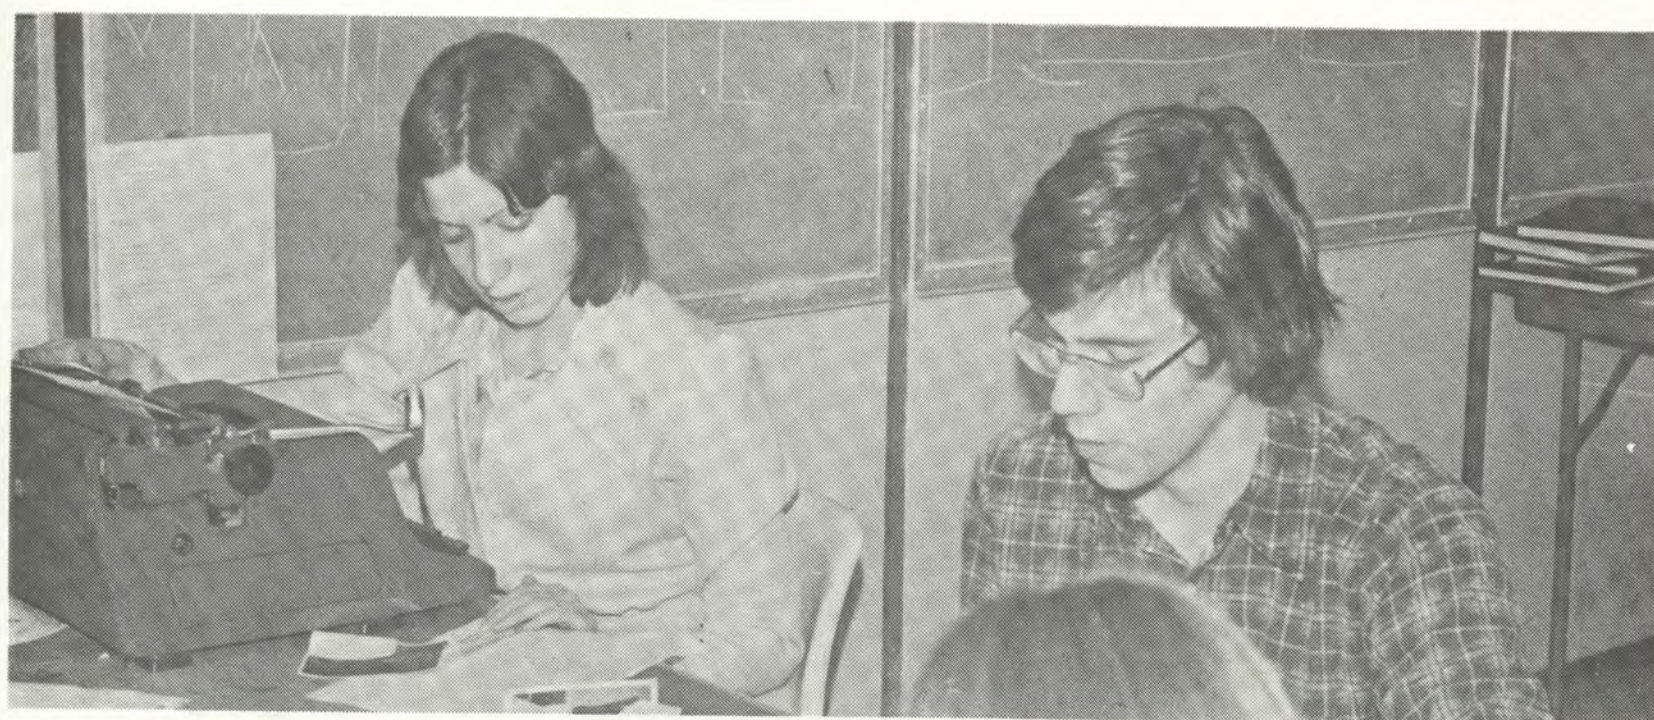

Imprisoned August 23

Released June 27

STAFF

This showcase of stars was a very elite group, not necessarily by choice of the staff but by choice of all the students who found it easier to look at the pictures than to lay them out. The work was often tedious and seemed unrewarding when there were no concrete results for months on end. Yet, at times, it all seemed worthwhile when the staff had time to consider the value of capturing the year in print and pictures.

Other Clarion staffers were a rather transient crew. Sometimes people were dragged in from the halls to give opinions or a bit of information for copy.

Not everyone can be pictured here and special thanks are given to De Dee Lee, Mike Ritt, Pete Ericksen, Martin Kohn, Leslie Lundy, Raandi Johnson, Maryellen Berlo, Bob Bell, Tim Eaton, Dan Townley, and John Friedhoff. Another thank you is due to the many students who helped with ad sales and pictures.

The number one thank you goes to CLARION photographers who have done an outstanding job of covering events and supplying the book with some excellent shots.

Juniors Reach Out

The class of '76 returned to U-High as upperclassmen. Able to start the year off without the threat of initiation (physical agony), they went in many directions. Suddenly faced with the reality that life did indeed exist after High School, they began to look forward to see what the future held. But the Juniors didn't let the uncertainty of the future get them down. They continued (in the fine U-High tradition) to party at every chance and to be the wild students everyone expected them to be.

The Sophomore class brightened up this year by selling light bulbs. Other money making projects were the sale of T-shirts, Memo Boards, and baked goods. The money they raised will go towards their Junior Prom in '76. Mrs. Pilch and Mr. Macesich, class sponsors, can claim partial credit for the success of the many class projects.

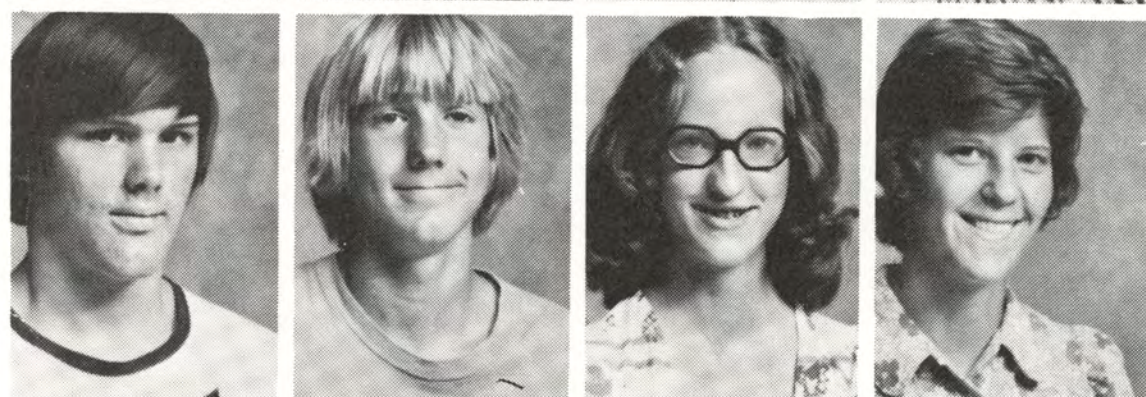

Driver's Ed and the traditional selection of class rings were two events many sophomores looked forward to. Sophomores displayed spirit at home and away, at Pep Assemblies and on Pep Club buses.
